Citizens Loudly Protest and Say Existing Conditions Demand an Instant Remedy.

REV. DR. PRATT TWICE ATTACKED BY FOOTPADS

The city, for its own reputation, and for the protection of its citizens, should rid itself of the thugs and highwaymen that infest it. There have been several instances lately of prominent citizens attacked by footpads. The latest to come to light is that of Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt, the new pastor of the First M. E. church.

Knowing that he was a comparative stranger in the city and judging from his professional appearance that he would prove an easy victim, Dr. Pratt during the few short weeks of his pastorate in this city has twice been accosted by would-be highwaymen.

The first time that the reverend gentleman was attacked occurred about three weeks ago when he was walking alone from his residence on Jackson street to the depot. He had reached the corner of Broadway and Second street and was taken wholly by surprise when a man of heavy build stepped boldly out in front of him, grabbed him roughly by the shoulder and demanded that he hand over his watch.

Carrying a hand satchel and a cane Dr. Pratt was for a moment undecided what to do, feeling that he was handicaped, but grasping the situation he dropped the satchel and with the cane in his right hand delivered a terrific blow in the pit of the man's stomach. The blow evidently came unexpectedly, as the man keeled over on the ground, giving utterance to cries of pain. The minister was satisfied at having defeated the man in his dastardly attempt, and went his way. Not fearing another such attack he did not even report the matter to central station.

The second attempt made to rob Dr. Pratt was within a few days after the first. As before he was walking unattended and not giving robbers a thought, when on one of the promfinent thoroughfares he was confronted by a gang of young men, all under 25 years of age. They did not resort to violence, but blurted out a command that he "shell out," as they were thirsty. Demonstrating his nerve, as on the previous occasion, he had no trouble in putting the ruffians to flight. On neither occasion was Dr. Pratt injured or relieved of any of his jewelry or money, but the experiences were startling and unpleasant. It will be con

BOSSES' COUNTER PROPOSAL READY

They Are Not Pleased With Some Parts of Journeymen Barbers' Scale.

SHAVES 50 CENTS EACH

In Case a Sick Man Is Visited, Is a Clause Which Will Not Be Favored By the Employees—A Meeting to Be Held Tonight.

It may be that East Liverpool residents who are patrons of local barber shops will have a longer wait on next Saturday than usual; for, unless the new journeymen's scale is signed up it is possible they will go on strike.

At a meeting held one night last week, attended by both journeymen and bosses, the new regulations of the latter were formally presented for the consideration of shop owners. Nothing was said at that time as to whether the revised scale of the journeymen would be approved by the bosses. There were several material changes, and it was the opinion of the employers that it would be necessary for all bosses to be consulted in the matter.

Tuesday night a well attended meeting of the bosses was held, and it was the unanimous opinion of those present that the men were asking more than they could make effective. One clause which met with universal disapproval was that which required the bosses to charge 50 cents for a shave in cases where they were called upon to go to a patron's house in case of sickness. The bosses state that in almost every instance they do this class of work themselves, and that they are not disposed to allow the journeymen to dictate what prices shall control.

The closing hours proposed in the new scale are not satisfactory. The employers assert that the hours which prevail at present are satisfactory to nearly all of their patrons, and that should they adopt those proposed a very large number of men engaged at work requiring their presence in the evenings, and especially Saturday nights will be compelled to do without being shaved, or procure a razor and shave themselves, and they fear the latter. A committee was appointed to confer with the journeymen with the object in view of attempting to show them that it would be impossible to adopt the proposed list. The employes had included a clause requiring the bosses to answer the demand by tonight.

This request will be complied with, but in the shape of a visit, from the bosses' committee, who will present a counter proposition. The shop owners' side of the question will be set forth as clearly as it is possible to do, and they say there are but few changes over the journeymen's list asked. Where alterations are made, they say, it is absolutely necessary to change the demands in order that they can be able to make a living for themselves. It is not known what the journeymen will do with the bosses' revised scale.

SIGHT OF HANDCUFFS MUCH ENRAGED HIM

WHITE VERY VIOLENT AS HE STARTED FOR MASSILLON.

It Took Five Men to Handle the Insane Patient—Other Unfortunates.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special.)—Sheriff Leonard took William A. White, the Wellsville insane man, to Massillon today, and George Taylor to the Canton workhouse. The sheriff was joined at Salem by Mrs. Leonard, who had in charge Mrs. William Bowman, an insane woman of that city.

White was in a bad way this morning, and it required the efforts of five men to get him from the jail to the station and into the train. When he got up this morning White was calm and tractable and dressed himself with a little assistance from one of the sheriff's deputies. At the sight of the handcuffs, however, he became excited, and raising his arms above his head backed into a corner of the cell and resisted until overpowered by the sheriff and his assistants.

George Taylor, the workhouse prisoner, helped the sheriff control White after the got on the train, accompanying them to Massillon and then returning to Canton.

Ex-County Treasurer Smith Will Engage in His Old Business at Columbiana.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special)—Ex-County Treasurer C. E. Smith, has decided to move back to his former home at Columbiana and resume the management of the H. H. Smith dry goods store, with which he was connected before he assumed the treasurership.

The continued illness of his father was probably responsible for the decision.

MONEY AWAITS TWO VETERANS

They Served as Assistant Surgeons in the 115th Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

WHEREABOUTS NOT KNOWN

Two Errors Have Been Found in the Section of the Code Relating to Civil Service—That Feature May Be Rendered Void.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, October 30.—Adjutant Gyger has received a communication from Washington, D. C., asking for the address of John W. Reely and A. Jones Patterson, who served as assistant surgeons in the civil war in 115th Ohio Volunteer infantry. The letter states that there is money due each from the government. The regiment was composed of companies raised in East Liverpool, Salem, Columbiana and elsewhere in Columbiana county and in Stark and Summit counties. The regiment was mustered in at Camp Massillon for a period of three years. Colonel Lucy, of Alliance, commanded the regiment for about eighteen months, when he resigned and was succeeded by Lieutenant Colonel T. C. Boone, of Salem, who served as commander until muster out. Col. H. R. Hill, of East Liverpool, was lieutenant colonel of the regiment.

Adjutant General Gyger does not know the whereabouts of Surgeons Reed and Patterson or of any of their relatives. Reed resided at Barnesville before entering the service. Any information which the old members of the regiment may be able to furnish concerning the missing man or their relatives will be appreciated by the department.

Col. H. R. Hill, who served with the One Hundred and Fifteenth, was asked about the men, but could give no information concerning them. He has not heard of them since the close of the war, but by reference to the roster of Ohio soldiers he found that Reed was mustered out of the service June 22, 1865, and that Patterson resigned November 23, 1863.

Two errors have been found in the section of the code relating to the enforcement of civil service by the board of public safety which may have the effect of rendering the section void. One error destroys the sense of one part of the section and the other seems to make the section contradictory. F. N. Sinks, private secretary to Governor Nash, discovered the mistakes.

There are about 400 prisoners in the penitentiary who were convicted under the jury laws which have been declared unconstitutional, and there is a possibility that some of the life men so convicted will demand re-hearings, in which event they will succeed in getting out of prison for a short time at least. Some might obtain freedom through absence of witnesses, who might be dead or out of the state, whose testimony caused their conviction. Then they might get off with lighter sentences.

State Mine Inspector Biddle received a telegram Wednesday announcing that a miner had been killed at East Palestine, Columbiana county. No details were given.

PFANKUCH'S GRIM PURPOSE TO TAKE HIS OWN LIFE

Prof. William Pfankuch, the musician, who attempted suicide yesterday shortly after noon by hanging in a cell at the city hall, continues irrational and laboring under most peculiar hallucinations. It is feared that he may resort to some other rash act which will prove injurious if not fatal.

The denial made in a local paper that the professor attempted suicide was scoffed this morning by Mayor Davidson. It now develops that the musician made the attempt twice. His first trial was by hanging with his head downward, his foot fastened between the iron slats of the cell cot, and the second time was as reported in the News Review. Mayor Davidson is authority for the statement that Pfankuch was hanging by the neck between a chair and an iron bar.

The demented man spent a very restless time last night. He roamed the cell and gave evidence of great fear, believing that some person was attacking him. At times he was seen to crouch low in the cell corner and while in that posture he cried out to imaginary persons present. He seemed to think that his parents were with him and that they were censuring him for the part he had taken in the alleged trouble with his spouse. On his left arm there is a long scar, which, he says, is the result of a fight between himself and his wife. According to his statement she cut him with a knife on the arm in an endeavor to maim him to the extent that he would never be able to use his beloved instrument, the violin, again.

It was the intention of the mayor to release him today and send him to Pittsburg, where he has relatives, but he still showing certain signs of insanity, it is not likely that he will be given freedom for several days.

Friends who have known him in his rational days and are well acquainted with his exceptional ability have visited him at the cell and all express sorrow over his unfortunate condition.

And the Proposition to Organize Is Being Earnestly Discussed By Many Ladies—The Objects And Aims of the National Society.

The proposition of forming a local branch of the national society of the Daughters of the American Revolution in this city is being earnestly discussed by several ladies, and there is a good prospect that preliminary steps will soon be taken to that end. A quiet investigation on the part of those interested reveals the fact that there are enough persons in the city eligible to membership to form a good-sized society. Among the ladies in whose veins runs the blood of revolutionary ancestors are some of the most prominent in the city.

The Daughters of the American Revolution is a flourishing organization and numbers among its members in the east some of the most prominent ladies in the country. It is not an old society, having been incorporated in Washington in 1891, and having been granted a charter by congress February 29, 1896. Its objects are patriotic and praiseworthy.

Among its aims are these: "To perpetuate the memory of the spirit of the men and women who achieved American independence by the acquisition and protection of historical spots and the erection of monuments; by the encouragement of historical research in relation to the revolution and the publication of the results; by the preservation of documents and relics, and of the records of the individual services of revolutionary soldiers and patriots, and by the promotion of celebrations of all patriotic anniversaries.

"To carry out the injunction of Washington in his farewell address to the American people, 'to promote, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge;' to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, to foster true patriotism and love of country, and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty."

Those who are eligible to membership are women above the age of 18, descended from a man or woman, who, with unfailing loyalty, rendered material aid to the cause of independence, from a recognized patriot, a soldier or sailor or civil officer in one of our colonies or states or of the United Colonies or States; provided that the applicant be acceptable to the society.

Twelve members only are sufficient to organize a chapter.

Steubenville And the West Virginia Manufacturing Town Are to Be United.

Steubenville, October 30.—Among the coming events in the near future for Steubenville is the building of the bridge from this city to the West Virginia side, and it is said, that the survey for the abutments made several years ago on the Ohio side, located on High street, between Market and Adams streets, indicates their site when the bridge is built. This will give two fine approaches for the bridge, one on Market street, and the other by the way of Adams street.

The West Virginia farmers are jubilant over the good news that at last they are to have easy access to Steubenville, and there will be satisfaction all round that the city is to have communication with the new Follansbee tin plate settlement.

A BASELESS ACCUSATION AND HOW IT ORIGINATED SUCCINCTLY SET FORTH

Kennedy Had Nothing to Do With Youngstown Resolutions Which He is Falsely Charged With Making.

In 1894 there was a strike on without of the city when the board met the street car employes of Youngstown. The board of commerce of that city held a meeting and adopted a set of resolutions denouncing acts of alleged lawlessness by the strikers as tending to injure the business of the city. Now, the board of commerce of Youngstown was not a political body. It was not organized to elect any man to office nor to deprive any man from attaining any office.

Youngstown's board of commerce was organized to promote the business and industrial interests of Youngstown, and how well they succeeded in the way of landing new industries one has only to take a trip through the Mahoning valley to ascertain. The board was made up of all the people of Youngstown who had either influence or money. On it were Single Taxers, Populists, Republicans, Democrats and Prohibitionists.

When a bare quorum of the members of the board met and adopted the resolution referred to the names of the entire membership of the body were signed to the measure and so printed in the papers at the time. James Kennedy, Republican candidate for congress, was a member of the board, and his name was attached to the resolutions with the rest, although he was and adopted the resolutions.

A Salem weekly paper, failing to "bleed" Mr. Kennedy, sent to Youngstown, secured part of the resolutions and printed them in over 10,000 copies of the sheet with James Kennedy's name attached. The casual reader of the sheet would think Kennedy drafted the resolutions and forced them through to show animus against the strikers. The printing of the resolutions in the Salem paper was only in part, that which suited the purpose of the editor. Any part that might appear favorable to Mr. Kennedy was eliminated. There were about 200 members of the board of commerce at the time, but of all these Mr. Kennedy was made to bear the brunt of the paper's nasty temper, even although he was not in Youngstown when the resolutions were formulated and did not know the board had taken such action until he returned home a week later.

A few years ago John H. Morris, of Youngstown, was the Democratic candidate for congress in this district. He is a member of the board of commerce. No blame ever attached to him for helping to boost Youngstown. So were John H. Clark, A. J. Woolf and dozens of Democrats and others representing all political parties.

KENNEDY HERE AND AT WORK

VISITING REPUBLICAN VOTERS THROUGHOUT THE CITY.

Meeting With Encouragement in His Canvass on Every Hand.

James Kennedy, Republican candidate for congress, arrived in the city at noon today, and immediately began a systematic canvass of the many potteries and other establishments of the city.

Mr. Kennedy is in the hands of the local Republican city committee, and is receiving kind words of encouragement on every hand.

Though it was thought by the city committee to be necessary, as the outlook for Republican success was never brighter, still Mr. Kennedy insisted upon meeting the pottery workers and others in order that they might become acquainted. He covered considerable ground in his visits this afternoon and is being kindly received by all.

Mr. Kennedy will remain here all of tomorrow, and it is thought when he is ready to depart no one will have meen missed.

Interesting Lodge Meeting.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special)—Five candidates were initiated into the Lisbon lodge of Daughters of Rebekah last night. The degree work was put on by the Leetonia team. About 20 members of the Leetonia lodge and several from Alliance were present.

Pay or Go to Court.

Constable Powell served a notice upon Arthur A. Humes, a well known mould maker of the West End, ordering him to either pay his wife alimony granted by the common pleas court several months ago or appear before the court tomorrow and make some explanation of his actions.

CRIMINAL CASES NEARLY ALL TRIED

TWO DECREES GRANTED

Husband the Plaintiff in One Case And Wife in Another—Circuit Court Will Open November Term at Lisbon Wednesday.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special.)—Nearly all of the criminal cases having been disposed of, and only a few important civil cases to be heard, this will be a comparatively dull week in common pleas court. Judge Hole excused the jury shortly after noon yesterday until Friday.

The November term of circuit court will begin next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, with Judges J. B. Burrows, P. A. Laubie and J. M. Cook on the bench.

Two more divorces were granted yesterday afternoon. Alice H. Burson sued for divorce from Willis L. Burson, alleging wilful absence and failure to provide for the last four years. They were married in Salem in 1892. Defendant's whereabouts is unknown. Mrs. Burson is given the custody of their 6 year-old daughter, Camille.

The husband was the plaintiff in the second case. Harvey H. and Minnie McVey were married at Lisbon September 17, 1891. They have two children, Georgia, aged 9, and Addie, aged 7. The husband charged wilful absence and infidelity, saying that the wife had ceased living with him more than three years ago. Mrs. McVey had filed a cross-petition denying these allegations, but the evidence was against her. The husband was granted a divorce with the custody of the children.

PREPARING TO RESUME

No Indication That the Tinplate Mill Is to Be Moved From Lisbon.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special)—The Beaver Tin Plate company's plant here is receiving repairs in every department, and the work is being pushed in a manner to indicate that the mill may be put in operation soon, notwithstanding the recently published story of its prospective removal.

The casual reader of the sheet would think Kennedy drafted the resolutions and forced them through to show animus against the strikers. The printing of the resolutions in the Salem paper was only in part, that which suited the purpose of the editor. Any part that might appear favorable to Mr. Kennedy was eliminated. There were about 200 members of the board of commerce at the time, but of all these Mr. Kennedy was made to bear the brunt of the paper's nasty temper, even although he was not in Youngstown when the resolutions were formulated and did not know the board had taken such action until he returned home a week later.

A few years ago John H. Morris, of Youngstown, was the Democratic candidate for congress in this district. He is a member of the board of commerce. No blame ever attached to him for helping to boost Youngstown. So were John H. Clark, A. J. Woolf and dozens of Democrats and others representing all political parties.

KENNEDY HERE AND AT WORK

VISITING REPUBLICAN VOTERS THROUGHOUT THE CITY.

Meeting With Encouragement in His Canvass on Every Hand.

James Kennedy, Republican candidate for congress, arrived in the city at noon today, and immediately began a systematic canvass of the many potteries and other establishments of the city.

Mr. Kennedy is in the hands of the local Republican city committee, and is receiving kind words of encouragement on every hand.

Though it was thought by the city committee to be necessary, as the outlook for Republican success was never brighter, still Mr. Kennedy insisted upon meeting the pottery workers and others in order that they might become acquainted. He covered considerable ground in his visits this afternoon and is being kindly received by all.

Mr. Kennedy will remain here all of tomorrow, and it is thought when he is ready to depart no one will have meen missed.

Husband the Plaintiff in One Case And Wife in Another—Circuit Court Will Open November Term at Lisbon Wednesday.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special.)—Nearly all of the criminal cases having been disposed of, and only a few important civil cases to be heard, this will be a comparatively dull week in common pleas court. Judge Hole excused the jury shortly after noon yesterday until Friday.

The November term of circuit court will begin next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, with Judges J. B. Burrows, P. A. Laubie and J. M. Cook on the bench.

Two more divorces were granted yesterday afternoon. Alice H. Burson sued for divorce from Willis L. Burson, alleging wilful absence and failure to provide for the last four years. They were married in Salem in 1892. Defendant's whereabouts is unknown. Mrs. Burson is given the custody of their 6 year-old daughter, Camille.

The husband was the plaintiff in the second case. Harvey H. and Minnie McVey were married at Lisbon September 17, 1891. They have two children, Georgia, aged 9, and Addie, aged 7. The husband charged wilful absence and infidelity, saying that the wife had ceased living with him more than three years ago. Mrs. McVey had filed a cross-petition denying these allegations, but the evidence was against her. The husband was granted a divorce with the custody of the children.

PREPARING TO RESUME

No Indication That the Tinplate Mill Is to Be Moved From Lisbon.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special)—The Beaver Tin Plate company's plant here is receiving repairs in every department, and the work is being pushed in a manner to indicate that the mill may be put in operation soon, notwithstanding the recently published story of its prospective removal.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

QUALITY NOW DEMANDED.

One growing tendency of the American people which is a gratifying indication of advancement in knowledge and refinement is their increasing appreciation if what is good in a material sense. It is a certain token of progress when people show dissatisfaction with what is cheap and of inferior quality and reach out for the best that their means will permit them to acquire. The diffusion of knowledge, which brings with it refinement of taste, is probably the main cause of this desire for better things, and this spread of knowledge is going on more rapidly than ever before in the history of this country. Particularly is this true in the buying of pottery products, and it is noticeable in connection with recent trade literature that cheapness is not being pushed to the front so much as it used to be, and that attention is being more generally called to excellence in quality. Manufacturers and dealers report that the demand for high grade products has been increasing with pronounced rapidity in the past few years. Consumers, they say, are showing a more marked appreciation of quality, and do not call to anything like the former extent for cheapness in goods. They are beginning to demand the best their purses can afford. The present generation, too, are better informed, through their higher education, than were their parents as to the merits and advantages of good goods, and their taste is more cultivated. Added to this is the fact that the people today have more money to spend and are consequently better able to gratify their tastes. The progressive manufacturer and tradesman would do well to bear these facts in mind and help along the good work by pushing their high grade goods as much as possible. Not only is there more profit for them in the sale of such goods, but the satisfaction their use will give to the purchaser will naturally be an inducement to them to further patronize the seller first class products.

JIGGERMEN AGAIN WORKING.

A temporary arrangement has been made between the jiggermen of the Globe pottery and the management whereby the clay at that plant will be given another trial. A conference was held yesterday between President A. S. Hughes, of the Brotherhood, and Messrs. Murphy, Horwell and Frederick, of the pottery company, and the men returned to work this morning. All of the departments at the plant that were compelled to be idle on account of the jiggermen quitting work last week will also resume work this morning. This settlement will eliminate the necessity of taking the matter before the joint arbitration board which it was thought would have to be appealed to in the matter.

GEORGE SEBRING'S NEW HOME.

A Cameron, of Salem, is now engaged in drawing plans for a fine residence for the Sebrings which will be erected on Ohio street for the elder Sebrings, who will hereafter live in that thriving village. The residence is to be wholly of veneered brick and finished in the latest and most expensive manner. The residence will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000. When completed Mr. and Mrs. George Sebring, the eldest of the Sebring brothers, who were the promoters of the new town which bears their name, will have one of the most beautiful and expensive residences in that place.

ACCIDENT AT THE DANCE.

Miss Kate O'Brien, a popular decorator at the Goodwin, met with a painful accident at the dance given by Prof. Cassidy at Columbian park Tuesday night. Just after the completion of a dance she was walking across the floor of the pavilion, when in some way she slipped and fell, dislocating her collar bone. She was brought down town to the office of Dr. Taylor, where the injury was cared for.

SMALL STRIKE ON.

A number of the girls employed in the decorating department of the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery, Chester, are on strike over a difference of opinion between the crew and the manager of the department. An attempt is being made to fill their places. The matter has not been reported to Brotherhood headquarters, and it is probable the difficulty can be adjusted without aid from that quarter.

MR. McDONALD ILL.

John McDonald, the efficient manager of the K., T. & K. decorating department, has been laid up with rheumatism for the last few days. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

CLAY VEIN ON LONG ISLAND.

A vein of potter's clay has been discovered at Matinecock, Long Island. Mr. Van Norstrand has tested samples of this clay and investigations are now being pursued to ascertain the extent of the vein. If it proves to be of sufficient length and depth to warrant working, arrangements will be made to convert the clay into a high grade of pottery.

TO ENLARGE NEXT SPRING.

The Akron China company is again running full. The ravages of the recent fire have been completely effaced. The greatest trouble with this firm at the present time is to get ware out to fill the orders. Several new pieces are being modeled for next year. The company expect to enlarge its capacity quite extensively in the spring.

WILL MAKE GAME SCARCE.

Lance and Charles McBride, pressers at the K., T. & K., old end, were out hunting yesterday in the vicinity of Cannon's Mill. The former has just purchased a fine new shot gun, warranted not to miss, and he expects to make the game scarce in this neighborhood before the hunting season is over.

PROMINENT DESIGNER.

Rudolph Gaertner, of New York, a prominent manufacturer of colors and decalcomania designs, is calling at the potteries this week. Mr. Gaertner, who is a native of Carlsbad, Bohemia, is a very pleasant gentleman and ranks among the first designers of the world.

VALUABLE DOG KILLED.

A valuable dog, the property of J. D. Myler, a dishmaker at the Goodwin, was run over and killed yesterday by a street car near Walker. This is the fourth dog the cars have killed for Mr. Myler and he is swearing vengeance on the street car men.

OHIOIANS IN DENVER.

The Denver China and Pottery company has installed all the machinery made for it by East Liverpool foundries and will proceed to make dinner ware upon a small scale. Several Ohio potters are employed at this plant.

STANDARD BUSY.

Two cars of ware were packed yesterday at the Standard for New York. Six extra men were in the packing crew Tuesday and yesterday. The Standard is doing a big fall business.

AMONG THE POTTERS.

Alex Roler is a new mould runner at the Goodwin.

Thomas Black, a presser at the Standard, has been off sick the last few days.

Mrs. May McKeever, forelady of the glost warehouse at the Standard, was off duty yesterday.

Lewis Shively, warehouseman at the Standard, has returned from a visit with relatives near Wheeling.

Miss Ella Bentley, of the decorating room at the K. T. & K., is very sick at her home on Garfield street.

Harry Watkins, foreman of the clay shop at the K. T. & K., old end, is out of the city on a business vacation.

Ed. Martin and Miss Kate Shown, of the decorating room at the Standard, were Lisbon visitors recently.

Miss Jean Shaw, a decorator at the K., T. & K., has been confined to her home by sickness for the past few days.

Burt McFarland, one of the decorators at the K., T. & K., has been walking the floor at night and suffering untold agony with an aching tooth until yesterday when he summoned up his courage to have it extracted.

COING TO ALASKA

Alliance Doctor Receives Report of Fabulously Wealthy Oil And Coal Lands.

Alliance, Ohio, October 30.—Dr. John J. Chambers started today for Alaska. The doctor recently returned from there, after a two and one half years absence, and now goes to look after some valuable holdings he has in the territory.

He is in receipt of a letter calling him there because of the presence of the Standard Oil company as purchasers of an oil field just opened. An oil well which spouts a stream of oil 15 feet high from a nine and one half inch tube and is of the finest quality. An English company is the owner of the well and considerable territory surrounding it has been offered $16,000,000 by the Standard Oil company for its possessions. Dr. Chambers is the owner of a five-eighths interest in 960 acres adjoining the English company's land, and they desire to purchase this tract also.

The coal deposits at this points are very rich, of the best grade of anthracite coal, with veins ranging from four to 28 feet in thickness and are within one mile of the landing for ocean vessels.

HUGE ELECTRIC ROAD.

Cleveland Street Railway Men Say There's More Than Appears on Surface In Proposed Elkins-Widener and Pomeroy-Mandelbaum Combine

Cleveland, Oct. 30.—According to Cleveland street railroad men, there is more significance in the proposed consolidation of the Elkins-Widener and the Pomeroy-Mandelbaum syndicates than has appeared on the surface of the dispatches from Cincinnati.

Representatives of Cincinnati and Boston bond houses were in this city yesterday and were of the opinion that the consolidation would result in the formation of the strongest electric railway syndicate in the United States. They declared that the plan was viewed with favor by eastern bond houses and that generous financial support would be given the Ohio syndicate.

It is claimed that the proposed syndicate will control the longest chain of electric railways in the world, covering more than 1,500 miles.

E. T. Pomeroy, of this city, said yesterday that it was a little early yet to talk about consolidation.

"There is no question, however," he added, "as to what will ultimately happen. The various railways owned or controlled by the two syndicates will be embraced in one big electric railroad."

WOMAN MURDERED.

Body, With Bullet Wounds, Still Warm When Found.

Reading, Mass., Oct. 30.—A hunts man's dog found the body of a murdered woman, just off the well-traveled highway near the Wakefield line, yesterday afternoon. The victim evidently was a tramp and she has not been identified. Walter Locke, whose dog drew him to the place, found the body to be warm and with six wounds in the head, five of them from pistol bullets, while the sixth, which had gashed the left ear and plunged deep into the neck, had been made by some sharp instrument. There was evidently indication that the murder itself had been committed elsewhere and that the body had been taken from a wagon and dragged into the field, where it was found. The dress of the woman seemed to indicate a person prepared for long journeys on foot in all sorts of weather.

FUNERAL OF MRS. STANTON

Anthony, the lifelong friend and co-worker of the dead woman, Lillian Devereaux Blake and Mrs Wilbour, who represented Sorosis.

Addresses were given by the Rev Martin D. Conroy, of the South Place chapel, London and by Mrs. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, of Elizabeth, N. J. The interment was at Woodlawn cemetery, where the ceremony included an address by Mrs. Phoebe Hannford.

HUGE ELECTRIC ROAD.

Cleveland Street Railway Men Say There's More Than Appears on Surface In Proposed Elkins-Widener and Pomeroy-Mandelbaum Combine

Cleveland, Oct. 30.—According to Cleveland street railroad men, there is more significance in the proposed consolidation of the Elkins-Widener and the Pomeroy-Mandelbaum syndicates than has appeared on the surface of the dispatches from Cincinnati.

Representatives of Cincinnati and Boston bond houses were in this city yesterday and were of the opinion that the consolidation would result in the formation of the strongest electric railway syndicate in the United States. They declared that the plan was viewed with favor by eastern bond houses and that generous financial support would be given the Ohio syndicate.

It is claimed that the proposed syndicate will control the longest chain of electric railways in the world, covering more than 1,500 miles.

E. T. Pomeroy, of this city, said yesterday that it was a little early yet to talk about consolidation.

"There is no question, however," he added, "as to what will ultimately happen. The various railways owned or controlled by the two syndicates will be embraced in one big electric railroad."

WOMAN MURDERED.

Body, With Bullet Wounds, Still Warm When Found.

Reading, Mass., Oct. 30.—A hunter's dog found the body of a murdered woman, just off the well-traveled highway near the Wakefield line, yesterday afternoon. The victim evidently was a tramp and she has not been identified. Walter Locke, whose dog drew him to the place, found the body to be warm and with six wounds in the head, five of them from pistol bullets, while the sixth, which had gashed the left ear and plunged deep into the neck, had been made by some sharp instrument. There was evidently indication that the murder itself had been committed elsewhere and that the body had been taken from a wagon and dragged into the field, where it was found. The dress of the woman seemed to indicate a person prepared for long journeys on foot in all sorts of weather.

FUNERAL OF MRS. STANTON.

Susan B. Anthony One Who Attended English Minister Spoke.

New York, Oct. 30.—The funeral of the late Elizabeth Cady Stanton was held yesterday, at her residence in this city. Besides the family there were present only a few close friends who had been invited, including Susan B. Anthony, the lifelong friend and co-worker of the dead woman; Lillian Devereaux Blake and Mrs. Wilbour, who represented Sorosis.

Addresses were given by the Rev. Martin D. Conroy, of the South Place chapel, London and by Mrs. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, of Elizabeth, N. J. The interment was at Woodlawn cemetery, where the ceremony included an address by Mrs. Phoebe Hanaford.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures cold and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. FATE OF THE FIFTH WARD

East Enders Wondering Where They Will Land Under the New Code Bill.

The probable fate of the Fifth ward when the city is redistricted is already interesting the citizens of the East End. Under the new code, cities the size of East Liverpool can have but four wards, so one must necessarily be abolished. The Fifth was formerly the first precinct of the First ward, but it is now probable that part of the First ward may be added to it.

The new ward, it is thought, will embrace all the territory east of Ralston's crossing to the Pennsylvania state line. How it will be designated cannot be foretold, but it may be called the First. The addition of this new territory will make it the largest in area in the city and one of the largest in the number of votes.

MOTORMEN ARRESTED

Two Were Hauled Up in Wellsville, But the Mayor Discharged Them.

The street car men in the East End are laughing in their sleeves this morning at the Wellsville policemen who arrested Motormen Clager and Hurdman yesterday. Since the street car management issued the order to collect fares from all policemen not in uniform there has been trouble brewing and the first clash occurred yesterday.

Two Wellsville policemen who were not dressed as the "finest" should be were charged fare on the cars run by the men above named. Later both motormen failed to sound their gongs at a street crossing and were promptly arrested. They were taken before the chief, who released them, as the ordinance they were supposed to have violated is not yet effective.

There is not enough pressure for lighting purposes and those without electric lights were compelled to resurrect their oil lamps and overcoats and wraps were again much in evidence.

It can be readily seen how much inconvenience the shortage is causing. A number of people called up the Fort Pitt Gas company's office this morning by telephone and were told that the pressure was all right down town, and that there was probably a break in the main to the East End.

PATRIOTISM

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia.

The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier, and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

"After I received the advice which you gave me in regard to my treatment," writes Geo. Dorner, Esq., of 1915 Pulaski Street, Baltimore, Maryland, "I used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' according to directions. After using four bottles I considered myself cured, as I have not felt any symptoms since. Had tried almost all remedies that I heard of that were good for dyspepsia, but without relief. Finally, I became discouraged, and wrote to you for advice, with the above result."

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, men—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous effort to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insiduous consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. To Die of Paralysis Like Father.

Helpless Invalid For Three Years.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Made My Nerves Strong.

"For many years I suffered from terrible headaches and pains at the base of the brain, and finally got so bad that I was overcome with nervous prostration. I had frequent dizzy spells and was so weak and exhausted that I could take but little food. The best physicians told me I could not live; that I would die of paralysis, as my father and grandfather had. I remained a helpless invalid for three years, when I heard of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and began using it. That winter I felt better than I had before in many years, and I have not been troubled with those dreadful headaches since I first used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. My appetite is good and my nerves are strong."—Mrs. N. M. Bucknell, 2020 Oakland Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

"For many years I suffered from nervous prostration, and could not direct my household affairs, nor have any cares. My stomach was very weak, headaches very severe, and I was so nervous that there was not a night in years that I slept over one hour at a time. We spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and medicine. I was taken to Chicago and treated by specialists, but received no benefit at all. Finally I heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine and began its use. I was surprised that it helped me so quickly, and great was my joy to find, after using seven bottles, that I had fully recovered my health."—Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Duluth, Minn.

MAY LOSE THE CANAL

President Might Select Nicaragua Route, if Colombia Sulks.

COULD BUY OUT PANAMA CO.

Then Proceed on Panama Route Without Consulting Colombia—Effort to See Whether Colombia Knows of Concha's Action.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The status yesterday of the Colombian canal negotiations is that both sides here are awaiting a decision of the Colombian government as to whether Minister Concha shall proceed under his original instructions to present to the state department the Colombian response to the department's proposal for a treaty. When the response arrived in Washington, two days ago the minister promptly notified the state department of the fact, but he added to his notice the statement that in view of recent developments (meaning events that had happened on the isthmus since the note started from Bogota, Sept. 16), he had regarded it as his duty to withhold it until he heard further from his government.

Annoying to United States.

As the state department had in some way come to know that the Colombian response would, if submitted, go far towards meeting the desires of this government in the matter of a canal treaty, this delay was very annoying.

A cablegram was sent to United States Minister Hart, at the Colombian capital, notifying him of the action of the Colombian minister here. It was desired to make sure that the Colombian government knew that the note had been held back.

The matter of objection by our own officials is the attempt to link the negotiations for a canal treaty, pure and simple, with the discussion of the question of the correctness of the attitude of our naval officers on the isthmus. It is expected that the delay will not be long, for even if the Colombian answer is not satisfactory the United States government will still be bound by the terms of the Spooner act to proceed towards the construction of an isthmus canal.

Might Change to Nicaragua Route.

There are two ways open, even in case of an adverse attitude on the part of Colombia, namely, either the United States government to proceed without delay to complete the treaties with Nicaragua and Costa Rica necessary for the construction of a canal in those countries, or (and this latter course would be adopted with reluctance) the government might purchase outright the franchise of the French Panama Canal company and go on resolutely with the construction of the Panama canal, taking the ground that it would have a right to improve its own property without reference to any other government, and taking no further notice of Colombia.

PATRIOTISM

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia.

The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier, and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

"After I received the advice which you gave me in regard to my treatment," writes Geo. Dorner, Esq., of 1915 Pulaski Street, Baltimore, Maryland, "I used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' according to directions. After using four bottles I considered myself cured, as I have not felt any symptoms since. Had tried almost all remedies that I heard of that were good for dyspepsia, but without relief. Finally, I became discouraged, and wrote to you for advice, with the above result."

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

To Die of Paralysis Like Father.

Helpless Invalid For Three Years.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Made My Nerves Strong.

"For many years I suffered from terrible headaches and pains at the base of the brain, and finally got so bad that I was overcome with nervous prostration. I had frequent dizzy spells and was so weak and exhausted that I could take but little food. The best physicians told me I could not live; that I would die of paralysis, as my father and grandfather had. I remained a helpless invalid for three years, when I heard of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and began using it. That winter I felt better than I had before in many years, and I have not been troubled with those dreadful headaches since. I first used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. My appetite is good and my nerves are strong."—Mrs. N. M. Bucknell, 2929 Oakland Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

"For many years I suffered from nervous prostration, and could not direct my household affairs, nor have any cares. My stomach was very weak, headaches very severe, and I was so nervous that there was not a night in years that I slept over one hour at a time. We spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and medicine. I was taken to Chicago and treated by specialists, but received no benefit at all. Finally I heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine and began its use. I was surprised that it helped me so quickly, and great was my joy to find, after using seven bottles, that I had fully recovered my health."—Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Duluth, Minn.

President Might Select Nicaragua Route, if Colombia Sulks.

COULD BUY OUT PANAMA CO.

Then Proceed on Panama Route Without Consulting Colombia—Effort to See Whether Colombia Knows of Concha's Action.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The status yesterday of the Colombian canal negotiations is that both sides here are awaiting a decision of the Colombian government as to whether Minister Concha shall proceed under his original instructions to present to the state department the Colombian response to the department's proposal for a treaty. When the response arrived in Washington, two days ago the minister promptly notified the state department of the fact, but he added to his notice the statement that in view of recent developments (meaning events that had happened on the isthmus since the note started from Bogota, Sept. 16), he had regarded it as his duty to withhold it until he heard further from his government.

Annoying to United States.

As the state department had in some way come to know that the Colombian response would, if submitted, go far towards meeting the desires of this government in the matter of a canal treaty, this delay was very annoying.

A cablegram was sent to United States Minister Hart, at the Colombian capital, notifying him of the action of the Colombian minister here. It was desired to make sure that the Colombian government knew that the note had been held back.

and simple, with the discussion of the question of the correctness of the attitude of our naval officers on the isthmus. It is expected that the delay will not be long, for even if the Colombian answer is not satisfactory the United States government will still be bound by the terms of the Spooner act to proceed towards the construction of an isthmus canal.

Might Change to Nicaragua Route.

There are two ways open, even in case of an adverse attitude on the part of Colombia, namely, either the United States government to proceed without delay to complete the treaties with Nicaragua and Costa Rica necessary for the construction of a canal in those countries, or (and this latter course would be adopted with reluctance) the government might purchase outright the franchise of the French Panama Canal company and go on resolutely with the construction of the Panama canal, taking the ground that it would have a right to improve its own property without reference to any other government, and taking no further notice of Colombia.

There is no question before the voters of Ohio this fall so important as the election of congressmen. The state has always stood foremost in the land for its ability, strength and influence of its representatives in the national legislature. It will stand there against if the Republicans of the state do their duty this fall. Ohio's interests, with the interests of all the land, will be assailed, if the free trade Democracy gets a chance. A continuance of present marvelous prosperity can only be assured by the election of a Republican congress. The city of East Liverpool, whose chief industry owes its existence and prosperity to national protection, will lend no encouragement to the men who would tinker with the tariff and wipe it out of existence if they could.

The attempt to censure James Kennedy for action which the Youngstown board of commerce took in condemning a strike, though he was not present at the board meeting or aware of its action, is the silliest campaign canard ever brought to public notice. It is just as reasonable as it would be to attack a man for belonging to a church because there was once a church member who was hung. The Labor man who can find nothing more than this in the career of the Republican candidate with which to find fault ought to cease laboring in politics.

Lest voters forget, they are again reminded that there are two Democrats running for congress in this district. True Republicans will vote for neither, and both will be snowed under by majorities that will show them that the Eighteenth district has no sympathy for calamity howlers or for the adherents of a party that would bring back the calamities that followed the enactment of the Wilson tariff.

Mrs. George Vanderbilt has issued orders that all her male servants must lift their hats when they enter the presence of her one-year-old child. Let us hope the youngster appreciates the exalted nature of its position sufficiently to refrain from squalling before the menials.

The new municipal code is in existence and will become operative next spring. It is not too early for the East Liverpool city council to take cognizance of the fact and to arrange for the changes that will be necessary. The redistricting of the city into four wards instead of five should be taken up and carefully investigated, so that no mistake will be made when the time for action arrives.

If the government of Colombia, or what passes for such, shows a disposition to act the hog, Uncle Sam will undoubtedly give it a sharp reminder that it by no means has possession of the only practicable canal route.

The president has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation in ample time to enable all who have so far overlooked that important matter to begin fattening the turkey.

Democrats all over the country are calling for Grover Cleveland to "come and spellbind a little." Mr. Bryan is listening to these appeals with silent contempt.

A New Jersey young man tried to cure an anarchist by whipping him. That's a foolish way and unnecessarily exhausting when soap and water are so cheap.

England and Germany have arranged to divide South Africa between them. That's what South Africa gets for being outside of the Monroe doctrine.

Kennedy is the true Labor candidate. He never endorsed the Democratic platform or expressed regret that he could not run on the Democratic ticket.

Thanksgiving day comes, very appropriately, after election.

OBITUARY

BOWLING CONTEST

A Tournament Arranged in Which the Local Players Are Much Interested.

Manager Craig, of the Imperial bowling team, has made arrangements for a bowling tournament in which all local lovers of the game are taking great interest. The games are to be played on the Imperial alleys at some date in the near future. Those who will participate in the tournament are the teams of Wellsville, Sebring, Salem and the local aggregation. Among these teams great rivalry has existed for more than a year, and although the games will be played for the pleasure derived the long standing doubts as to the superiority of each team will be decided.

At the present time judges of the game state that Wellsville and Sebring are a little in the lead. But the locals and Salem claim they are at least their equals.

Those who will compose the Wellsville and East Liverpool teams are:

Wellsville—M. R. Shingler, Willet Aten, Charles Hall, Richard Harsha and Mr. Hamilton.

NEW WHARF PROJECT

Chester Needs a Boat Landing And Hopes to Have One Soon.

The citizens of Chester are becoming interested in the proposed wharf at the foot of Adolphus street. James E. McDonald, who has been promoting the enterprise, says a wharf can be established at a very small expense. The natural slope of the street to the river at this point, with a small amount of work, will make a fine grade.

With the increased traffic by water of the past two or three years, it is only a matter of time when Chester will be sadly in need of a boat landing. It is hoped Chester, with her other rapid strides of improvement, will not lose sight of this project.

AT THE THEATER

The pastoral drama seems to be in great favor with East Liverpool theatergoers and a crowded house greeted "Way Down East," a representative play of its class. Although not particularly true to the Yankee type, all the actors were very clever and their performance was pleasing. Miss Anna Bridges, as Anna Moore, the wronged girl, is the best emotional actress seen on the local stage this year and she was given numerous curtain calls. The village choir was another pleasing feature. The play was superbly staged, the snow storm in the third act being particularly ingenious.

"Are You a Mason?" is simply the title of Rich & Harris' big farce comedy success which will be presented at the Grand November 3. The story of the play hinges on the complications that follow the deceptions of two husbands who pretend that they have followed the requests of their wives to join Masonic lodges. The fun that ensues through their efforts to escape detection is highly ludicrous and mirth provoking and is incessant from the rise to the final fall of the curtain.

The first and greatest achievement in railroad scenic effect is Lincoln J. Carter's "The Fast Mail," which comes to the Grand Saturday night. Interest starts at a hurricane pace and never lags for a moment, until the fall of the curtain. This is where you go away from the theater feeling you've had something for your money.

"Side Tracked" is in its fourteenth year of success. This season Jule Walters promises a practically new production, inasmuch as the play has been entirely rewritten and made up-to-date. "Side Tracked" has been played 5,315 times; what better recommendation could anyone ask?

ceded that the new resident of the city is of the type that several hundred more should be if it is expected that the city will ever be rid of the rogues who worked without interruption for so long.

The police department is being severely censured on all sides for its inability to gain clues which will lead to the arrest of the nefarious workers. When approached on the subject they point out that the police force is too small. That being granted, citizens are arguing that it is not too small to make arrests, and that all suspicious characters should be watched and arrested, and the town ridded of them. One well known business man said today:

"Matters have certainly come to a pretty pass in East Liverpool when such a man as Dr. Pratt cannot travel the streets unmolested. The city can better afford to pay for more police than to stand the reputation of being a town where thugs and highwaymen can pursue their work without let or hindrance. In the past three months dozens of cases of highway robbery, attempted or accomplished, many of them in the very heart of the city, have been reported. If any of the offenders have been captured and punished the fact has escaped my notice. Men, women and children have been pursued by specimens of humanity that should not be suffered to live outside of penitentiary walls. By no means all of these cases find their way into the newspapers. I was told only last evening of the wife of a prominent merchant being chased by an unknown man a few nights ago on Third street. The same character was said to have frightened other women and girls in that locality until few if any ladies of that neighborhood dared venture out alone after dark.

"A prominent physician, it will be recalled, was ordered to hold up his hands not many nights ago, while going about his business in the very center of the city. Whose turn will come next nobody can tell. I dislike to go armed, but do so, feeling bound to protect myself if the police cannot protect me. Other men with whom I have talked feel the same way and I know of several who carry a revolver every time they go out of an evening. There will be a dead robber if I am ever accosted on the street, unless he gets the drop on me.

"Making every allowance for exaggerated reports and for the tales of people too frightened to give an accurate story of the cause of their fright, it is a fact that cases of robbery are becoming alarmingly frequent. Prevailing conditions are a disgrace to the city. A remedy must be found. I am not familiar with the workings of the police system, but I know there is a lot of police work that needs to be done that is not done. If the present officers do all they can—and it is fair to assume that they do—then, in the name and the interests of law and order, let us have more police. The city's first duty is to protect its citizens. To confess its inability to do so is a humiliation that a live town like this should never be subjected to.

"If this thing keeps up, and the thugs and the highwaymen keep on growing bolder and bolder, as they are doing now, murder will inevitably be added to the crime of robbery. The city should not wait for that to arouse itself and take measures to abate the peril threatening its people."

Lest voters forget, they are again reminded that there are two Democrats running for congress in this district. True Republicans will vote for neither, and both will be snowed under by majorities that will show them that the Eighteenth district has no sympathy for calamity howlers or for the adherents of a party that would bring back the calamities that followed the enactment of the Wilson tariff.

Mrs. George Vanderbilt has issued orders that all her male servants must lift their hats when they enter the presence of her one-year-old child. Let us hope the youngster appreciates the exalted nature of its position sufficiently to refrain from squalling before the menials.

The new municipal code is in existence and will become operative next spring. It is not too early for the East Liverpool city council to take cognizance of the fact and to arrange for the changes that will be necessary. The redistricting of the city into four wards instead of five should be taken up and carefully investigated, so that no mistake will be made when the time for action arrives.

If the government of Colombia, or what passes for such, shows a disposition to act the hog, Uncle Sam will undoubtedly give it a sharp reminder that it by no means has possession of the only practicable canal route.

The president has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation in ample time to enable all who have so far overlooked that important matter to begin fattening the turkey.

Democrats all over the country are calling for Grover Cleveland to "come and spellbind a little." Mr. Bryan is listening to these appeals with silent contempt.

A New Jersey young man tried to cure an anarchist by whipping him. That's a foolish way and unnecessarily exhausting when soap and water are so cheap.

England and Germany have arranged to divide South Africa between them. That's what South Africa gets for being outside of the Monroe doctrine.

Kennedy is the true Labor candidate. He never endorsed the Democratic platform or expressed regret that he could not run on the Democratic ticket.

Thanksgiving day comes, very appropriately, after election.

BOWLING CONTEST

A Tournament Arranged in Which the Local Players Are Much Interested.

Manager Craig, of the Imperial bowling team, has made arrangements for a bowling tournament in which all local lovers of the game are taking great interest. The games are to be played on the Imperial alleys at some date in the near future. Those who will participate in the tournament are the teams of Wellsville, Sebring, Salem and the local aggregation. Among these teams great rivalry has existed for more than a year, and although the games will be played for the pleasure derived the long standing doubts as to the superiority of each team will be decided.

At the present time judges of the game state that Wellsville and Sebring are a little in the lead. But the locals and Salem claim they are at least their equals.

Those who will compose the Wellsville and East Liverpool teams are:

Wellsville—M. R. Shingler, Willet Aten, Charles Hall, Richard Harsha and Mr. Hamilton.

NEW WHARF PROJECT

Chester Needs a Boat Landing And Hopes to Have One Soon.

The citizens of Chester are becoming interested in the proposed wharf at the foot of Adolphus street. James E. McDonald, who has been promoting the enterprise, says a wharf can be established at a very small expense. The natural slope of the street to the river at this point, with a small amount of work, will make a fine grade.

With the increased traffic by water of the past two or three years, it is only a matter of time when Chester will be sadly in need of a boat landing. It is hoped Chester, with her other rapid strides of improvement, will not lose sight of this project.

AT THE THEATER

The pastoral drama seems to be in great favor with East Liverpool theatergoers and a crowded house greeted "Way Down East," a representative play of its class. Although not particularly true to the Yankee type, all the actors were very clever and their performance was pleasing. Miss Anna Bridges, as Anna Moore, the wronged girl, is the best emotional actress seen on the local stage this year and she was given numerous curtain calls. The village choir was another pleasing feature. The play was superbly staged, the snow storm in the third act being particularly ingenious.

"Are You a Mason?" is simply the title of Rich & Harris' big farce comedy success which will be presented at the Grand November 3. The story of the play hinges on the complications that follow the deceptions of two husbands who pretend that they have followed the requests of their wives to join Masonic lodges. The fun that ensues through their efforts to escape detection is highly ludicrous and mirth provoking and is incessant from the rise to the final fall of the curtain.

The first and greatest achievement in railroad scenic effect is Lincoln J. Carter's "The Fast Mail," which comes to the Grand Saturday night. Interest starts at a hurricane pace and never lags for a moment, until the fall of the curtain. This is where you go away from the theater feeling you've had something for your money.

"Side Tracked" is in its fourteenth year of success. This season Jule Walters promises a practically new production, inasmuch as the play has been entirely rewritten and made up-to-date. "Side Tracked" has been played 5,315 times; what better recommendation could anyone ask?

ceded that the new resident of the city is of the type that several hundred more should be if it is expected that the city will ever be rid of the rogues who worked without interruption for so long.

The police department is being severely censured on all sides for its inability to gain clues which will lead to the arrest of the nefarious workers. When approached on the subject they point out that the police force is too small. That being granted, citizens are arguing that it is not too small to make arrests, and that all suspicious characters should be watched and arrested, and the town ridded of them. One well known business man said today:

"Matters have certainly come to a pretty pass in East Liverpool when such a man as Dr. Pratt cannot travel the streets unmolested. The city can better afford to pay for more police than to stand the reputation of being a town where thugs and highwaymen can pursue their work without let or hindrance. In the past three months dozens of cases of highway robbery, attempted or accomplished, many of them in the very heart of the city, have been reported. If any of the offenders have been captured and punished the fact has escaped my notice. Men, women and children have been pursued by specimens of humanity that should not be suffered to live outside of penitentiary walls. By no means all of these cases find their way into the newspapers. I was told only last evening of the wife of a prominent merchant being chased by an unknown man a few nights ago on Third street. The same character was said to have frightened other women and girls in that locality until few if any ladies of that neighborhood dared venture out alone after dark.

"A prominent physician, it will be recalled, was ordered to hold up his hands not many nights ago, while going about his business in the very center of the city. Whose turn will come next nobody can tell. I dislike to go armed, but do so, feeling bound to protect myself if the police cannot protect me. Other men with whom I have talked feel the same way and I know of several who carry a revolver every time they go out of an evening. There will be a dead robber if I am ever accosted on the street, unless he gets the drop on me.

"Making every allowance for exaggerated reports and for the tales of people too frightened to give an accurate story of the cause of their fright, it is a fact that cases of robbery are becoming alarmingly frequent. Prevailing conditions are a disgrace to the city. A remedy must be found. I am not familiar with the workings of the police system, but I know there is a lot of police work that needs to be done that is not done. If the present officers do all they can—and it is fair to assume that they do—then, in the name and the interests of law and order, let us have more police. The city's first duty is to protect its citizens. To confess its inability to do so is a humiliation that a live town like this should never be subjected to.

"If this thing keeps up, and the thugs and the highwaymen keep on growing bolder and bolder, as they are doing now, murder will inevitably be added to the crime of robbery. The city should not wait for that to arouse itself and take measures to abate the peril threatening its people."

ROOSEVELT ON PRESIDENTS.

Article He Wrote, Before Nominated For Vice President, to Be Published In Youth's Companion.

Boston, Oct. 30.—In an article written for the Youth's Companion which will be published next week, Theodore Roosevelt gives his ideas of the duties and responsibilities of the president of the United States. Mr. Roosevelt wrote the article in 1900, while he was governor of New York and previous to the Republican national convention which nominated him for vice president. In it Mr. Roosevelt says in part:

One of Greatest of Rulers.

"The president of the United States occupies a position of peculiar importance. In the whole world there is no other ruler, certainly no other ruler under free institutions, whose power compares with his. Of course there is the enormous personal factor of the incumbent himself to be considered entirely apart from the power of the office itself. This is merely another way of stating that in any office the personal question is always of vital consequence.

"There is every reason why the president should be held to a sharp accountability alike for what he does and for what he leaves undone. But we injure ourselves and the nation if we fail to treat with proper respect the man who, in the highest office of our land, is striving to do his duty.

"The war department was utterly neglected for over 30 years after the Civil War. Neither the regular officers nor the regular soldier takes any part in politics as a rule, so that the demagogue and bread-and-butter politician have no fear of his vote; and to both of them, and also to the cheap sensational newspaper, the army offers a favorite subject for attack.

"So it often happens that some amiable people really get a little afraid of the army and have some idea that it may be used some time or other against our liberties.

Army Never Menaces the People.

"The army never has been, and, I am sure, it never will be or can be a menace to anybody save America's foes, or aught but a source of pride to every good and far-sighted American.

"Altogether, there are few harder tasks than that of filling well and ably the office of president of the United States. But if the man at the close of his term is able to feel that he has done his duty well, he has the satisfaction of feeling that he has performed one of the great world tasks and that mere performance is in itself the greatest of all possible rewards."

TO INSPECT THE MILL

A Party of Expert Tin Plate Workers Have Come to Chester For That Purpose.

A large party of tin plate workers arrived in Chester this morning, and during the day they will make a complete inspection of every department of the Chester mill. The men who form the party are all workmen in some of the plants controlled by the American Tin Plate Co. They are experts in their line and are in a position to do the work that has been placed upon them.

The inspection of the plant by workmen employed in other mills is in accordance with a method that has been adopted by the tin plate company with their mills throughout the country. Each mill is inspected at stated intervals by workmen taken from other mills and the recommendations of these men is given the highest consideration by the company officials.

The party will be in charge of one of the district officials and will include men from each of the different departments. At the conclusion of the inspection this afternoon a banquet will be served in the office at the mill at which all the spectators will be present. Each member of the party will be called to give a resume of his opinion as to the manner in which the work is being conducted at the plant.

The different spectators will give their unbiased opinion and will also make any suggestions they may have whereby the departments could be improved. A stenographer will take down all the reports and they will later be submitted to the general officers of the company where they will be thoroughly reviewed and acted upon if it is seen fit to do so.

Mr. Morgan, in behalf of the railroad company, proposed to build a bridge at First street if the town will make and keep in repair the approaches. As the approaches can be made with very little expense after the bridge is built, it is thought the council will accept the proposition.

The Southside street cars are only running on the west bound tracks today. Workmen are rolling the east bound track preparing to pave. They are hauling the big roller, which fits nicely between the rails, with a car with Supt. McKinnon at the throttle. In this way they are making a very solid bed. Several cars of brick were received this morning for Contractor Coats, who will commence putting them down right away.

BOYCE-SWANEY

LARGELY ATTENDED AND VERY PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Decorations of the Finest, Handsome Costumes, Fine Repast, And Presents Many.

As previously announced in this paper yesterday, the ceremony uniting the lives and fortunes of Mr. William Swaney and Miss Kathryn Boyce occurred at the home of the bride's mother last evening on Forest street. It was one of the most impressive and beautiful home weddings which has been solemnized in this city for some time. To the sweet strains of "Lohengrin" from the piano played by Miss Maude Carr, who were pink crepe de chene over pink silk, Miss Boyce, only sister of the bride, attired in white batiste with pink accessions, preceded the bridal party as ribbon bearer to the mantel. This was banked with laurel and pink chrysanthemums, above which was a life size picture of the late A. J. Boyce, father of the bride, which also was encircled with laurel. Following the ribbon bearer came Rev. C. G. Jordan and then the groom, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Daniel Swaney.

Miss Maude Wallace acted as maid-of-honor and looked charming in a gown of blue voile over blue silk, with a point Duchess lace bertha, and carrying a large bouquet of pink roses. Following her the bride approached the marriage altar attired in a gown of white batiste, en traine, being composed of tiny tucks in clusters alternating with point d'esprite insertion, forming a deep circular flounce. The upper part of the skirt was also composed of groups of tucks and insertion. The waist was made entirely of clusters of tucks and insertion, alternating with a small shoulder bertha of the same lace. This handsome gown was further enhanced by a white satin sash, fastened at the back with full rosette and each streamer being tied in pretty bows, near the end. The bride wore a full rosette of white tulle in her coiffure and also one tied at the back of the neck. She carried a beautiful large bunch of white roses, tied with white satin ribbon and never looked more handsome in her life.

While the ceremony was being performed, Miss Maud Carr played very softly "Hearts and Flowers." At the conclusion of the solemn words by Rev. Mr. Jordan, congratulations were extended by over 100 guests, followed by an elegant wedding supper. The bride's table, oblong in form, had for a center piece a handsome cut glass vase filled with rare pink roses, from the chandilier above was suspended garlands of similax, fastened at each corner of the table with bows of white satin ribbon. The bride and groom occupied the end of the table which was just below the mantel, banked with white chrysanthemums.

After the sumptuous wedding repast, the bride donned a becoming costume of brown cloth and with the groom appeared at the top of the stairway, which had been effectively decorated with laurel and autumn leaves tied with red bows. At the foot of the stairs stood a bevy of pretty girls awaiting the appearance of the bride, who threw her bridal bouquet among them. It was caught by Miss Maud Wallace. As the happy couple descended the stairs they were showered with rice. They were accompanied to the depot by a large number of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Swaney expect to be absent about two weeks and before returning will visit several eastern cities.

A large collection of beautiful and costly gifts attested the kind thoughts of a host of friends.

Three Weddings to Come.

The banns for three weddings were read for the first time in St. Aloysius' Catholic church last Sunday by Father Smyth. They are: Charles McNicol, foreman of the clay shop at the Standard, to Miss Rebecca Kinney; Charles Walsh to Miss Agnes Lynch, and Ed Ryan to Miss Jennie Walsh, of Beaver Falls.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT

At Miss Smith's Home, Calcutta Road. No Car And the Guests Walked Home.

An entertainment which will long be remembered was that given by Miss Edna Smith last evening at her home on Calcutta road in honor of Miss Lucy Fisher, who is a guest at her home. The early part of the evening was spent in games and cards, which afforded much amusement for the merry crowd present. At 11 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room, where choice refreshments were served. The large table in the center of the dining room was beautifully decorated in pink chrysanthemums and smilax.

When the luncheon was ended the guests passed into the reception room, where they indulged in the singing of popular songs, games and social conversation. Special arrangements had been made for the Calcutta road car to convey the party from the Smith home to the city, but at the appointed hour the car did not arrive and it was found it had jumped the track near Gill's store. The entire party of young people were obliged to walk home, but made the best of their predicament by merry jesting throughout the journey.

Arranging for Entertainment.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the parlors of the association building for the purpose of completing arrangements for the chrysanthemum show and hot turkey supper to be given on the evenings of November 6 and 7 between the hours of 5 and 8 p. m. All ladies concerned are urged to be present.

Chrysanthemum Club.

Miss Tress McNicol entertained the Chrysanthemum club at her home on Fifth street Tuesday evening with a euchre party. Elaborate refreshments were served. Misses Katherine Plunkett and Rose McCarron were the winners of the first prizes and Mrs. Daniel McNicol was awarded the consolation prize.

W. R. C. Oyster Supper.

The Woman's Relief corps, of this city, is making extensive preparations for an oyster supper to be given at its hall, on Friday evening. The ladies of this society have a reputation for the excellence of their suppers, and it will doubtless be well attended.

Rovers' Football Team Have Game Arranged at Crabtree For Saturday.

The East Liverpool Rovers will go to Crabtree, Pa., Saturday to play the association team of that city. The Saturday following, they will play a game with the team from Cecil, Pa., on the Rock Springs grounds. Manager Barlow is taking none but the best teams in the country and some good games can be expected during the season. It would not be surprising to see the local team finish champions of the two states.

Those who will go to Crabtree Saturday are: A. Townley, goal; W. Pope, and Tucker, full backs; Parker, Hall and Bowers, half backs; B. Pope and G. Townley, right forwards; Davis, center; Moore and Challinor, left forwards and Luke Barlow, manager and trainer.

Our gentlemen's shoes at $3 and $3.50 are dressy, neat and durable. Best makes that money can buy. We recommend them especially for quality.

POINT FOR MOLINEUX.

Judge Kept Out Testimony of Witnesses Not Present.

New York, Oct. 30.—The prosecution in the Molineux case rested yesterday, after the defense had secured an important advantage in the decision of Justice Lambert that the reading of the testimony given at the first trial by Mamie Melando and Detective Farrell, both of whom are beyond the jurisdiction of the court, was inadmissable.

The greater part of the session was devoted to the examination of a handwriting expert, who, like all those who have preceded him, testified that one hand wrote the poison package address, the Barnet and Cornish letters and letters admittedly written by Molineux. The presentation of the case in the defense was expected to occupy not more than two days and interest centered whether Molineux would testify in his own behalf.

In it Mr. Roosevelt says in part:

One of Greatest of Rulers.

"The president of the United States occupies a position of peculiar importance. In the whole world there is no other ruler, certainly no other ruler under free institutions, whose power compares with his. Of course there is the enormous personal factor of the incumbent himself to be considered entirely apart from the power of the office itself. This is merely another way of stating that in any office the personal question is always of vital consequence.

"There is every reason why the president should be held to a sharp accountability alike for what he does and for what he leaves undone. But we injure ourselves and the nation if we fail to treat with proper respect the man who, in the highest office of our land, is striving to do his duty.

"The war department was utterly neglected for over 30 years after the Civil War. Neither the regular officers nor the regular soldier takes any part in politics as a rule, so that the demagogue and bread-and-butter politician have no fear of his vote; and to both of them, and also to the cheap sensational newspaper, the army offers a favorite subject for attack.

"So it often happens that some amiable people really get a little afraid of the army and have some idea that it may be used some time or other against our liberties.

Army Never Menaces the People.

"The army never has been, and, I am sure, it never will be or can be a menace to anybody save America's forces, or aught but a source of pride to every good and far-sighted American.

"Altogether, there are few harder tasks than that of filling well and ably the office of president of the United States. But if the man at the close of his term is able to feel that he has done his duty well, he has the satisfaction of feeling that he has performed one of the great world tasks and that mere performance is in itself the greatest of all possible rewards."

TO INSPECT THE MILL

A Party of Expert Tin Plate Workers Have Come to Chester For That Purpose.

A large party of tin plate workers arrived in Chester this morning, and during the day they will make a complete inspection of every department of the Chester mill. The men who form the party are all workmen in some of the plants controlled by the American Tin Plate Co. They are experts in their line and are in a position to do the work that has been placed upon them.

The inspection of the plant by workmen employed in other mills is in accordance with a method that has been adopted by the tin plate company with their mills throughout the country. Each mill is inspected at stated intervals by workmen taken from other mills and the recommendations of these men is given the highest consideration by the company officials.

The party will be in charge of one of the district officials and will include men from each of the different departments. At the conclusion of the inspection this afternoon a banquet will be served in the office at the mill at which all the spectators will be present. Each member of the party will be called to give a resume of his opinion as to the manner in which the work is being conducted at the plant.

The different spectators will give their unbiased opinion and will also make any suggestions they may have whereby the departments could be improved. A stenographer will take down all the reports and they will later be submitted to the general officers of the company where they will be thoroughly reviewed and acted upon if it is seen fit to do so.

BOYCE-SWANEY

Decorations of the Finest, Handsome Costumes, Fine Repast, And Presents Many.

As previously announced in this paper yesterday, the ceremony uniting the lives and fortunes of Mr. William Swaney and Miss Kathryn Boyce occurred at the home of the bride's mother last evening on Forest street. It was one of the most impressive and beautiful home weddings which has been solemnized in this city for some time. To the sweet strains of "Lohengrin" from the piano played by Miss Maude Carr, who were pink crepe de chene over pink silk, Miss Boyce, only sister of the bride, attired in white batiste with pink accessions, preceded the bridal party as ribbon bearer to the mantel. This was banked with laurel and pink chrysanthemums, above which was a life size picture of the late A. J. Boyce, father of the bride, which also was encircled with laurel. Following the ribbon bearer came Rev. C. G. Jordan and then the groom, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Daniel Swaney.

Miss Maude Wallace acted as maid-of-honor and looked charming in a gown of blue voile over blue silk, with a point Duchess lace bertha, and carrying a large bouquet of pink roses. Following her the bride approached the marriage altar attired in a gown of white batiste, en traine, being composed of tiny tucks in clusters alternating with point d'esprite insertion, forming a deep circular flounce. The upper part of the skirt was also composed of groups of tucks and insertion. The waist was made entirely of clusters of tucks and insertion, alternating with a small shoulder bertha of the same lace. This handsome gown was further enhanced by a white satin sash, fastened at the back with full rosette and each streamer being tied in pretty bows, near the end. The bride wore a full rosette of white tulle in her coiffure and also one tied at the back of the neck. She carried a beautiful large bunch of white roses, tied with white satin ribbon and never looked more handsome in her life.

While the ceremony was being performed, Miss Maud Carr played very softly "Hearts and Flowers." At the conclusion of the solemn words by Rev. Mr. Jordan, congratulations were extended by over 100 guests, followed by an elegant wedding supper. The bride's table, oblong in form, had for a center piece a handsome cut glass vase filled with rare pink roses, from the chandilier above was suspended garlands of similax, fastened at each corner of the table with bows of white satin ribbon. The bride and groom occupied the end of the table which was just below the mantel, banked with white chrysanthemums.

After the sumptuous wedding repast, the bride donned a becoming costume of brown cloth and with the groom appeared at the top of the stairway, which had been effectively decorated with laurel and autumn leaves tied with red bows. At the foot of the stairs stood a bevy of pretty girls awaiting the appearance of the bride, who threw her bridal bouquet among them. It was caught by Miss Maud Wallace. As the happy couple descended the stairs, they were showered with rice. They were accompanied to the depot by a large number of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Swaney expect to be absent about two weeks and before returning will visit several eastern cities.

A large collection of beautiful and costly gifts attested the kind thoughts of a host of friends.

Three Weddings to Come.

The banns for three weddings were read for the first time in St. Aloysius' Catholic church last Sunday by Father Smyth. They are: Charles McNicol, foreman of the clay shop at the Standard, to Miss Rebecca Kinney; Charles Walsh to Miss Agnes Lynch, and Ed Ryan to Miss Jennie Walsh, of Beaver Falls.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT

At Miss Smith's Home, Calcutta Road. No Car And the Guests Walked Home.

An entertainment which will long be remembered was that given by Miss Edna Smith last evening at her home on Calcutta road in honor of Miss Lucy Fisher, who is a guest at her home. The early part of the evening was spent in games and cards, which afforded much amusement for the merry crowd present. At 11 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room, where choice refreshments were served. The large table in the center of the dining room was beautifully decorated in pink chrysanthemums and smilax.

When the luncheon was ended the guests passed into the reception room, where they indulged in the singing of popular songs, games and social conversation. Special arrangements had been made for the Calcutta road car to convey the party from the Smith home to the city, but at the appointed hour the car did not arrive and it was found it had jumped the track near Gill's store. The entire party of young people were obliged to walk home, but made the best of their predicament by merry jesting throughout the journey.

Arranging for Entertainment.

All ladies concerned are urged to be present.

POINT FOR MOLINEUX.

Judge Kept Out Testimony of Witnesses Not Present.

New York, Oct. 30.—The prosecution in the Molineux case rested yesterday, after the defense had secured an important advantage in the decision of Justice Lambert that the reading of the testimony given at the first trial by Mamie Melando and Detective Farrell, both of whom are beyond the jurisdiction of the court, was inadmissable.

The greater part of the session was devoted to the examination of a handwriting expert, who, like all those who have preceded him, testified that one hand wrote the poison package address, the Barnet and Cornish letters and letters admittedly written by Molineux. The presentation of the case in the defense was expected to occupy not more than two days and interest centered whether Molineux would testify in his own behalf.

Bound Marshal and Robbed Bank.

Gardner, Ills., Oct. 30.—Six men yesterday morning seized Town Marshal Edmondson, at the engine house, tied him with ropes, took him to the Exchange National bank and set him in a chair. The vault was blown open with dynamite, and the interior of the bank wrecked. The robbers are supposed to have secured between $3,000 and $4,000, although the exact amount is not known. After leaving the bank they took the marshal to the school house, tied a rope around his neck and fastened him to a chair. The chair was placed at the head of a stairway, so that if he struggled to release himself he would fall downstairs and hang himself. The robbers took a train going toward Chicago.

ARBITRATORS' TOUR.

MINERS' HOMES TO BE SEEN.

District President Nicholls Represents the Mine Workers and Mine Officials the Operators—Mitchell's Statement May Be Received.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 30.—The anthracite coal strike commissioners, who will make an inspection of the mines and the homes of the mine workers, arrived here last night over the Central Railroad of New Jersey. Commissioner T. H. Watkins, whose home is in this city, came here early in the day and arranged some of the details for the first day's tour of the upper region. The commission's headquarters are at the Hotel Jermyn, where the party occupy 14 rooms.

A colliery will be visited at Forest City and a washery at Carbondale.

The operators will be represented by General Manager Bryden, of the New York, Ontario and Western company; Superintendent Rose, of the Delaware and Hudson; General Manager Thorne, of the Temple Iron company, and General Manager May, of the Erie company. District President T. D. Nicholls, of the miners' union, is to be the principal representative of the miners.

The commissioners will stop at Olyphant, six miles north of Scranton, for the purpose of visiting other collieries and to look at the homes and surroundings of the mine workers. Scranton will be reached at about 6 o'clock.

On Friday the commission will spend the day visiting collieries in and about the city of Scranton and viewing the mining suburbs. Saturday the commission will go to Wilkesbarre to further prosecute their investigations.

Mr. Watkins in an interview yesterday, said, in part, that the commission will probably not sit to take testimony until after a tour of the region has been completed. It is possible, though, that a session will take place Monday, in Wilkesbarre, to receive the statement to be presented by President Mitchell, of the mine workers, to which the operators have agreed to make answer within three days. It is almost a certainty that no testimony will be taken in this city this week.

MITCHELL DAY CELEBRATED.

Demonstrations In Various Towns In Anthracite Region—Mitchell Spoke at Wilkesbarre.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 30.—Mitchell day was celebrated in all the principal towns of the anthracite coal region yesterday, and in order that all the mine workers might have an opportunity to participate in the exercises the mines were closed down. The principal demonstration was held in this city and President Mitchell took part. Many strangers were here. Everybody wore a John Mitchell badge.

10,00 0Men In Line.

The procession started shortly before noon and was nearly one hour in passing a given point. As the weather was cold the marching was rapid and there were few delays. It is estimated that there were 10,000 men in line. The parade was headed by a platoon of police. Then came the chief marshal, National Organizer John Fallon. The chief officer was followed by carriages containing the principal officers of the United Mine Workers' organization and invited guests. President Mitchell, "Mother" Jones, Rev. Powers, of Spring Valley, Ills., and Thomas Haggerty, of Reynoldsville, Pa., occupied the first carriage.

President Mitchell was given an ovation all along the line of march, and whenever his carriage stopped the crowd from the sidewalk pressed around and insisted on shaking his hand.

After the parade was over a big mass meeting was held at Y. M. C. A. park. Rev. J. J. Curran, of Holy Saviour church, this city, was elected chairman. He introduced as the first speaker Rev. J. F. Powers of Spring Valley, Ills., who spoke. Rev. James Moore, of the Primitive Methodist church, of Avoca, then spoke.

Thomas Haggerty, of Reynoldsville, Pa., who was down on the program as the principal speaker of the day, then made an address. Several addresses in foreign languages then followed.

Doesn't Want Another Strike.

President Mitchell was the last speaker. He was received with great cheering. He said in part:

"I hope there will never again be a strike in the coal fields of Pennsylvania. I desire the men and the operators to meet. I do not want to make enemies of the operators. In closing, I wish to impress upon you that membership in the union is the only safeguard. The operators are not going to pay the bill of the strike. They will make the workers pay it if they can, but if not, they will make the ped[illegible] pay it."

TO THANK GOD.

PRESIDENT NAMES NOV. 27, AS THANKSGIVING DAY.

Points Out the Many Blessings For Which We Should Thank the Lord.

Washington, Oct. 30.—President Roosevelt yesterday issued his annual Thanksgiving proclamation as follows:

"By the President of the United States of America, a Proclamation:

"According to the yearly custom of our people it falls upon the president at this season to appoint a day of festival and thanksgiving to God.

"Over a century and a quarter has passed since this country took its place among the nations of the earth and during that time we have had on the whole more to be thankful for than has fallen to the lot of any other people. Generation after generation has grown to manhood and passed away. Each has had to bear its peculiar burdens, each to face its special crisis and each has known years of grim trial, when the country was menaced by malice, domestic or foreign levy, when the hand of the Lord was heavy upon it in drouth or flood or pestilence, when in bodily distress and anguish of soul it paid the penalty of folly and a forward heart.

"Nevertheless, decade by decade, we have struggled onward and upward; we now abundantly enjoy material well being, and under the favor of the Most High, we are striving earnestly to achieve moral and spiritual uplifting. The year that has just closed has been one of peace and overflowing plenty. Rarely has any people enjoyed greater prosperity than we are now enjoying. For this we render heartfelt and solemn thanks to the Giver of Good; and we seek to praise Him, not by words only, but by deeds, by the way in which we do our duty to ourselves and to our fellow men.

"Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, do hereby designate as a day of general thanksgiving, Thursday, the 27th of the coming November, and do recommend that throughout the land the people cease from their ordinary occupations and in their several homes and places of worship, render thanks unto Almighty God for the manifold blessings of the past year.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington this 29th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and two, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and twenty-seventh.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

"By the President,

"JOHN HAY, Secretary of State."

Doukhobers Not Likely to Riot.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 30.—The Doukhober fanatics are encamped in the vicinity of Yorkton. Nothing of a disorderly nature has yet occurred. While the women and children spent Tuesday night in the shed, the men sought the shelter of a bluff. The whole night was spent in religious exercises. They seem determined to continue and expressed themselves thus to Agent Speers, who pointedly told them that they would not be allowed to wander in such large numbers. There is no danger of any trouble. Even if they are forced to go back to their villages they will go without resistance.

Hoy and Others Furnished Bail.

Clarion, Pa., Oct. 30.—Representative J. A. F. Hoy, R. G. Yingling and James Pinks, the last two being trustees of the Clarion State Normal school, charged with conspiracy and bribery in connection with a recent state appropriation to the institution, yesterday waived a hearing and furnished bail in the sum of $500 each for court.

Bound Marshal and Robbed Bank.

Gardner, Ills., Oct. 30.—Six men yesterday morning seized Town Marshal Edmondson, at the engine house, tied him with ropes, took him to the Exchange National bank and set him in a chair. The vault was blown open with dynamite, and the interior of the bank wrecked. The robbers are supposed to have secured between $3,000 and $4,000, although the exact amount is not known. After leaving the bank they took the marshal to the school house, tied a rope around his neck and fastened him to a chair. The chair was placed at the head of a stairway, so that if he struggled to release himself he would fall downstairs and hang himself. The robbers took a train going toward Chicago.

ARBITRATORS' TOUR.

MINERS' HOMES TO BE SEEN.

District President Nicholls Represents the Mine Workers and Mine Officials the Operators—Mitchell's Statement May Be Received.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 30.—The anthracite coal strike commissioners, who will make an inspection of the mines and the homes of the mine workers, arrived here last night over the Central Railroad of New Jersey. Commissioner T. H. Watkins, whose home is in this city, came here early in the day and arranged some of the details for the first day's tour of the upper region. The commission's headquarters are at the Hotel Jermyn, where the party occupy 14 rooms.

A colliery will be visited at Forest City and a washery at Carbondale.

The operators will be represented by General Manager Bryden, of the New York, Ontario and Western company; Superintendent Rose, of the Delaware and Hudson; General Manager Thorne, of the Temple Iron company, and General Manager May, of the Erie company. District President T. D. Nicholls, of the miners' union, is to be the principal representative of the miners.

The commissioners will stop at Olyphant, six miles north of Scranton, for the purpose of visiting other collieries and to look at the homes and surroundings of the mine workers. Scranton will be reached at about 6 o'clock.

On Friday the commission will spend the day visiting collieries in and about the city of Scranton and viewing the mining suburbs. Saturday the commission will go to Wilkesbarre to further prosecute their investigations.

Mr. Watkins, in an interview yesterday, said, in part, that the commission will probably not sit to take testimony until after a tour of the region has been completed. It is possible, though, that a session will take place Monday, in Wilkesbarre, to receive the statement to be presented by President Mitchell, of the mine workers, to which the operators have agreed to make answer within three days. It is almost a certainty that no testimony will be taken in this city this week.

MITCHELL DAY CELEBRATED.

Demonstrations In Various Towns In Anthracite Region—Mitchell Spoke at Wilkesbarre.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 30.—Mitchell day was celebrated in all the principal towns of the anthracite coal region yesterday, and in order that all the mine workers might have an opportunity to participate in the exercises the mines were closed down. The principal demonstration was held in this city and President Mitchell took part. Many strangers were here. Everybody wore a John Mitchell badge.

10,00 0Men In Line.

The procession started shortly before noon and was nearly one hour in passing a given point. As the weather was cold the marching was rapid and there were few delays. It is estimated that there were 10,000 men in line. The parade was headed by a platoon of police. Then came the chief marshal, National Organizer John Fallon. The chief officer was followed by carriages containing the principal officers of the United Mine Workers' organization and invited guests. President Mitchell, "Mother" Jones, Rev. Powers, of Spring Valley, Ills., and Thomas Haggerty, of Reynoldsville, Pa., occupied the first carriage.

President Mitchell was given an ovation all along the line of march, and whenever his carriage stopped the crowd from the sidewalk pressed around and insisted on shaking his hand.

After the parade was over a big mass meeting was held at Y. M. C. A. park. Rev. J. J. Curran, of Holy Saviour church, this city, was elected chairman. He introduced as the first speaker Rev. J. F. Powers, of Spring Valley, Ills., who spoke. Rev. James Moore, of the Primitive Methodist church, of Avoca, then spoke.

Thomas Haggerty, of Reynoldsville, Pa., who was down on the program as the principal speaker of the day, then made an address. Several addresses in foreign languages then followed.

Doesn't Want Another Strike.

President Mitchell was the last speaker. He was received with great cheering. He said in part:

"I hope there will never again be a strike in the coal fields of Pennsylvania. I desire the men and the operators to meet. I do not want to make enemies of the operators. In closing, I wish to impress upon you that membership in the union is the only safeguard. The operators are not going to pay the bill of the strike. They will make the workers pay it if they can, but if not, they will make the ped[illegible] pay it."

TO THANK GOD.

PRESIDENT NAMES NOV. 27, AS THANKSGIVING DAY.

Points Out the Many Blessings For Which We Should Thank the Lord.

Washington, Oct. 30.—President Roosevelt yesterday issued his annual Thanksgiving proclamation as follows:

"By the President of the United States of America, a Proclamation:

"According to the yearly custom of our people it falls upon the president at this season to appoint a day of festival and thanksgiving to God.

"Over a century and a quarter has passed since this country took its place among the nations of the earth and during that time we have had on the whole more to be thankful for than has fallen to the lot of any other people. Generation after generation has grown to manhood and passed away. Each has had to bear its peculiar burdens, each to face its special crisis and each has known years of grim trial, when the country was menaced by malice, domestic or foreign levy, when the hand of the Lord was heavy upon it in drouth or flood or pestilence, when in bodily distress and anguish of soul it paid the penalty of folly and a forward heart.

"Nevertheless, decade by decade, we have struggled onward and upward; we now abundantly enjoy material well being, and under the favor of the Most High, we are striving earnestly to achieve moral and spiritual uplifting. The year that has just closed has been one of peace and overflowing plenty. Rarely has any people enjoyed greater prosperity than we are now enjoying. For this we render heartfelt and solemn thanks to the Giver of Good; and we seek to praise Him, not by words only, but by deeds, by the way in which we do our duty to ourselves and to our fellow men.

"Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, do hereby designate as a day of general thanksgiving, Thursday, the 27th of the coming November, and do recommend that throughout the land the people cease from their ordinary occupations and in their several homes and places of worship, render thanks unto Almighty God for the manifold blessings of the past year.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington this 29th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and two, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and twenty-seventh.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
"By the President,
"JOHN HAY, Secretary of State."

Doukhobers Not Likely to Riot.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 30.—The Doukhober fanatics are encamped in the vicinity of Yorkton. Nothing of a disorderly nature has yet occurred. While the women and children spent Tuesday night in the shed, the men sought the shelter of a bluff. The whole night was spent in religious exercises. They seem determined to continue and expressed themselves thus to Agent Speers, who pointedly told them that they would not be allowed to wander in such large numbers. There is no danger of any trouble. Even if they are forced to go back to their villages they will go without resistance.

Hoy and Others Furnished Bail.

Clarion, Pa., Oct. 30.—Representative J. A. F. Hoy, R. G. Yingling and James Pinks, the last two being trustees of the Clarion State Normal school, charged with conspiracy and bribery in connection with a recent state appropriation to the institution, yesterday waived a hearing and furnished bail in the sum of $500 each for court.

WELLSVILLE

WELLSVILLE RESIDENTS SURE THEY HAD FOUND IT.

But After They Had Carried It Home Were Obliged to Take It Back.

Quite a comical story is going the rounds of the West End about a few people who reside in the neighborhood of the Vulcan Brick works, who a few days ago struck a snap in the way of laying in a winter's supply of coal, without it costing them a penny.

It seems that few days ago a wreck occured in the West End yards of the C. & P. road which resulted in the bottom of a loaded coal car falling out, scattering the contents along the track. Nothing was done with the coal by the railroad company on the day of the wreck as all of the employes of the road were busy elsewhere and could not attend to it on that particular day.

One or two of the West End citizens who reside in the neighborhood of the brick plant noticed the good coal laying along the track and it occured to them that it would be a good thing to gather it up in baskets and fill their cellars for a winter supply. They accordingly went home and after telling two or three of their neighbors, started out to gather up the valuable fuel. Several of them worked all night long and succeeded in carrying nearly a ton to their homes.

During all of these proceedings a night watchman for the company, who was acquainted with all of the people who were gathering the coal, jotted down the names of the offenders and reported the next morning. The result was that all of the people who had worked so hard the night before received a notice that morning to put back the coal which they had taken or suffer the consequences, which would mean prosecution. All complied with the notice and returned every bit of that which they had taken from the company's tracks. One of the men who had carried perhaps a few bushel more than any of the others was physically unable to carry the coal back that morning and had to hire a man to do the work for him, it costing him $1.50.

OBJECT TO THE RULE

Wellsville Police Propose to Get Even With the Street Railway For Charging Fare.

Wellsville's police officers of late have been asked for street car fare because they were not in their uniform. They are unanimously against the new ruling of the street car company and have a scheme on foot to get even. The first afternoon when they are off duty, it is said, they intend to put on their full uniform and ride in a body backward and forward all throught the city the entire afternoon. The street car company can raise no objection to this and the local officers think that they may be able in this way to prevail upon the company to change the new ruling.

A few days ago Chief Thorn boarded one of the west bound cars and after riding about one block was approached by the conductor for a nickel. The chief at the time wore his full uniform with the exception of his helmet, which he had left at home. He wore a soft slouch hat. He refused to pay the conductor and quite an argument followed which resulted in the chief stepping off of the car, having gone as far as he cared to. This is only one of many such instances and the local police mean to have the ruling changed, if possible.

CASE DISMISSED

End of the Injunction Suit of Andrew Roley vs. George M. Aten.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special.)—In the case of Andrew Roley against George M. Aten, both of Wellsville, the injunction suit was dismissed yesterday at the cost of the plaintiff. The plaintiff sought to enjoin the defendant from proceeding in Justice Riley's court in Wellsville in an action of forcible detention to recover possession of a coal mine that had been leased to Robey by an agent.

The lease was in writing and for the term of five years, was witnessed and was not acknowledged. For this reason Roley was not able to hold the mine.

A NEW POTTERY AT COSHOCTON

SIX KILN PLANT REGARDED AS A CERTAINTY THERE.

The Project to Be Helped Forward By a Bonus of $25,000 And A Site.

Coshocton, October 30.—Unless somebody changes his mind, says a local paper, Coshocton will soon have another new industry, one employing 225 people at the start and promising to increase the number to 300. The industry in question is a pottery and it will make a very fine grade of decorated ware. The projector is an experienced pottery man who has plenty of capital. He has requested that his name be not made public until a little later on for business reasons.

The board of trade has been conducting negotiations with the gentleman for some months. He was in conference with the board Tuesday night and the terms were finally agreed upon. He will be given a bonus of $25,000 and a site. The plant will be located on the board of trade second addition, near the glass works. The building will be 600 feet long and the plant in the beginning will have six kilns. The agreement provides that this shall be increased to nine kilns within five years.

The contract has not yet been signed but the memorandum was all agreed upon, and unless the projector changes his mind it will be a go.

The Story of Many Thefts at Receptions Ridiculed And Denied.

A story published in a local paper last evening boldly stating that articles of value had been stolen from the homes of some of the most prominent people in the city during the progress of receptions was today found to be a miserable fake, and the persons alluded to as being victims of the thefts are not only indignant, but exceedingly sorry that for the simple sake of filling space that a paper would resort to such means.

The article stated that during a reception at the home of Mrs. Joshua Poole, table linen was taken. Mrs. Poole when seen this morning by a News Review reporter said: "That is absolutely untrue. There was not a thing stolen from my home on the day of the reception."

Mrs. James Rinehart was also much worked up when asked regarding the statement that different receptions articles had disappeared at the function given at her home. She said: "There was nothing in that story at all. I did not miss a thing."

TEWKSBURY IS LAME

And the Horse Race Set For Saturday Has Been Postponed Till Later On.

The greatest horse race ever witnessed in this county, scheduled to take place at Columbian park next Saturday afternoon, was postponed this morning owing to the lameness of one of the racers, Tewksbury, owned by C. A. Smith.

As a result of a nail being driven into the quick of the animal's right front foot, it can scarcely walk and it would be almost an impossibility to race the horse. However, Mr. Smith would not call the race off until a mutual agreement was made between himself and Harrison Rinehart, the backer of Redmond, the other horse to be entered. Mr. Rinehart was willing to let the event be postponed until Tewksbury recovers.

It has not been decided yet when the race will be called but it is possible on Tuesday or Wednesday next. The gentlemen's road race has also been postponed, but it will occur on the date set for the most important event.

KINGDOM OF GALLUP

King Owns Everything But Railroad And He Is Boss of That, As Well.

Napoleon, October 30.—A few miles from this town, in Henry county, is located the "Kingdom of Gallup." It may not be found on the map, but it has a very real king. John Konzen. Konzen is not yet entirely accustomed to his honors, and the crown still rests somewhat uneasily on his brow. For Konzen is young.

There is only one thing that the king does not own in all the kingdom, that is the Detroit Southern railway, which runs through his kingdom, but he is none the less the ruler, as he is both freight and ticket agent.

The kingdom is small—it has but a little over 150 inhabitants, not counting the pigs, ducks, dogs and cats. It is not an hereditary monarchy, as Konzen recently purchased all rights. He bought the grain elevator, the dry goods store, the grocery and meat market, together with the postoffice and all the residences.

The kingdom has not adopted any distinctive flag, but still flaunts the Stars and Stripes and Speaker McKinnon's Buckeye banner on big days.

Konzen, however, has declared himself independent of the legislature, and the new code bill will not be effective in his kingdom.

Duffy Talked at Lisbon.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special)—T. J. Duffy, the labor candidate for congress addressed a meeting in the court room last evening. There was a fair sized audience, the seats on the raise in the rear end of the room being partly filled.

TEWKSBURY IS LAME

The greatest horse race ever witnessed in this county, scheduled to take place at Columbian park next Saturday afternoon, was postponed this morning owing to the lameness of one of the racers, Tewksbury, owned by C. A. Smith.

As a result of a nail being driven into the quick of the animal's right front foot, it can scarcely walk and it would be almost an impossibility to race the horse. However, Mr. Smith would not call the race off until a mutual agreement was made between himself and Harrison Rinehart, the backer of Redmond, the other horse to be entered. Mr. Rinehart was willing to let the event be postponed until Tewksbury recovers.

It has not been decided yet when the race will be called but it is possible on Tuesday or Wednesday next. The gentlemen's road race has also been postponed, but it will occur on the date set for the most important event.

KINGDOM OF GALLUP

King Owns Everything But Railroad And He Is Boss of That, As Well.

Napoleon, October 30.—A few miles from this town, in Henry county, is located the "Kingdom of Gallup." It may not be found on the map, but it has a very real king, John Konzen. Konzen is not yet entirely accustomed to his honors, and the crown still rests somewhat uneasily on his brow. For Konzen is young.

There is only one thing that the king does not own in all the kingdom, that is the Detroit Southern railway, which runs through his kingdom, but he is none the less the ruler, as he is both freight and ticket agent.

The kingdom is small—it has but a little over 150 inhabitants, not counting the pigs, ducks, dogs and cats. It is not an hereditary monarchy, as Konzen recently purchased all rights. He bought the grain elevator, the dry goods store, the grocery and meat market, together with the postoffice and all the residences.

The kingdom has not adopted any distinctive flag, but still flaunts the Stars and Stripes and Speaker McKinnon's Buckeye banner on big days.

Konzen, however, has declared himself independent of the legislature, and the new code bill will not be effective in his kingdom.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special.)—In the case of Andrew Roley against George M. Aten, both of Wellsville, the injunction suit was dismissed yesterday at the cost of the plaintiff. The lease was in writing and for the term of five years, was witnessed and was not acknowledged. For this reason Roley was not able to hold the mine.

19TH YEAR. NO. 257. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1902 TWO CENTS

REV. DR. PRATT TWICE ATTACKED BY FOOTPADS

The city, for its own reputation, and for the protection of its citizens, should rid itself of the thugs and highwaymen that infest it. There have been several instances lately of prominent citizens attacked by footpads. The latest to come to light is that of Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt, the new pastor of the First M. E. church.

Knowing that he was a comparative stranger in the city and judging from his professional appearance that he would prove an easy victim, Dr. Pratt during the few short weeks of his pastorate in this city has twice been accosted by would-be highwaymen.

The first time that the reverend gentleman was attacked occurred about three weeks ago when he was walking alone from his residence on Jackson street to the depot. He had reached the corner of Broadway and Second street and was taken wholly by surprise when a man of heavy build stepped boldly out in front of him, grabbed him roughly by the shoulder and demanded that he hand over his watch.

Carrying a hand satchel and a cane Dr. Pratt was for a moment undecided what to do, feeling that he was handicaped, but grasping the situation he dropped the satchel and with the cane in his right hand delivered a terrific blow in the pit of the man's stomach. The blow evidently came unexpectedly, as the man keeled over on the ground, giving utterance to cries of pain. The minister was satisfied at having defeated the man in his dastardly attempt, and went his way. Not fearing another such attack he did not even report the matter to central station.

The second attempt made to rob Dr. Pratt was within a few days after the first. As before he was walking unattended and not giving robbers a thought, when on one of the promfnent thoroughfares he was confronted by a gang of young men, all under 25 years of age. They did not resort to violence, but blurted out a command that he "shell out," as they were thirsty. Demonstrating his nerve, as on the previous occasion, he had no trouble in putting the ruffians to flight. On neither occasion was Dr. Pratt injured or relieved of any of his jewelry or money, but the experiences were startling and unpleasant. It will be con-

BOSSES' COUNTER PROPOSAL READY

They Are Not Pleased With Some Parts of Journeymen Barbers' Scale.

In Case a Sick Man Is Visited, Is a Clause Which Will Not Be Favored By the Employees—A Meeting to Be Held Tonight.

It may be that East Liverpool residents who are patrons of local barber shops will have a longer wait on next Saturday than usual; for, unless the new journeymen's scale is signed up it is possible they will go on strike.

At a meeting held one night last week, attended by both journeymen and bosses, the new regulations of the latter were formally presented for the consideration of shop owners. Nothing was said at that time as to whether the revised scale of the journeymen would be approved by the bosses. There were several material changes, and it was the opinion of the employers that it would be necessary for all bosses to be consulted in the matter.

Tuesday night a well attended meeting of the bosses was held, and it was the unanimous opinion of those present that the men were asking more than they could make effective. One clause which met with universal disapproval was that which required the bosses to charge 50 cents for a shave in cases where they were called upon to go to a patron's house in case of sickness. The bosses state that in almost every instance they do this class of work themselves, and that they are not disposed to allow the journeymen to dictate what prices shall control.

The closing hours proposed in the new scale are not satisfactory. The employers assert that the hours which prevail at present are satisfactory to nearly all of their patrons, and that should they adopt those proposed a very large number of men engaged at work requiring their presence in the evenings, and especially Saturday nights will be compelled to do without being shaved, or procure a razor and shave themselves, and they fear the latter. A committee was appointed to confer with the journeymen with the object in view of attempting to show them that it would be impossible to adopt the proposed list. The employes had included a clause requiring the bosses to answer the demand by tonight.

This request will be complied with, but in the shape of a visit from the bosses' committee, who will present a counter proposition. The shop owners' side of the question will be set forth as clearly as it is possible to do, and they say there are but few changes over the journeymen's list asked. Where alterations are made, they say, it is absolutely necessary to change the demands in order that they can be able to make a living for themselves. It is not known what the journeymen will do with the bosses' revised scale.

SIGHT OF HANDCUFFS MUCH ENRAGED HIM

WHITE VERY VIOLENT AS HE STARTED FOR MASSILLON.

It Took Five Men to Handle the Insane Patient—Other Unfortunates.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special.)—Sheriff Leonard took William A. White, the Wellsville insane man, to Massillon today, and George Taylor to the Canton workhouse. The sheriff was joined at Salem by Mrs. Leonard, who had in charge Mrs. William Bowman, an insane woman of that city.

White was in a bad way this morning, and it required the efforts of five men to get him from the jail to the station and into the train. When he got up this morning White was calm and tractable and dressed himself with a little assistance from one of the sheriff's deputies. At the sight of the handcuffs, however, he became excited, and raising his arms above his head backed into a corner of the cell and resisted until overpowered by the sheriff and his assistants.

George Taylor, the workhouse prisoner, helped the sheriff control White after the got on the train, accompanying them to Massillon and then returning to Canton.

Ex-County Treasurer Smith Will Engage in His Old Business at Columbiana.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special)—Ex-County Treasurer C. E. Smith, has decided to move back to his former home at Columbiana and resume the management of the H. H. Smith dry goods store, with which he was connected before he assumed the treasurership.

The continued illness of his father was probably responsible for the decision.

They Served as Assistant Surgeons in the 115th Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

WHEREABOUTS NOT KNOWN

Two Errors Have Been Found in the Section of the Code Relating to Civil Service—That Feature May Be Rendered Void.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, October 30.—Adjutant Gyger has received a communication from Washington, D. C., asking for the address of John W. Reely and A. Jones Patterson, who served as assistant surgeons in the civil war in 115th Ohio Volunteer infantry. The letter states that there is money due each from the government. The regiment was composed of companies raised in East Liverpool, Salem, Columbiana and elsewhere in Columbiana county and in Stark and Summit counties. The regiment was mustered in at Camp Massillon for a period of three years. Colonel Lucy, of Alliance, commanded the regiment for about eighteen months, when he resigned and was succeeded by Lieutenant Colonel T. C. Boone, of Salem, who served as commander until muster out. Col. H. R. Hill, of East Liverpool, was lieutenant colonel of the regiment.

Adjutant General Gyger does not know the whereabouts of Surgeons Reed and Patterson or of any of their relatives. Reed resided at Barnesville before entering the service. Any information which the old members of the regiment may be able to furnish concerning the missing man or their relatives will be appreciated by the department.

Col. H. R. Hill, who served with the One Hundred and Fifteenth, was asked about the men, but could give no information concerning them. He has not heard of them since the close of the war, but by reference to the roster of Ohio soldiers he found that Reed was mustered out of the service June 22, 1865, and that Patterson resigned November 23, 1863.

Two errors have been found in the section of the code relating to the enforcement of civil service by the board of public safety which may have the effect of rendering the section void. One error destroys the sense of one part of the section and the other seems to make the section contradictory. F. N. Sinks, private secretary to Governor Nash, discovered the mistakes.

There are about 400 prisoners in the penitentiary who were convicted under the jury laws which have been declared unconstitutional, and there is a possibility that some of the life men so convicted will demand re-hearings, in which event they will succeed in getting out of prison for a short time at least. Some might obtain freedom through absence of witnesses, who might be dead or out of the state, whose testimony caused their conviction. Then they might get off with lighter sentences.

State Mine Inspector Biddle received a telegram Wednesday announcing that a miner had been killed at East Palestine, Columbiana county. No details were given.

PATRIOTIC ORDER MAY BE FORMED

Daughters of the American Revolution Chapter For This City.

PLENTY WHO ARE ELIGIBLE

And the Proposition to Organize Is Being Earnestly Discussed By Many Ladies—The Objects And Aims of the National Society.

The proposition of forming a local branch of the national society of the Daughters of the American Revolution in this city is being earnestly discussed by several ladies, and there is a good prospect that preliminary steps will soon be taken to that end. A quiet investigation on the part of those interested reveals the fact that there are enough persons in the city eligible to membership to form a good-sized society. Among the ladies in whose veins runs the blood of revolutionary ancestors are some of the most prominent in the city.

The Daughters of the American Revolution is a flourishing organization and numbers among its members in the east some of the most prominent ladies in the country. It is not an old society, having been incorporated in Washington in 1891, and having been granted a charter by congress February 29, 1896. Its objects are patriotic and praiseworthy.

Among its aims are these: "To perpetuate the memory of the spirit of the men and women who achieved American independence by the acquisition and protection of historical spots and the erection of monuments; by the encouragement of historical research in relation to the revolution and the publication of the results; by the preservation of documents and relics, and of the records of the individual services of revolutionary soldiers and patriots, and by the promotion of celebrations of all patriotic anniversaries.

"To carry out the injunction of Washington in his farewell address to the American people, 'to promote, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge;' to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, to foster true patriotism and love of country, and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty."

Those who are eligible to membership are women above the age of 18, descended from a man or woman, who, with unfailing loyalty, rendered material aid to the cause of independence, from a recognized patriot, a soldier or sailor or civil officer in one of our colonies or states or of the United Colonies or States; provided that the applicant be acceptable to the society.

Twelve members only are sufficient to organize a chapter.

Steubenville And the West Virginia Manufacturing Town Are to Be United.

Steubenville, October 30.—Among the coming events in the near future for Steubenville is the building of the bridge from this city to the West Virginia side, and it is said, that the survey for the abutments made several years ago on the Ohio side, located on High street, between Market and Adams streets, indicates their site when the bridge is built. This will give two fine approaches for the bridge, one on Market street, and the other by the way of Adams street.

The West Virginia farmers are jubilant over the good news that at last they are to have easy access to Steubenville, and there will be satisfaction all round that the city is to have communication with the new Follansbee tin plate settlement.

PFANKUCH'S GRIM PURPOSE TO TAKE HIS OWN LIFE

Prof. William Pfankuch, the musician, who attempted suicide yesterday shortly after noon by hanging in a cell at the city hall, continues irrational and laboring under most peculiar hallucinations. It is feared that he may resort to some other rash act which will prove injurious if not fatal.

The denial made in a local paper that the professor attempted suicide was scoffed this morning by Mayor Davidson. It now develops that the musician made the attempt twice. His first trial was by hanging with his head downward, his foot fastened between the iron slats of the cell cot, and the second time was as reported in the News Review. Mayor Davidson is authority for the statement that Pfankuch was hanging by the neck between a chair and an iron bar.

The demented man spent a very restless time last night. He roamed the cell and gave evidence of great fear, believing that some person was attacking him. At times he was seen to crouch low in the cell corner and while in that posture he cried out to imaginary persons present. He seemed to think that his parents were with him and that they were censuring him for the part he had taken in the alleged trouble with his spouse. On his left arm there is a long scar, which, he says, is the result of a fight between himself and his wife. According to his statement she cut him with a knife on the arm in an endeavor to maim him to the extent that he would never be able to use his beloved instrument, the violin, again.

It was the intention of the mayor to release him today and send him to Pittsburg, where he has relatives, but he still showing certain signs of insanity, it is not likely that he will be given freedom for several days.

Friends who have known him in his rational days and are well acquainted with his exceptional ability have visited him at the cell and all express sorrow over his unfortunate condition.

A BASELESS ACCUSATION AND HOW IT ORIGINATED SUCCINCTLY SET FORTH

In 1894 there was a strike on with the street car employes of Youngstown. The board of commerce of that city held a meeting and adopted a set of resolutions denouncing acts of alleged lawlessness by the strikers as tending to injure the business of the city. Now, the board of commerce of Youngstown was not a political body. It was not organized to elect any man to office nor to deprive any man from attaining any office.

Youngstown's board of commerce was organized to promote the business and industrial interests of Youngstown, and how well they succeeded in the way of landing new industries one has only to take a trip through the Mahoning valley to ascertain. The board was made up of all the people of Youngstown who had either influence or money. On it were Single Taxers, Populists, Republicans, Democrats and Prohibitionists.

When a bare quorum of the members of the board met and adopted the resolution referred to the names of the entire membership of the body were signed to the measure and so printed in the papers at the time. James Kennedy, Republican candidate for congress, was a member of the board, and his name was attached to the resolutions with the rest, although he was out of the city when the board met and adopted the resolutions.

A Salem weekly paper, failing to "bleed" Mr. Kennedy, sent to Youngstown, secured part of the resolutions and printed them in over 10,000 copies of the sheet with James Kennedy's name attached. The casual reader of the sheet would think Kennedy drafted the resolutions and forced them through to show animus against the strikers. The printing of the resolutions in the Salem paper was only in part, that which suited the purpose of the editor. Any part that might appear favorable to Mr. Kennedy was eliminated. There were about 200 members of the board of commerce at the time, but of all these Mr. Kennedy was made to bear the brunt of the paper's nasty temper, even although he was not in Youngstown when the resolutions were formulated and did not know the board had taken such action until he returned home a week later.

A few years ago John H. Morris, of Youngstown, was the Democratic candidate for congress in this district. He is a member of the board of commerce. No blame ever attached to him for helping to boost Youngstown. So were John H. Clark, A. J. Woolf and dozens of Democrats and others representing all political parties.

KENNEDY HERE AND AT WORK

VISITING REPUBLICAN VOTERS THROUGHOUT THE CITY.

Meeting With Encouragement in His Canvass on Every Hand.

James Kennedy, Republican candidate for congress, arrived in the city at noon today, and immediately began a systematic canvass of the many potteries and other establishments of the city.

Mr. Kennedy is in the hands of the local Republican city committee, and is receiving kind words of encouragement on every hand.

Though it was thought by the city committee to be necessary, as the outlook for Republican success was never brighter, still Mr. Kennedy insisted upon meeting the pottery workers and others in order that they might become acquainted. He covered considerable ground in his visits this afternoon and is being kindly received by all.

Mr. Kennedy will remain here all of tomorrow, and it is thought when he is ready to depart no one will have meen missed.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special)—Five candidates were initiated into the Lisbon lodge of Daughters of Rebekah last night. The degree work was put on by the Leetonia team. About 20 members of the Leetonia lodge and several from Alliance were present.

CRIMINAL CASES NEARLY ALL TRIED

Husband the Plaintiff in One Case And Wife in Another—Circuit Court Will Open November Term at Lisbon Wednesday.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special.)—Nearly all of the criminal cases having been disposed of, and only a few important civil cases to be heard, this will be a comparatively dull week in common pleas court. Judge Hole excused the jury shortly after noon yesterday until Friday.

The November term of circuit court will begin next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, with Judges J. B. Burrows, P. A. Laubie and J. M. Cook on the bench.

Two more divorces were granted yesterday afternoon. Alice H. Burson sued for divorce from Willis L. Burson, alleging wilful absence and failure to provide for the last four years. They were married in Salem in 1892. Defendant's whereabouts is unknown. Mrs. Burson is given the custody of their 6-year-old daughter, Camille.

The husband was the plaintiff in the second case. Harvey H. and Minnie McVey were married at Lisbon September 17, 1891. They have two children, Georgia, aged 9, and Addie, aged 7. The husband charged wilful absence and infidelity, saying that the wife had ceased living with him more than three years ago. Mrs. McVey had filed a cross-petition denying these allegations, but the evidence was against her. The husband was granted a divorce with the custody of the children.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

QUALITY NOW DEMANDED.

One growing tendency of the American people which is a gratifying indication of advancement in knowledge and refinement is their increasing appreciation if what is good in a material sense. It is a certain token of progress when people show dissatisfaction with what is cheap and of inferior quality and reach out for the best that their means will permit them to acquire. The diffusion of knowledge, which brings with it refinement of taste, is probably the main cause of this desire for better things, and this spread of knowledge is going on more rapidly than ever before in the history of this country. Particularly is this true in the buying of pottery products, and it is noticeable in connection with recent trade literature that cheapness is not being pushed to the front so much as it used to be, and that attention is being more generally called to excellence in quality. Manufacturers and dealers report that the demand for high grade products has been increasing with pronounced rapidity in the past few years. Consumers, they say, are showing a more marked appreciation of quality, and do not call to anything like the former extent for cheapness in goods. They are beginning to demand the best their purses can afford. The present generation, too, are better informed, through their higher education, than were their parents as to the merits and advantages of good goods, and their taste is more cultivated. Added to this is the fact that the people today have more money to spend and are consequently better able to gratify their tastes. The progressive manufacturer and tradesman would do well to bear these facts in mind and help along the good work by pushing their high grade goods as much as possible. Not only is there more profit for them in the sale of such goods, but the satisfaction their use will give to the purchaser will naturally be an inducement to them to further patronize the seller first class products.

JIGGERMEN AGAIN WORKING.

A temporary arrangement has been made between the jiggermen of the Globe pottery and the management whereby the clay at that plant will be given another trial. A conference was held yesterday between President A. S. Hughes, of the Brotherhood, and Messrs. Murphy, Horwell and Frederick, of the pottery company, and the men returned to work this morning. All of the departments at the plant that were compelled to be idle on account of the jiggermen quitting work last week will also resume work this morning. This settlement will eliminate the necessity of taking the matter before the joint arbitration board which it was thought would have to be appealed to in the matter.

GEORGE SEBRING'S NEW HOME.

A Cameron, of Salem, is now engaged in drawing plans for a fine residence for the Sebrings which will be erected on Ohio street for the elder Sebrings, who will hereafter live in that thriving village. The residence is to be wholly of veneered brick and finished in the latest and most expensive manner. The residence will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000. When completed Mr. and Mrs. George Sebring, the eldest of the Sebring brothers, who were the promoters of the new town which bears their name, will have one of the most beautiful and expensive residences in that place.

ACCIDENT AT THE DANCE.

Miss Kate O'Brien, a popular decorator at the Goodwin, met with a painful accident at the dance given by Prof. Cassidy at Columbian park Tuesday night. Just after the completion of a dance she was walking across the floor of the pavilion, when in some way she slipped and fell, dislocating her collar bone. She was brought down town to the office of Dr. Taylor, where the injury was cared for.

SMALL STRIKE ON.

A number of the girls employed in the decorating department of the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery, Chester, are on strike over a difference of opinion between the crew and the manager of the department. An attempt is being made to fill their places. The matter has not been reported to Brotherhood headquarters, and it is probable the difficulty can be adjusted without aid from that quarter.

MR. McDONALD ILL.

John McDonald, the efficient manager of the K., T. & K. decorating department, has been laid up with rheumatism for the last few days. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

CLAY VEIN ON LONG ISLAND.

A vein of potter's clay has been discovered on Mulford [illegible] Long Island. Mr. Van Norstrand has tested samples of this clay and investigations are now being pursued to ascertain the extent of the vein. If it proves to be of sufficient length and depth to warrant working, arrangements will be made to convert the clay into a high grade of pottery.

TO ENLARGE NEXT SPRING.

The Akron China company is again running full. The ravages of the recent fire have been completely effaced. The greatest trouble with this firm at the present time is to get ware out to fill the orders. Several new pieces are being modeled for next year. The company expect to enlarge its capacity quite extensively in the spring.

WILL MAKE GAME SCARCE.

Lance and Charles McBride, pressers at the K., T. & K., old end, were out hunting yesterday in the vicinity of Cannon's Mill. The former has just purchased a fine new shot gun, warranted not to miss, and he expects to make the game scarce in this neighborhood before the hunting season is over.

PROMINENT DESIGNER.

Rudolph Gaertner, of New York, a prominent manufacturer of colors and decalcomania designs, is calling at the potteries this week. Mr. Gaertner, who is a native of Carlsbad, Bohemia, is a very pleasant gentleman and ranks among the first designers of the world.

VALUABLE DOG KILLED.

A valuable dog, the property of J. D. Myler, a dishmaker at the Goodwin, was run over and killed yesterday by a street car near Walker. This is the fourth dog the cars have killed for Mr. Myler and he is swearing vengeance on the street car men.

OHIOIANS IN DENVER.

The Denver China and Pottery company has installed all the machinery made for it by East Liverpool foundries and will proceed to make dinner ware upon a small scale. Several Ohio potters are employed at this plant.

STANDARD BUSY.

Two cars of ware were packed yesterday at the Standard for New York. Six extra men were in the packing crew Tuesday and yesterday. The Standard is doing a big fall business.

AMONG THE POTTERS.

Alex Roler is a new mould runner at the Goodwin.

Thomas Black, a presser at the Standard, has been off sick the last few days.

Mrs. May McKeever, forelady of the glost warehouse at the Standard, was off duty yesterday.

Lewis Shively, warehouseman at the Standard, has returned from a visit with relatives near Wheeling.

Miss Ella Bentley, of the decorating room at the K. T. & K., is very sick at her home on Garfield street.

Harry Watkins, foreman of the clay shop at the K. T. & K., old end, is out of the city on a business vacation.

Ed. Martin and Miss Kate Shown, of the decorating room at the Standard, were Lisbon visitors recently.

Miss Jean Shaw, a decorator at the K., T. & K., has been confined to her home by sickness for the past few days.

Burt McFarland, one of the decorators at the K., T. & K., has been walking the floor at night and suffering untold agony with an aching tooth until yesterday when he summoned up his courage to have it extracted.

GOING TO ALASKA

Alliance Doctor Receives Report of Fabulously Wealthy Oil And Coal Lands.

Alliance, Ohio, October 30.—Dr. John J. Chambers started today for Alaska. The doctor recently returned from there, after a two and one half years absence, and now goes to look after some valuable holdings he has in the territory.

He is in receipt of a letter calling him there because of the presence of the Standard Oil company as purchasers of an oil field just opened. An oil well which spouts a stream of oil 15 feet high from a nine and one half inch tube and is of the finest quality. An English company is the owner of the well and considerable territory surrounding it has been offered $16,000,000 by the Standard Oil company for its possessions. Dr. Chambers is the owner of a five-eighths interest in 960 acres adjoining the English company's land, and they desire to purchase this tract also.

The coal deposits at this points are very rich, of the best grade of anthracite coal, with veins ranging from four to 28 feet in thickness and are within one mile of the landing for ocean vessels.

HUGE ELECTRIC ROAD.

Cleveland Street Railway Men Say There's More Than Appears on Surface In Proposed Elkins-Widener and Pomeroy-Mandelbaum Combine

Cleveland, Oct. 30.—According to Cleveland street railroad men, there is more significance in the proposed consolidation of the Elkins-Widener and the Pomeroy-Mandelbaum syndicates than has appeared on the surface of the dispatches from Cincinnati.

Representatives of Cincinnati and Boston bond houses were in this city yesterday and were of the opinion that the consolidation would result in the formation of the strongest electric railway syndicate in the United States. They declared that the plan was viewed with favor by eastern bond houses and that generous financial support would be given the Ohio syndicate.

It is claimed that the proposed syndicate will control the longest chain of electric railways in the world, covering more than 1,500 miles.

E. T. Pomeroy, of this city, said yesterday that it was a little early yet to talk about consolidation.

"There is no question, however," he added, "as to what will ultimately happen. The various railways owned or controlled by the two syndicates will be embraced in one big electric railroad."

WOMAN MURDERED.

Body, With Bullet Wounds, Still Warm When Found.

Reading, Mass., Oct. 30.—A huntsman's dog found the body of a murdered woman, just off the well-traveled highway near the Wakefield line, yesterday afternoon. The victim evidently was a tramp and she has not been identified. Walter Locke, whose dog drew him to the place, found the body to be warm and with six wounds in the head, five of them from pistol bullets, while the sixth, which had gashed the left ear and plunged deep into the neck, had been made by some sharp instrument. There was evidently indication that the murder itself had been committed elsewhere and that the body had been taken from a wagon and dragged into the field, where it was found. The dress of the woman seemed to indicate a person prepared for long journeys on foot in all sorts of weather.

FUNERAL OF MRS. STANTON.

Susan B. Anthony One Who Attended English Minister Spoke.

New York, Oct. 30.—The funeral of the late Elizabeth Cady Stanton was held yesterday, at her residence in this city. Besides the family there were present only a few close friends who had been invited, including Susan B. Anthony, the lifelong friend and co-worker of the dead woman, Lillian Devereaux Blake and Mrs. Wilbour, who represented Sorosis.

Addresses were given by the Rev. Martin D. Conroy, of the South Place chapel, London and by Mrs. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, of Elizabeth, N. J. The interment was at Woodlawn cemetery, where the ceremony included an address by Mrs. Phoebe Hanaford.

He Learned a Great Truth.

EAST END

FATE OF THE FIFTH WARD

East Enders Wondering Where They Will Land Under the New Code Bill.

The probable fate of the Fifth ward when the city is redistricted is already interesting the citizens of the East End. Under the new code, cities the size of East Liverpool can have but four wards, so one must necessarily be abolished. The Fifth was formerly the first precinct of the First ward, but it is now probable that part of the First ward may be added to it.

The new ward, it is thought, will embrace all the territory east of Ralston's crossing to the Pennsylvania state line. How it will be designated cannot be foretold, but it may be called the First. The addition of this new territory will make it the largest in area in the city and one of the largest in the number of votes.

MOTORMEN ARRESTED

Two Were Hauled Up in Wellsville. But the Mayor Discharged Them.

The street car men in the East End are laughing in their sleeves this morning at the Wellsville policemen who arrested Motormen Clager and Hurdman yesterday. Since the street car management issued the order to collect fares from all policemen not in uniform there has been trouble brewing and the first clash occurred yesterday.

Two Wellsville policemen who were not dressed as the "finest" should be were charged fare on the cars run by the men above named. Later both motormen failed to sound their gongs at a street crossing and were promptly arrested. They were taken before the chief, who released them, as the ordinance they were supposed to have violated is not yet effective.

GAS IS STILL SCARCE

East End People Complaining of Lack of Pressure in Ft. Pitt Mains.

Although the break in the mains of the Fort Pitt Gas company is reported to have been fixed there was a dearth of the heat and light giving fluid in the East End this morning. The gas stoves were burning very dimly and considerable trouble was again encountered by those who relied on gas for cooking purposes. There is not enough pressure for lighting purposes and those without electric lights were compelled to resurrect their oil lamps and overcoats and wraps were again much in evidence.

It can be readily seen how much inconvenience the shortage is causing. A number of people called up the Fort Pitt Gas company's office this morning by telephone and were told that the pressure was all right down town, and that there was probably a break in the main to the East End.

Many Lots to Be Sold.

There are 61 lots in the Midway Land Company's addition to East Liverpool, accepted by the city council at the last meeting. Of these 17 have been sold and the remainder will be offered at pudlic sale next Saturday. These lots all front on improved streets. The part of the addition rejected by the council is so situated that new thoroughfares will be necessary. Work has already been commenced. The company will also place a bridge across Lake Run.

An Enjoyable Dance.

The Philos club held another one of their enjoyable dances last evening in the Larkins & Ferguson's hall. There was a full attendance and all enjoyed a pleasant evening.

PATRIOTISM

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia.

The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier, and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

"After I received the advice which you gave me in regard to my treatment," writes Geo. Dorner, Esq., of 1915 Pulaski Street, Baltimore, Maryland, "I used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' according to directions. After using four bottles I considered myself cured, as I have not felt any symptoms since. Had tried almost all remedies that I heard of that were good for dyspepsia, but without relief. Finally, I became discouraged, and wrote to you for advice, with the above result."

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

E. J. Owens left this morning for Pittsburg on a business mission.

A Hint to Mothers of Small Children.

Mrs. Joshua Nutter, of Swiftwater, N. H., says: "When our dealer did not have Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in stock we used another preparation in treating our children, but it did little or no good. We have used this remedy for colds and croup with the highest success, and do not feel safe without it in the house." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures and is pleasant and safe to take. Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, men—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous effort to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insiduous consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's.

To Die of Paralysis Like Father.

Helpless Invalid For Three Years.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Made My Nerves Strong.

"For many years I suffered from terrible headaches and pains at the base of the brain, and finally got so bad that I was overcome with nervous prostration. I had frequent dizzy spells and was so weak and exhausted that I could take but little food. The best physicians told me I could not live; that I would die of paralysis, as my father and grandfather had. I remained a helpless invalid for three years, when I heard of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and began using it. That winter I felt better than I had before in many years, and I have not been troubled with those dreadful headaches since I first used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. My appetite is good and my nerves are strong."—Mrs. N. M. Bucknell, 2029 Oakland Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

"For many years I suffered from nervous prostration, and could not direct my household affairs, nor have any cares. My stomach was very weak, headaches very severe, and I was so nervous that there was not a night in years that I slept over one hour at a time. We spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and medicine. I was taken to Chicago and treated by specialists, but received no benefit at all. Finally I heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine and began its use. I was surprised that it helped me so quickly, and great was my joy to find, after using seven bottles, that I had fully recovered my health."—Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Duluth, Minn.

MAY LOSE THE CANAL

President Might Select Nicaragua Route, if Colombia Sulks.

COULD BUY OUT PANAMA CO.

Then Proceed on Panama Route Without Consulting Colombia—Effort to See Whether Colombia Knows of Concha's Action.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The status yesterday of the Colombian canal negotiations is that both sides here are awaiting a decision of the Colombian government as to whether Minister Concha shall proceed under his original instructions to present to the state department the Colombian response to the department's proposal for a treaty. When the response arrived in Washington, two days ago the minister promptly notified the state department of the fact, but he added to his notice the statement that in view of recent developments (meaning events that had happened on the isthmus since the note started from Bogota, Sept. 16), he had regarded it as his duty to withhold it until he heard further from his government.

Annoying to United States.

As the state department had in some way come to know that the Colombian response would, if submitted, go far towards meeting the desires of this government in the matter of a canal treaty, this delay was very annoying.

A cablegram was sent to United States Minister Hart, at the Colombian capital, notifying him of the action of the Colombian minister here. It was desired to make sure that the Colombian government knew that the note had been held back.

The matter of objection by our own officials is the attempt to link the negotiations for a canal treaty, pure and simple, with the discussion of the question of the correctness of the attitude of our naval officers on the isthmus. It is expected that the delay will not be long, for even if the Colombian answer is not satisfactory the United States government will still be bound by the terms of the Spooner act to proceed towards the construction of an isthmus canal.

Might Change to Nicaragua Route.

There are two ways open, even in case of an adverse attitude on the part of Colombia, namely, either the United States government to proceed without delay to complete the treaties with Nicaragua and Costa Rica necessary for the construction of a canal in those countries, or (and this latter course would be adopted with reluctance) the government might purchase outright the franchise of the French Panama Canal company and go on resolutely with the construction of the Panama canal, taking the ground that it would have a right to improve its own property without reference to any other government, and taking no further notice of Colombia.

There is no question before the voters of Ohio this fall so important as the election of congressmen. The state has always stood foremost in the land for its ability, strength and influence of its representatives in the national legislature. It will stand there against if the Republicans of the state do their duty this fall. Ohio's interests, with the interests of all the land, will be assailed, if the free trade Democracy gets a chance. A continuance of present marvelous prosperity can only be assured by the election of a Republican congress. The city of East Liverpool, whose chief industry owes its existence and prosperity to national protection, will lend no encouragement to the men who would tinker with the tariff and wipe it out of existence if they could.

The attempt to censure James Kennedy for action which the Youngstown board of commerce took in condemning a strike, though he was not present at the board meeting or aware of its action, is the silliest campaign canard ever brought to public notice. It is just as reasonable as it would be to attack a man for belonging to a church because there was once a church member who was hung. The labor man who can find nothing more than this in the career of the Republican candidate with which to find fault ought to cease laboring in politics.

Lest voters forget, they are again reminded that there are two Democrats running for congress in this district. True Republicans will vote for neither, and both will be snowed under by majorities that will show them that the Eighteenth district has no sympathy for calamity howlers or for the adherents of a party that would bring back the calamities that followed the enactment of the Wilson tariff.

Mrs. George Vanderbilt has issued orders that all her male servants must lift their hats when they enter the presence of her one-year-old child. Let us hope the youngster appreciates the exalted nature of its position sufficiently to refrain from squalling before the menials.

The new municipal code is in existence and will become operative next spring. It is not too early for the East Liverpool city council to take cognizance of the fact and to arrange for the changes that will be necessary. The redistricting of the city into four wards instead of five should be taken up and carefully investigated, so that no mistake will be made when the time for action arrives.

If the government of Colombia, or what passes for such, shows a disposition to act the hog, Uncle Sam will undoubtedly give it a sharp reminder that it by no means has possession of the only practicable canal route.

The president has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation in ample time to enable all who have so far overlooked that important matter to begin fattening the turkey.

Democrats all over the country are calling for Grover Cleveland to "come and spellbind a little." Mr. Bryan is listening to these appeals with silent contempt.

A New Jersey young man tried to cure an anarchist by whipping him. That's a foolish way and unnecessarily exhausting when soap and water are so cheap.

England and Germany have arranged to divide South Africa between them. That's what South Africa gets for being outside of the Monroe doctrine.

Kennedy is the true labor candidate. He never endorsed the Democratic platform or expressed regret that he could not run on the Democratic ticket.

Thanksgiving day comes, very appropriately, after election.

BOWLING CONTEST

A Tournament Arranged in Which the Local Players Are Much Interested.

Manager Craig, of the Imperial bowling team, has made arrangements for a bowling tournament in which all local lovers of the game are taking great interest. The games are to be played on the Imperial allleys at some date in the near future. Those who will participate in the tournament are the teams of Wellsville, Sebring, Salem and the local aggregation. Among these teams great rivalry has existed for more than a year, and although the games will be played for the pleasure derived the long standing doubts as to the superiority of each team will be decided.

At the present time judges of the game state that Wellsville and Sebring are a little in the lead. But the locals and Salem claim they are at least their equals.

Those who will compose the Wellsville and East Liverpool teams are:

Wellsville—M. R. Shingler, Willet Aten, Charles Hall, Richard Harsha and Mr. Hamilton.

NEW WHARF PROJECT

Chester Needs a Boat Landing And Hopes to Have One Soon.

The citizens of Chester are becoming interested in the proposed wharf at the foot of Adolphus street. James E. McDonald, who has been promoting the enterprise, says a wharf can be established at a very small expense. The natural slope of the street to the river at this point, with a small amount of work, will make a fine grade.

With the increased traffic by water of the past two or three years, it is only a matter of time when Chester will be sadly in need of a boat landing. It is hoped Chester, with her other rapid strides of improvement, will not lose sight of this project.

AT THE THEATER

The pastoral drama seems to be in great favor with East Liverpool theatergoers and a crowded house greeted "Way Down East," a representative play of its class. Although not particularly true to the Yankee type, all the actors were very clever and their performance was pleasing. Miss Anna Bridges, as Anna Moore, the wronged girl, is the best emotional actress seen on the local stage this year and she was given numerous curtain calls. The village choir was another pleasing feature. The play was superbly staged, the snow storm in the third act being particularly ingenious.

"Are You a Mason?" is simply the title of Rich & Harris' big farce comedy success which will be presented at the Grand November 3. The story of the play hinges on the complications that follow the deceptions of two husbands who pretend that they have followed the requests of their wives to join Masonic lodges. The fun that ensues through their efforts to escape detection is highly ludicrous and mirth provoking and is incessant from the rise to the final fall of the curtain.

The first and greatest achievement in railroad scenic effect is Lincoln J. Carter's "The Fast Mail," which comes to the Grand Saturday night. Interest starts at a hurricane pace and never lags for a moment, until the fall of the curtain. This is where you go away from the theater feeling you've had something for your money.

"Side Tracked" is in its fourteenth year of success. This season Jule Walters promises a practically new production, inasmuch as the play has been entirely rewritten and made up-to-date. "Side Tracked" has been played 5,315 times; what better recommendation could anyone ask?

ceded that the new resident of the city is of the type that several hundred more should be if it is expected that the city will ever be rid of the rogues who worked without interruption for so long.

The police department is being severely censured on all sides for its inability to gain clues which will lead to the arrest of the nefarious workers. When approached on the subject they point out that the police force is too small. That being granted, citizens are arguing that it is not too small to make arrests, and that all suspicious characters should be watched and arrested, and the town ridded of them. One well known business man said today:

"Matters have certainly come to a pretty pass in East Liverpool when such a man as Dr. Pratt cannot travel the streets unmolested. The city can better afford to pay for more police than to stand the reputation of being a town where thugs and highwaymen can pursue their work without let or hindrance. In the past three months dozens of cases of highway robbery, attempted or accomplished, many of them in the very heart of the city, have been reported. If any of the offenders have been captured and punished the fact has escaped my notice. Men, women and children have been pursued by specimens of humanity that should not be suffered to live outside of penitentiary walls. By no means all of these cases find their way into the newspapers. I was told only last evening of the wife of a prominent merchant being chased by an unknown man a few nights ago on Third street. The same character was said to have frightened other women and girls in that locality until few if any ladies of that neighborhood dared venture out alone after dark.

"A prominent physician, it will be recalled, was ordered to hold up his hands not many nights ago, while going about his business in the very center of the city. Whose turn will come next nobody can tell. I dislike to go armed, but do so, feeling bound to protect myself if the police cannot protect me. Other men with whom I have talked feel the same way and I know of several who carry a revolver every time they go out of an evening. There will be a dead robber if I am ever accosted on the street, unless he gets the drop on me.

"Making every allowance for exaggerated reports and for the tales of people too frightened to give an accurate story of the cause of their fright, it is a fact that cases of robbery are becoming alarmingly frequent. Prevailing conditions are a disgrace to the city. A remedy must be found. I am not familiar with the workings of the police system, but I know there is a lot of police work that needs to be done that is not done. If the present officers do all they can—and it is fair to assume that they do—then, in the name and the interests of law and order, let us have more police. The city's first duty is to protect its citizens. To confess its inability to do so is a humiliation that a live town like this should never be subjected to.

"If this thing keeps up, and the thugs and the highwaymen keep on growing bolder and bolder, as they are doing now, murder will inevitably be added to the crime of robbery. The city should not wait for that to arouse itself and take measures to abate the peril threatening its people."

ROOSEVELT ON PRESIDENTS.

Article He Wrote, Before Nominated For Vice President, to Be Published In Youth's Companion.

Boston, Oct. 30.—In an article written for the Youth's Companion, which will be published next week, Theodore Roosevelt gives his ideas of the duties and responsibilities of the president of the United States. Mr. Roosevelt wrote the article in 1900, while he was governor of New York and previous to the Republican national convention which nominated him for vice president. In it Mr. Roosevelt says in part:

One of Greatest of Rulers.

"The president of the United States occupies a position of peculiar importance. In the whole world there is no other ruler, certainly no other ruler under free institutions, whose power compares with his. Of course there is the enormous personal factor of the incumbent himself to be considered entirely apart from the power of the office itself. This is merely another way of stating that in any office the personal question is always of vital consequence.

"There is every reason why the president should be held to a sharp accountability alike for what he does and for what he leaves undone. But we injure ourselves and the nation if we fail to treat with proper respect the man who, in the highest office of our land, is striving to do his duty.

"The war department was utterly neglected for over 30 years after the Civil War. Neither the regular officers nor the regular soldier takes any part in politics as a rule, so that the demagogue and bread-and-butter politician have no fear of his vote; and to both of them, and also to the cheap sensational newspaper, the army offers a favorite subject for attack.

"So it often happens that some amiable people really get a little afraid of the army and have some idea that it may be used some time or other against our liberties.

Army Never Menaces the People.

"The army never has been, and, I am sure, it never will be or can be a menace to anybody save America's foes, or aught but a source of pride to every good and far-sighted American.

"Altogether, there are few harder tasks than that of filling well and ably the office of president of the United States. But if the man at the close of his term is able to feel that he has done his duty well, he has the satisfaction of feeling that he has performed one of the great world tasks and that mere performance is in itself the greatest of all possible rewards."

TO INSPECT THE MILL

A Party of Expert Tin Plate Workers Have Come to Chester For That Purpose.

A large party of tin plate workers arrived in Chester this morning, and during the day they will make a complete inspection of every department of the Chester mill. The men who form the party are all workmen in some of the plants controlled by the American Tin Plate Co. They are experts in their line and are in a position to do the work that has been placed upon them.

The inspection of the plant by workmen employed in other mills is in accordance with a method that has been adopted by the tin plate company with their mills throughout the country. Each mill is inspected at stated intervals by workmen taken from other mills and the recommendations of these men is given the highest consideration by the company officials.

The party will be in charge of one of the district officials and will include men from each of the different departments. At the conclusion of the inspection this afternoon a banquet will be served in the office at the mill at which all the spectators will be present. Each member of the party will be called to give a resume of his opinion as to the manner in which the work is being conducted at the plant.

The different spectators will give their unbiased opinion and will also make any suggestions they may have whereby the departments could be improved. A stenographer will take down all the reports and they will later be submitted to the general officers of the company where they will be thoroughly reviewed and acted upon if it is seen fit to do so.

Mr. Morgan, in behalf of the railroad company, proposed to build a bridge at First street if the town will make and keep in repair the approaches. As the approaches can be made with very little expense after the bridge is built, it is thought the council will accept the proposition.

BOYCE-SWANEY

Decorations of the Finest, Handsome Costumes, Fine Repast, And Presents Many.

As previously announced in this paper yesterday, the ceremony uniting the lives and fortunes of Mr. William Swaney and Miss Kathryn Boyce occurred at the home of the bride's mother last evening on Forest street. It was one of the most impressive and beautiful home weddings which has been solemnized in this city for some time. To the sweet strains of "Lohengrin" from the piano played by Miss Maude Carr, who were pink crepe de chene over pink silk, Miss Boyce, only sister of the bride, attired in white batiste with pink accessions, preceded the bridal party as ribbon bearer to the mantel. This was banked with laurel and pink chrysanthemums, above which was a life size picture of the late A. J. Boyce, father of the bride, which also was encircled with laurel. Following the ribbon bearer came Rev. C. G. Jordan and then the groom, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Daniel Swaney.

Miss Maude Wallace acted as maid-of-honor and looked charming in a gown of blue voile over blue silk, with a point Duchess lace bertha, and carrying a large bouquet of pink roses. Following her the bride approached the marriage altar attired in a gown of white batiste, en traine, being composed of tiny tucks in clusters alternating with point d'esprite insertion, forming a deep circular flounce. The upper part of the skirt was also composed of groups of tucks and insertion. The waist was made entirely of clusters of tucks and insertion, alternating with a small shoulder bertha of the same lace. This handsome gown was further enhanced by a white satin sash, fastened at the back with full rosette and each streamer being tied in pretty bows, near the end. The bride wore a full rosette of white tulle in her coiffure and also one tied at the back of the neck. She carried a beautiful large bunch of white roses, tied with white satin ribbon and never looked more handsome in her life.

While the ceremony was being performed, Miss Maud Carr played very softly "Hearts and Flowers." At the conclusion of the solemn words by Rev. Mr. Jordan, congratulations were extended by over 100 guests, followed by an elegant wedding supper. The bride's table, oblong in form, had for a center piece a handsome cut glass vase filled with rare pink roses, from the chandilier above was suspended garlands of similax, fastened at each corner of the table with bows of white satin ribbon. The bride and groom occupied the end of the table which was just below the mantel, banked with white chrysanthemums.

After the sumptuous wedding repast, the bride donned a becoming costume of brown cloth and with the groom appeared at the top of the stairway, which had been effectively decorated with laurel and autumn leaves tied with red bows. At the foot of the stairs stood a bevy of pretty girls awaiting the appearance of the bride, who threw her bridal bouquet among them. It was caught by Miss Maud Wallace. As the happy couple descended the stairs they were showered with rice. They were accompanied to the depot by a large number of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Swaney expect to be absent about two weeks and before returning will visit several eastern cities.

A large collection of beautiful and costly gifts attested the kind thoughts of a host of friends.

Three Weddings to Come.

The banns for three weddings were read for the first time in St. Aloysius' Catholic church last Sunday by Father Smyth. They are: Charles McNicol, foreman of the clay shop at the Standard, to Miss Rebecca Kinney; Charles Walsh to Miss Agnes Lynch, and Ed Ryan to Miss Jennie Walsh, of Beaver Falls.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT

At Miss Smith's Home, Calcutta Road. No Car And the Guests Walked Home.

An entertainment which will long be remembered was that given by Miss Edna Smith last evening at her home on Calcutta road in honor of Miss Lucy Fisher, who is a guest at her home. The early part of the evening was spent in games and cards, which afforded much amusement for the merry crowd present. At 11 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room, where choice refreshments were served. The large table in the center of the dining room was beautifully decorated in pink chrysanthemums and smilax.

When the luncheon was ended the guests passed into the reception room, where they indulged in the singing of popular songs, games and social conversation. Special arrangements had been made for the Calcutta road car to convey the party from the Smith home to the city, but at the appointed hour the car did not arrive and it was found it had jumped the track near Gill's store. The entire party of young people were obliged to walk home, but made the best of their predicament by merry jesting throughout the journey.

Rovers' Football Team Have Game Arranged at Crabtree For Saturday.

The East Liverpool Rovers will go to Crabtree, Pa., Saturday to play the association team of that city. The Saturday following, they will play a game with the team from Cecil, Pa., on the Rock Springs grounds. Manager Barlow is taking none but the best teams in the country and some good games can be expected during the season. It would not be surprising to see the local team finish champions of the two states.

Those who will go to Crabtree Saturday are: A. Townley, goal; W. Pope, and Tucker, full backs; Parker, Hall and Bowers, half backs; B. Pope and G. Townley, right forwards; Davis, center; Moore and Challinor, left forwards and Luke Barlow, manager and trainer.

Our gentlemen's shoes at $3 and $3.50 are dressy, neat and durable. Best makes that money can buy. We recommend them especially for quality.

Judge Kept Out Testimony of Witnesses Not Present.

New York, Oct. 30.—The prosecution in the Molineux case rested yesterday, after the defense had secured an important advantage in the decision of Justice Lambert that the reading of the testimony given at the first trial by Mamie Melando and Detective Farrell, both of whom are beyond the jurisdiction of the court, was inadmissable.

The greater part of the session was devoted to the examination of a handwriting expert, who, like all those who have preceded him, testified that one hand wrote the poison package address, the Barnet and Cornish letters and letters admittedly written by Molineux. The presentation of the case in the defense was expected to occupy not more than two days and interest centered whether Molineux would testify in his own behalf.

Bound Marshal and Robbed Bank.

Gardner, Ills., Oct. 30.—Six men yesterday morning seized Town Marshal Edmondson, at the engine house, tied him with ropes, took him to the Exchange National bank and set him in a chair. The vault was blown open with dynamite, and the interior of the bank wrecked. The robbers are supposed to have secured between $3,000 and $4,000, although the exact amount is not known. After leaving the bank they took the marshal to the school house, tied a rope around his neck and fastened him to a chair. The chair was placed at the head of a stairway, so that if he struggled to release himself he would fall downstairs and hang himself. The robbers took a train going toward Chicago.

ARBITRATORS' TOUR.

MINERS' HOMES TO BE SEEN.

District President Nicholls Represents the Mine Workers and Mine Officials the Operators—Mitchell's Statement May Be Received.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 30.—The anthracite coal strike commissioners, who will make an inspection of the mines and the homes of the mine workers, arrived here last night over the Central Railroad of New Jersey. Commissioner T. H. Watkins, whose home is in this city, came here early in the day and arranged some of the details for the first day's tour of the upper region. The commission's headquarters are at the Hotel Jermyn, where the party occupy 14 rooms.

A colliery will be visited at Forest City and a washery at Carbondale.

The operators will be represented by General Manager Bryden, of the New York, Ontario and Western company; Superintendent Rose, of the Delaware and Hudson; General Manager Thorne, of the Temple Iron company, and General Manager May, of the Erie company. District President T. D. Nicholls, of the miners' union, is to be the principal representative of the miners.

The commissioners will stop at Olyphant, six miles north of Scranton, for the purpose of visiting other collieries and to look at the homes and surroundings of the mine workers. Scranton will be reached at about 6 o'clock.

On Friday the commission will spend the day visiting collieries in and about the city of Scranton and viewing the mining suburbs. Saturday the commission will go to Wilkesbarre to further prosecute their investigations.

Mr. Watkins, in an interview yesterday, said, in part, that the commission will probably not sit to take testimony until after a tour of the region has been completed. It is possible, though, that a session will take place Monday, in Wilkesbarre, to receive the statement to be presented by President Mitchell, of the mine workers, to which the operators have agreed to make answer within three days. It is almost a certainty that no testimony will be taken in this city this week.

MITCHELL DAY CELEBRATED.

Demonstrations In Various Towns In Anthracite Region—Mitchell Spoke at Wilkesbarre.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 30.—Mitchell day was celebrated in all the principal towns of the anthracite coal region yesterday, and in order that all the mine workers might have an opportunity to participate in the exercises the mines were closed down. The principal demonstration was held in this city and President Mitchell took part. Many strangers were here. Everybody wore a John Mitchell badge.

10,00 0Men In Line.

The procession started shortly before noon and was nearly one hour in passing a given point. As the weather was cold the marching was rapid and there were few delays. It is estimated that there were 10,000 men in line. The parade was headed by a platoon of police. Then came the chief marshal, National Organizer John Fallon. The chief officer was followed by carriages containing the principal officers of the United Mine Workers' organization and invited guests. President Mitchell, "Mother" Jones, Rev. Powers, of Spring Valley, Ills., and Thomas Haggerty, of Reynoldsville, Pa., occupied the first carriage.

President Mitchell was given an ovation all along the line of march, and whenever his carriage stopped the crowd from the sidewalk pressed around and insisted on shaking his hand.

After the parade was over a big mass meeting was held at Y. M. C. A. park. Rev. J. J. Curran, of Holy Saviour church, this city, was elected chairman. He introduced as the first speaker Rev. J. F. Powers, of Spring Valley, Ills., who spoke. Rev. James Moore, of the Primitive Methodist church, of Avoca, then spoke.

Thomas Haggerty, of Reynoldsville, Pa., who was down on the program as the principal speaker of the day, then made an address. Several addresses in foreign languages then followed.

Doesn't Want Another Strike.

President Mitchell was the last speaker. He was received with great cheering. He said in part:

"I hope there will never again be a strike in the coal fields of Pennsylvania. I desire the men and the operators to meet. I do not want to make enemies of the operators. In closing, I wish to impress upon you that membership in the union is the only safeguard. The operators are not going to pay the bill of the strike. They will make the workers pay it if they can, but if not, they will make the needy pay it."

TO THANK GOD.

PRESIDENT NAMES NOV. 27, AS THANKSGIVING DAY.

Points Out the Many Blessings For Which We Should Thank the Lord.

"By the President of the United States of America, a Proclamation:

"According to the yearly custom of our people it falls upon the president at this season to appoint a day of festival and thanksgiving to God.

"Over a century and a quarter has passed since this country took its place among the nations of the earth and during that time we have had on the whole more to be thankful for than has fallen to the lot of any other people. Generation after generation has grown to manhood and passed away. Each has had to bear its peculiar burdens, each to face its special crisis and each has known years of grim trial, when the country was menaced by malice, domestic or foreign levy, when the hand of the Lord was heavy upon it in drouth or flood or pestilence, when in bodily distress and anguish of soul it paid the penalty of folly and a forward heart.

"Nevertheless, decade by decade, we have struggled onward and upward; we now abundantly enjoy material well being, and under the favor of the Most High, we are striving earnestly to achieve moral and spiritual uplifting. The year that has just closed has been one of peace and overflowing plenty. Rarely has any people enjoyed greater prosperity than we are now enjoying. For this we render heartfelt and solemn thanks to the Giver of Good; and we seek to praise Him, not by words only, but by deeds, by the way in which we do our duty to ourselves and to our fellow men.

"Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, do hereby designate as a day of general thanksgiving, Thursday, the 27th of the coming November, and do recommend that throughout the land the people cease from their ordinary occupations and in their several homes and places of worship, render thanks unto Almighty God for the manifold blessings of the past year.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington this 29th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and two, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and twenty-seventh.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

"By the President,

"JOHN HAY, Secretary of State."

Doukhobers Not Likely to Riot.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 30.—The Doukhober fanatics are encamped in the vicinity of Yorkton. Nothing of a disorderly nature has yet occurred. While the women and children spent Tuesday night in the shed, the men sought the shelter of a bluff. The whole night was spent in religious exercises. They seem determined to continue and expressed themselves thus to Agent Speers, who pointedly told them that they would not be allowed to wander in such large numbers. There is no danger of any trouble. Even if they are forced to go back to their villages they will go without resistance.

Hoy and Others Furnished Bail.

Clarion, Pa., Oct. 30.—Representative J. A. F. Hoy, R. G. Yingling and James Pinks, the last two being trustees of the Clarion State Normal school, charged with conspiracy and bribery in connection with a recent state appropriation to the institution, yesterday waived a hearing and furnished bail in the sum of $500 each for court.

WELLSVILLE

WELLSVILLE RESIDENTS SURE THEY HAD FOUND IT.

But After They Had Carried It Home Were Obliged to Take It Back.

Quite a comical story is going the rounds of the West End about a few people who reside in the neighborhood of the Vulcan Brick works, who a few days ago struck a snap in the way of laying in a winter's supply of coal, without it costing them a penny.

It seems that few days ago a wreck occured in the West End yards of the C. & P. road which resulted in the bottom of a loaded coal car falling out, scattering the contents along the track. Nothing was done with the coal by the railroad company on the day of the wreck as all of the employes of the road were busy elsewhere and could not attend to it on that particular day.

One or two of the West End citizens who reside in the neighborhood of the brick plant noticed the good coal laying along the track and it occured to them that it would be a good thing to gather it up in baskets and fill their cellars for a winter supply. They accordingly went home and after telling two or three of their neighbors, started out to gather up the valuable fuel. Several of them worked all night long and succeeded in carrying nearly a ton to their homes.

During all of these proceedings a night watchman for the company, who was acquainted with all of the people who were gathering the coal, jotted down the names of the offenders and reported the next morning. The result was that all of the people who had worked so hard the night before received a notice that morning to put back the coal which they had taken or suffer the consequences, which would mean prosecution. All complied with the notice and returned every bit of that which they had taken from the company's tracks. One of the men who had carried perhaps a few bushel more than any of the others was physically unable to carry the coal back that morning and had to hire a man to do the work for him, it costing him $1.50.

DOWNWARD COURSE

Mrs. Mount, of 165 Fourth street, says: "If weakness across the loins and sharp pains in the back are any indication of kidney complaint, then I had it. I knew what caused the trouble, but how to check it was a mystery until my husband procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy for himself. The result in his case was so satisfactory that I used two or three boxes. They cured me. At least up to the present date there has been no symptons of a recurrence."

OBJECT TO THE RULE

Wellsville's police officers of late have been asked for street car fare because they were not in their uniform. They are unanimously against the new ruling of the street car company and have a scheme on foot to get even. The first afternoon when they are off duty, it is said, they intend to put on their full uniform and ride in a body backward and forward all throught the city the entire afternoon. The street car company can raise no objection to this and the local officers think that they may be able in this way to prevail upon the company to change the new ruling.

CAN'T GET MEN ENOUGH

Carroll-Porter Company Searching In Vain For More Boiler Makers.

The Carroll-Porter Boiler works are rushed with orders and are sadly in need of more men. They are now working two turns a day and are still unable to fill orders. Boiler makers, who are perhaps needed more than men for any other department, seem to be scarcest. The company has advertised for men all over the country, but has thus far been able to get but few. The company is also in need of riveters and punchers but these are likewise scarce.

Manager Baldwin has been to Pittsburg and Youngstown several times lately, but only succeeded in bringing in a few men.

BEFORE THE MAYOR

Man Fined for Being Drunk—Woman Threatened With Workhouse Sentence.

K. W. Bradley, of this city, was arrested last evening by Officers Thorn and Davis, on a charge of drunk and disorderly. He was given a hearing this morning before Mayor Fogo and pleaded guilty to the charge, after which he was assessed $5.75.

Mrs. McClurg, alias Jane Knox, who was arrested Tuesday night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, was given a hearing this morning. This is her second appearance before the mayor, who only gave her a severe scolding and then allowed her to be released. The mayor informed her that if she ever appeared in his court again she would be sent to the workhouse.

CASE DISMISSED

End of the Injunction Suit of Andrew Roley vs. George M. Aten.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special.)—In the case of Andrew Roley against George M. Aten, both of Wellsville, the injunction suit was dismissed yesterday at the cost of the plaintiff. The plaintiff sought to enjoin the defendant from proceeding in Justice Riley's court in Wellsville in an action of forcible detention to recover possession of a coal mine that had been leased to Robey by an agent.

The lease was in writing and for the term of five years, was witnessed and was not acknowledged. For this reason Roley was not able to hold the mine.

A NEW POTTERY AT COSHOCTON

The Project to Be Helped Forward By a Bonus of $25,000 And A Site.

Coshocton, October 30.—Unless somebody changes his mind, says a local paper, Coshocton will soon have another new industry, one employing 225 people at the start and promising to increase the number to 300. The industry in question is a pottery and it will make a very fine grade of decorated awre. The projector is an experienced pottery man who has plenty of capital. He has requested that his name be not made public until a little later on, for business reasons.

The board of trade has been conducting negotiations with the gentleman for some months. He was in conference with the board Tuesday night and the terms were finally agreed upon. He will be given a bonus of $25,000 and a site. The plant will be located on the board of trade second addition, near the glass works. The building will be 600 feet long and the plant in the beginning will have six kilns. The agreement provides that this shall be increased to nine kilns within five years.

The contract has not yet been signed but the memorandum was all agreed upon, and unless the projector changes his mind it will be a go.

ALL IMAGINARY

The Story of Many Thefts at Receptions Ridiculed And Denied.

A story published in a local paper last evening boldly stating that articles of value had been stolen from the homes of some of the most prominent people in the city during the progress of receptions was today found to be a miserable fake, and the persons alluded to as being victims of the thefts are not only indignant, but exceedingly sorry that for the simple sake of filling space that a paper would resort to such means.

The article stated that during a reception at the home of Mrs. Joshua Poole, table linen was taken. Mrs. Poole when seen this morning by a News Review reporter said: "That is absolutely untrue. There was not a thing stolen from my home on the day of the reception."

Mrs. James Rinehart was also much worked up when asked regarding the statement that different receptions articles had disappeared at the function given at her home. She said: "There was nothing in that story at all. I did not miss a thing."

TEWKSBURY IS LAME

The greatest horse race ever witnessed in this county, scheduled to take place at Columbian park next Saturday afternoon, was postponed this morning owing to the lameness of one of the racers, Tewksbury, owned by C. A. Smith.

As a result of a nail being driven into the quick of the animal's right front foot, it can scarcely walk and it would be almost an impossibility to race the horse. However, Mr. Smith would not call the race off until a mutual agreement was made between himself and Harrison Rinehart, the backer of Redmond, the other horse to be entered. Mr. Rinehart was willing to let the event be postponed until Tewksbury recovers.

It has not been decided yet when the race will be called but it is possible on Tuesday or Wednesday next. The gentlemen's road race has also been postponed, but it will occur on the date set for the most important event.

KINGDOM OF GALLUP

King Owns Everything But Railroad And He Is Boss of That, As Well.

Napoleon, October 30.—A few miles from this town, in Henry county, is located the "Kingdom of Gallup." It may not be found on the map, but it has a very real king, John Konzen. Konzen is not yet entirely accustomed to his honors, and the crown still rests somewhat uneasily on his brow. For Konzen is young.

There is only one thing that the king does not own in all the kingdom, that is the Detroit Southern railway, which runs through his kingdom. But he is none the less the ruler, as he is both freight and ticket agent.

The kingdom is small—it has but a little over 150 inhabitants, not counting the pigs, ducks, dogs and cats. It is not an hereditary monarchy, as Konzen recently purchased all rights. He bought the grain elevator, the dry goods store, the grocery and meat market, together with the postoffice and all the residences.

The kingdom has not adopted any distinctive flag, but still flaunts the Stars and Stripes and Speaker McKinnon's Buckeye banner on big days.

Konzen, however, has declared himself independent of the legislature, and the new code bill will not be effective in his kingdom.

Duffy Talked at Lisbon.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special)—T. J. Duffy, the labor candidate for congress addressed a meeting in the court room last evening. There was a fair sized audience, the seats on the raise in the rear end of the room being partly filled.

REV. DR. PRATT TWICE ATTACKED BY FOOTPADS

The city, for its own reputation, and for the protection of its citizens, should rid itself of the thugs and highwaymen that infest it. There have been several instances lately of prominent citizens attacked by footpads. The latest to come to light is that of Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt, the new pastor of the First M. E. church.

Knowing that he was a comparative stranger in the city and judging from his professional appearance that he would prove an easy victim, Dr. Pratt during the few short weeks of his pastorate in this city has twice been accosted by would-be highwaymen.

The first time that the reverend gentleman was attacked occurred about three weeks ago when he was walking alone from his residence on Jackson street to the depot. He had reached the corner of Broadway and Second street and was taken wholly by surprise when a man of heavy build stepped boldly out in front of him, grabbed him roughly by the shoulder and demanded that he hand over his watch.

Carrying a hand satchel and a cane Dr. Pratt was for a moment undecided what to do, feeling that he was handicaped, but grasping the situation he dropped the satchel and with the cane in his right hand delivered a terrific blow in the pit of the man's stomach. The blow evidently came unexpectedly, as the man keeled over on the ground, giving utterance to cries of pain. The minister was satisfied at having defeated the man in his dastardly attempt, and went his way. Not fearing another such attack he did not even report the matter to central station.

The second attempt made to rob Dr. Pratt was within a few days after the first. As before he was walking unattended and not giving robbers a thought, when on one of the promfnent thoroughfares he was confronted by a gang of young men, all under 25 years of age. They did not resort to violence, but blurted out a command that he "shell out," as they were thirsty. Demonstrating his nerve, as on the previous occasion, he had no trouble in putting the ruffians to flight. On neither occasion was Dr. Pratt injured or relieved of any of his jewelry or money, but the experiences were startling and unpleasant. It will be con-

BOSSES' COUNTER PROPOSAL READY

They Are Not Pleased With Some Parts of Journeymen Barbers' Scale.

In Case a Sick Man Is Visited, Is a Clause Which Will Not Be Favored By the Employees—A Meeting to Be Held Tonight.

It may be that East Liverpool residents who are patrons of local barber shops will have a longer wait on next Saturday than usual; for, unless the new journeymen's scale is signed up it is possible they will go on strike.

At a meeting held one night last week, attended by both journeymen and bosses, the new regulations of the latter were formally presented for the consideration of shop owners. Nothing was said at that time as to whether the revised scale of the journeymen would be approved by the bosses. There were several material changes, and it was the opinion of the employers that it would be necessary for all bosses to be consulted in the matter.

Tuesday night a well attended meeting of the bosses was held, and it was the unanimous opinion of those present that the men were asking more than they could make effective. One clause which met with universal disapproval was that which required the bosses to charge 50 cents for a shave in cases where they were called upon to go to a patron's house in case of sickness. The bosses state that in almost every instance they do this class of work themselves, and that they are not disposed to allow the journeymen to dictate what prices shall control.

The closing hours proposed in the new scale are not satisfactory. The employers assert that the hours which prevail at present are satisfactory to nearly all of their patrons, and that should they adopt those proposed a very large number of men engaged at work requiring their presence in the evenings, and especially Saturday nights will be compelled to do without being shaved, or procure a razor and shave themselves, and they fear the latter. A committee was appointed to confer with the journeymen with the object in view of attempting to show them that it would be impossible to adopt the proposed list. The employes had included a clause requiring the bosses to answer the demand by tonight.

This request will be complied with, but in the shape of a visit, from the bosses' committee, who will present a counter proposition. The shop owners' side of the question will be set forth as clearly as it is possible to do, and they say there are but few changes over the journeymen's list asked. Where alterations are made, they say, it is absolutely necessary to change the demands in order that they can be able to make a living for themselves. It is not known what the journeymen will do with the bosses' revised scale.

SIGHT OF HANDCUFFS MUCH ENRAGED HIM

WHITE VERY VIOLENT AS HE STARTED FOR MASSILLON.

It Took Five Men to Handle the Insane Patient—Other Unfortunates.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special.)—Sheriff Leonard took William A. White, the Wellsville insane man, to Massillon today, and George Taylor to the Canton workhouse. The sheriff was joined at Salem by Mrs. Leonard, who had in charge Mrs. William Bowman, an insane woman of that city.

White was in a bad way this morning, and it required the efforts of five men to get him from the jail to the station and into the train. When he got up this morning White was calm and tractable and dressed himself with a little assistance from one of the sheriff's deputies. At the sight of the handcuffs, however, he became excited, and raising his arms above his head backed into a corner of the cell and resisted until overpowered by the sheriff and his assistants.

George Taylor, the workhouse prisoner, helped the sheriff control White after the got on the train, accompanying them to Massillon and then returning to Canton.

AGAIN A MERCHANT

Ex-County Treasurer Smith Will Engage in His Old Business at Columbiana.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special)—Ex-County Treasurer C. E. Smith, has decided to move back to his former home at Columbiana and resume the management of the H. H. Smith dry goods store, with which he was connected before he assumed the treasurership.

The continued illness of his father was probably responsible for the decision.

WHEREABOUTS NOT KNOWN

Two Errors Have Been Found in the Section of the Code Relating to Civil Service—That Feature May Be Rendered Void.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, October 30.—Adjutant Gyger has received a communication from Washington, D. C., asking for the address of John W. Reely and A. Jones Patterson, who served as assistant surgeons in the civil war in 115th Ohio Volunteer infantry. The letter states that there is money due each from the government. The regiment was composed of companies raised in East Liverpool, Salem, Columbiana and elsewhere in Columbiana county and in Stark and Summit counties. The regiment was mustered in at Camp Massillon for a period of three years. Colonel Lucy, of Alliance, commanded the regiment for about eighteen months, when he resigned and was succeeded by Lieutenant Colonel T. C. Boone, of Salem, who served as commander until muster out. Col. H. R. Hill, of East Liverpool, was lieutenant colonel of the regiment.

Adjutant General Gyger does not know the whereabouts of Surgeons Reed and Patterson or of any of their relatives. Reed resided at Barnesville before entering the service. Any information which the old members of the regiment may be able to furnish concerning the missing man or their relatives will be appreciated by the department.

Col. H. R. Hill, who served with the One Hundred and Fifteenth, was asked about the men, but could give no information concerning them. He has not heard of them since the close of the war, but by reference to the roster of Ohio soldiers he found that Reed was mustered out of the service June 22, 1865, and that Patterson resigned November 23, 1863.

Two errors have been found in the section of the code relating to the enforcement of civil service by the board of public safety which may have the effect of rendering the section void. One error destroys the sense of one part of the section and the other seems to make the section contradictory. F. N. Sinks, private secretary to Governor Nash, discovered the mistakes.

There are about 400 prisoners in the penitentiary who were convicted under the jury laws which have been declared unconstitutional, and there is a possibility that some of the life men so convicted will demand re-hearings, in which event they will succeed in getting out of prison for a short time at least. Some might obtain freedom through absence of witnesses, who might be dead or out of the state, whose testimony caused their conviction. Then they might get off with lighter sentences.

State Mine Inspector Biddle received a telegram Wednesday announcing that a miner had been killed at East Palestine, Columbiana county. No details were given.

PATRIOTIC ORDER MAY BE FORMED

And the Proposition to Organize Is Being Earnestly Discussed By Many Ladies—The Objects And Aims of the National Society.

The proposition of forming a local branch of the national society of the Daughters of the American Revolution in this city is being earnestly discussed by several ladies, and there is a good prospect that preliminary steps will soon be taken to that end. A quiet investigation on the part of those interested reveals the fact that there are enough persons in the city eligible to membership to form a good-sized society. Among the ladies in whose veins runs the blood of revolutionary ancestors are some of the most prominent in the city.

The Daughters of the American Revolution is a flourishing organization and numbers among its members in the east some of the most prominent ladies in the country. It is not an old society, having been incorporated in Washington in 1891, and having been granted a charter by congress February 29, 1896. Its objects are patriotic and praiseworthy.

Among its aims are these: "To perpetuate the memory of the spirit of the men and women who achieved American independence by the acquisition and protection of historical spots and the erection of monuments; by the encouragement of historical research in relation to the revolution and the publication of the results; by the preservation of documents and relics, and of the records of the individual services of revolutionary soldiers and patriots, and by the promotion of celebrations of all patriotic anniversaries.

"To carry out the injunction of Washington in his farewell address to the American people, 'to promote, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge;' to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, to foster true patriotism and love of country, and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty."

Those who are eligible to membership are women above the age of 18, descended from a man or woman, who, with unfailing loyalty, rendered material aid to the cause of independence, from a recognized patriot, a soldier or sailor or civil officer in one of our colonies or states or of the United Colonies or States; provided that the applicant be acceptable to the society.

Twelve members only are sufficient to organize a chapter.

Steubenville And the West Virginia Manufacturing Town Are to Be United.

Steubenville, October 30.—Among the coming events in the near future for Steubenville is the building of the bridge from this city to the West Virginia side, and it is said, that the survey for the abutments made several years ago on the Ohio side, located on High street, between Market and Adams streets, indicates their site when the bridge is built. This will give two fine approaches for the bridge, one on Market street, and the other by the way of Adams street.

The West Virginia farmers are jubilant over the good news that at last they are to have easy access to Steubenville, and there will be satisfaction all round that the city is to have communication with the new Follansbee tin plate settlement.

PFANKUCH'S GRIM PURPOSE TO TAKE HIS OWN LIFE

Prof. William Pfankuch, the musician, who attempted suicide yesterday shortly after noon by hanging in a cell at the city hall, continues irrational and laboring under most peculiar hallucinations. It is feared that he may resort to some other rash act which will prove injurious if not fatal.

The denial made in a local paper that the professor attempted suicide was scoffed this morning by Mayor Davidson. It now develops that the musician made the attempt twice. His first trial was by hanging with his head downward, his foot fastened between the iron slats of the cell cot, and the second time was as reported in the News Review. Mayor Davidson is authority for the statement that Pfankuch was hanging by the neck between a chair and an iron bar.

The demented man spent a very restless time last night. He roamed the cell and gave evidence of great fear, believing that some person was attacking him. At times he was seen to crouch low in the cell corner and while in that posture he cried out to imaginary persons present. He seemed to think that his parents were with him and that they were censuring him for the part he had taken in the alleged trouble with his spouse. On his left arm there is a long scar, which, he says, is the result of a fight between himself and his wife. According to his statement she cut him with a knife on the arm in an endeavor to maim him to the extent that he would never be able to use his beloved instrument, the violin, again.

It was the intention of the mayor to release him today and send him to Pittsburg, where he has relatives, but he still showing certain signs of insanity, it is not likely that he will be given freedom for several days.

Friends who have known him in his rational days and are well acquainted with his exceptional ability have visited him at the cell and all express sorrow over his unfortunate condition.

A BASELESS ACCUSATION AND HOW IT ORIGINATED SUCCINCTLY SET FORTH

In 1894 there was a strike on with out of the city when the board met the street car employes of Youngstown. The board of commerce of that city held a meeting and adopted a set of resolutions denouncing acts of alleged lawlessness by the strikers as tending to injure the business of the city. Now, the board of commerce of Youngstown was not a political body. It was not organized to elect any man to office nor to deprive any man from attaining any office.

Youngstown's board of commerce was organized to promote the business and industrial interests of Youngstown, and how well they succeeded in the way of landing new industries one has only to take a trip through the Mahoning valley to ascertain. The board was made up of all the people of Youngstown who had either influence or money. On it were Single Taxers, Populists, Republicans, Democrats and Prohibitionists.

When a bare quorum of the members of the board met and adopted the resolution referred to the names of the entire membership of the body were signed to the measure and so printed in the papers at the time. James Kennedy, Republican candidate for congress, was a member of the board, and his name was attached to the resolutions with the rest, although he was and adopted the resolutions.

A Salem weekly paper, failing to "bleed" Mr. Kennedy, sent to Youngstown, secured part of the resolutions and printed them in over 10,000 copies of the sheet with James Kennedy's name attached. The casual reader of the sheet would think Kennedy drafted the resolutions and forced them through to show animus against the strikers. The printing of the resolutions in the Salem paper was only in part, that which suited the purpose of the editor. Any part that might appear favorable to Mr. Kennedy was eliminated. There were about 200 members of the board of commerce at the time, but of all these Mr. Kennedy was made to bear the brunt of the paper's nasty temper, even although he was not in Youngstown when the resolutions were formulated and did not know the board had taken such action until he returned home a week later.

A few years ago John H. Morris, of Youngstown, was the Democratic candidate for congress in this district. He is a member of the board of commerce. No blame ever attached to him for helping to boost Youngstown. So were John H. Clark, A. J. Woolf and dozens of Democrats and others representing all political parties.

KENNEDY HERE AND AT WORK

Meeting With Encouragement in His Canvass on Every Hand.

James Kennedy, Republican candidate for congress, arrived in the city at noon today, and immediately began a systematic canvass of the many potteries and other establishments of the city.

Mr. Kennedy is in the hands of the local Republican city committee, and is receiving kind words of encouragement on every hand.

Though it was thought by the city committee to be necessary, as the outlook for Republican success was never brighter, still Mr. Kennedy insisted upon meeting the pottery workers and others in order that they might become acquainted. He covered considerable ground in his visits this afternoon and is being kindly received by all.

Mr. Kennedy will remain here all of tomorrow, and it is thought when he is ready to depart no one will have been missed.

Husband the Plaintiff in One Case And Wife in Another—Circuit Court Will Open November Term at Lisbon Wednesday.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special.)—Nearly all of the criminal cases having been disposed of, and only a few important civil cases to be heard, this will be a comparatively dull week in common pleas court. Judge Hole excused the jury shortly after noon yesterday until Friday.

The November term of circuit court will begin next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, with Judges J. B. Burrows, P. A. Laubie and J. M. Cook on the bench.

Two more divorces were granted yesterday afternoon. Alice H. Burson sued for divorce from Willis L. Burson, alleging wilful absence and failure to provide for the last four years. They were married in Salem in 1892. Defendant's whereabouts is unknown. Mrs. Burson is given the custody of their 6 year-old daughter, Camille.

The husband was the plaintiff in the second case. Harvey H. and Minnie McVey were married at Lisbon September 17, 1891. They have two children, Georgia, aged 9, and Addie, aged 7. The husband charged wilful absence and infidelity, saying that the wife had ceased living with him more than three years ago. Mrs. McVey had filed a cross-petition denying these allegations, but the evidence was against her. The husband was granted a divorce with the custody of the children.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

QUALITY NOW DEMANDED.

One growing tendency of the American people which is a gratifying indication of advancement in knowledge and refinement is their increasing appreciation if what is good in a material sense. It is a certain token of progress when people show dissatisfaction with what is cheap and of inferior quality and reach out for the best that their means will permit them to acquire. The diffusion of knowledge, which brings with it refinement of taste, is probably the main cause of this desire for better things, and this spread of knowledge is going on more rapidly than ever before in the history of this country. Particularly is this true in the buying of pottery products, and it is noticeable in connection with recent trade literature that cheapness is not being pushed to the front so much as it used to be, and that attention is being more generally called to excellence in quality. Manufacturers and dealers report that the demand for high grade products has been increasing with pronounced rapidity in the past few years. Consumers, they say, are showing a more marked appreciation of quality, and do not call to anything like the former extent for cheapness in goods. They are beginning to demand the best their purses can afford. The present generation, too, are better informed, through their higher education, than were their parents as to the merits and advantages of good goods, and their taste is more cultivated. Added to this is the fact that the people today have more money to spend and are consequently better able to gratify their tastes. The progressive manufacturer and tradesman would do well to bear these facts in mind and help along the good work by pushing their high grade goods as much as possible. Not only is there more profit for them in the sale of such goods, but the satisfaction their use will give to the purchaser will naturally be an inducement to them to further patronize the seller first class products.

JIGGERMEN AGAIN WORKING.

A temporary arrangement has been made between the jiggermen of the Globe pottery and the management whereby the clay at that plant will be given another trial. A conference was held yesterday between President A. S. Hughes, of the Brotherhood, and Messrs. Murphy, Horwell and Frederick, of the pottery company, and the men returned to work this morning. All of the departments at the plant that were compelled to be idle on account of the jiggermen quitting work last week will also resume work this morning. This settlement will eliminate the necessity of taking the matter before the joint arbitration board which it was thought would have to be appealed to in the matter.

GEORGE SEBRING'S NEW HOME.

A Cameron, of Salem, is now engaged in drawing plans for a fine residence for the Sebrings which will be erected on Ohio street for the elder Sebrings, who will hereafter live in that thriving village. The residence is to be wholly of veneered brick and finished in the latest and most expensive manner. The residence will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000. When completed Mr. and Mrs. George Sebring, the eldest of the Sebring brothers, who were the promoters of the new town which bears their name, will have one of the most beautiful and expensive residences in that place.

ACCIDENT AT THE DANCE.

Miss Kate O'Brien, a popular decorator at the Goodwin, met with a painful accident at the dance given by Prof. Cassidy at Columbian park Tuesday night. Just after the completion of a dance she was walking across the floor of the pavilion, when in some way she slipped and fell, dislocating her collar bone. She was brought down town to the office of Dr. Taylor, where the injury was cared for.

SMALL STRIKE ON.

A number of the girls employed in the decorating department of the Taylor, Smith & Taylor pottery, Chester, are on strike over a difference of opinion between the crew and the manager of the department. An attempt is being made to fill their places. The matter has not been reported to Brotherhood headquarters, and it is probable the difficulty can be adjusted without aid from that quarter.

MR. McDONALD ILL.

John McDonald, the efficient manager of the K., T. & K. decorating department, has been laid up with rheumatism for the last few days. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

CLAY VEIN ON LONG ISLAND.

A vein of potter's clay has been discovered at Mattituck, Long Island, Mr. Van Norstrand has tested samples of this clay and investigations are now being pursued to ascertain the extent of the vein. If it proves to be of sufficient length and depth to warrant working, arrangements will be made to convert the clay into a high grade of pottery.

TO ENLARGE NEXT SPRING.

The Akron China company is again running full. The ravages of the recent fire have been completely effaced. The greatest trouble with this firm at the present time is to get ware out to fill the orders. Several new pieces are being modeled for next year. The company expect to enlarge its capacity quite extensively in the spring.

WILL MAKE GAME SCARCE.

Lance and Charles McBride, pressers at the K., T. & K., old end, were out hunting yesterday in the vicinity of Cannon's Mill. The former has just purchased a fine new shot gun, warranted not to miss, and he expects to make the game scarce in this neighborhood before the hunting season is over.

PROMINENT DESIGNER.

VALUABLE DOG KILLED.

A valuable dog, the property of J. D. Myler, a dishmaker at the Goodwin, was run over and killed yesterday by a street car near Walker. This is the fourth dog the cars have killed for Mr. Myler and he is swearing vengeance on the street car men.

OHIOIANS IN DENVER.

The Denver China and Pottery company has installed all the machinery made for it by East Liverpool foundries and will proceed to make dinner ware upon a small scale. Several Ohio potters are employed at this plant.

STANDARD BUSY.

Two cars of ware were packed yesterday at the Standard for New York. Six extra men were in the packing crew Tuesday and yesterday. The Standard is doing a big fall business.

AMONG THE POTTERS.

Alex Roler is a new mould runner at the Goodwin.

Thomas Black, a presser at the Standard, has been off sick the last few days.

Mrs. May McKeever, forelady of the glost warehouse at the Standard, was off duty yesterday.

Lewis Shively, warehouseman at the Standard, has returned from a visit with relatives near Wheeling.

Miss Ella Beatley, of the decorating room at the K. T. & K., is very sick at her home on Garfield street.

Harry Watkins, foreman of the clay shop at the K. T. & K., old end, is out of the city on a business vacation.

Ed. Martin and Miss Kate Shown of the decorating room at the Standard, were Lisbon visitors recently.

Miss Jean Shaw, a decorator at the K., T. & K., has been confined to her home by sickness for the past few days.

Burt McFarland, one of the decorators at the K., T. & K., has been walking the floor at night and suffering untold agony with an aching tooth until yesterday when he summoned up his courage to have it extracted.

COING TO ALASKA

Alliance Doctor Receives Report of Fabulously Wealthy Oil And Coal Lands.

Alliance, Ohio, October 30.—Dr. John J. Chambers started today for Alaska. The doctor recently returned from there, after a two and one half years absence, and now goes to look after some valuable holdings he has in the territory.

He is in receipt of a letter calling him there because of the presence of the Standard Oil company as purchasers of an oil field just opened. An oil well which spouts a stream of oil 15 feet high from a nine and one half inch tube and is of the finest quality. An English company is the owner of the well and considerable territory surrounding it has been offered $16,000,000 by the Standard Oil company for its possessions. Dr. Chambers is the owner of a five-eighths interest in 960 acres adjoining the English company's land, and they desire to purchase this tract also.

The coal deposits at this points are very rich, of the best grade of anthracite coal, with veins ranging from four to 28 feet in thickness and are within one mile of the landing for ocean vessels.

Cleveland Street Railway Men Say There's More Than Appears on Surface In Proposed Elkins-Widener and Pomeroy-Mandelbaum Combine

Cleveland, Oct. 30.—According to Cleveland street railroad men, there is more significance in the proposed consolidation of the Elkins-Widener and the Pomeroy-Mandelbaum syndicates than has appeared on the surface of the dispatches from Cincinnati.

Representatives of Cincinnati and Boston bond houses were in this city yesterday and were of the opinion that the consolidation would result in the formation of the strongest electric railway syndicate in the United States. They declared that the plan was viewed with favor by eastern bond houses and that generous financial support would be given the Ohio syndicate.

It is claimed that the proposed syndicate will control the longest chain of electric railways in the world, covering more than 1,500 miles.

E. T. Pomeroy, of this city, said yesterday that it was a little early yet to talk about consolidation.

"There is no question, however," he added, "as to what will ultimately happen. The various railways owned or controlled by the two syndicates will be embraced in one big electric railroad."

WOMAN MURDERED.

Body, With Bullet Wounds, Still Warm When Found.

Reading, Mass., Oct. 30.—A hunter's dog found the body of a murdered woman, just off the well-traveled highway near the Wakefield line, yesterday afternoon. The victim evidently was a tramp and she has not been identified. Walter Locke, whose dog drew him to the place, found the body to be warm and with six wounds in the head, five of them from pistol bullets, while the sixth, which had gashed the left ear and plunged deep into the neck, had been made by some sharp instrument. There was evidently indication that the murder itself had been committed elsewhere and that the body had been taken from a wagon and dragged into the field, where it was found. The dress of the woman seemed to indicate a person prepared for long journeys on foot in all sorts of weather.

FUNERAL OF MRS. STANTON.

Susan B. Anthony One Who Attended English Minister Spoke.

New York, Oct. 30.—The funeral of the late Elizabeth Cady Stanton was held yesterday, at her residence in this city. Besides the family there were present only a few close friends who had been invited, including Susan B. Anthony, the lifelong friend and co-worker of the dead woman, Lillian Devereaux Blake and Mrs. Wilbour, who represented Sorosis.

Addresses were given by the Rev. Martin D. Conroy, of the South Place chapel, London and by Mrs. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, of Elizabeth, N. J. The interment was at Woodlawn cemetery, where the ceremony included an address by Mrs. Phoebe Hanaford.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures cold and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. EAST END

FATE OF THE FIFTH WARD

East Enders Wondering Where They Will Land Under the New Code Bill.

The probable fate of the Fifth ward when the city is redistricted is already interesting the citizens of the East End. Under the new code, cities the size of East Liverpool can have but four wards, so one must necessarily be abolished. The Fifth was formerly the first precinct of the First ward, but it is now probable that part of the First ward may be added to it.

The new ward, it is thought, will embrace all the territory east of Ralston's crossing to the Pennsylvania state line. How it will be designated cannot be foretold, but it may be called the First. The addition of this new territory will make it the largest in area in the city and one of the largest in the number of votes.

MOTORMEN ARRESTED

Two Were Hauled Up in Wellsville. But the Mayor Discharged Them.

The street car men in the East End are laughing in their sleeves this morning at the Wellsville policemen who arrested Motormen Clager and Hurdman yesterday. Since the street car management issued the order to collect fares from all policemen not in uniform there has been trouble brewing and the first clash occurred yesterday.

Two Wellsville policemen who were not dressed as the "finest" should be were charged fare on the cars run by the men above named. Later both motormen failed to sound their gongs at a street crossing and were promptly arrested. They were taken before the chief, who released them, as the ordinance they were supposed to have violated is not yet effective.

GAS IS STILL SCARCE

Although the break in the mains of the Fort Pitt Gas company is reported to have been fixed there was a dearth of the heat and light giving fluid in the East End this morning. The gas stoves were burning very dimly and considerable trouble was again encountered by those who relied on gas for cooking purposes. There is not enough pressure for lighting purposes and those without electric lights were compelled to resurrect their oil lamps and overcoats and wraps were again much in evidence.

It can be readily seen how much inconvenience the shortage is causing. A number of people called up the Fort Pitt Gas company's office this morning by telephone and were told that the pressure was all right down town, and that there was probably a break in the main to the East End.

Many Lots to Be Sold.

There are 61 lots in the Midway Land Company's addition to East Liverpool, accepted by the city council at the last meeting. Of these 17 have been sold and the remainder will be offered at pudlic sale next Saturday. These lots all front on improved streets. The part of the addition rejected by the council is so situated that new thoroughfares will be necessary. Work has already been commenced. The company will also place a bridge across Lake Run.

An Enjoyable Dance.

PATRIOTISM

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia.

The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier, and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

"After I received the advice which you gave me in regard to my treatment," writes Geo. Dorner, Esq., of 1915 Pulaski Street, Baltimore, Maryland, "I used your 'Golden Medical Discovery' according to directions. After using four bottles I considered myself cured, as I have not felt any symptoms since. Had tried almost all remedies that I heard of that were good for dyspepsia, but without relief. Finally, I became discouraged, and wrote to you for advice, with the above result."

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Cottage Prayer Services.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

E. J. Owens left this morning for Pittsburg on a business mission.

A Hint to Mothers of Small Children.

Mrs. Joshua Nutter, of Swiftwater, N. H., says: "When our dealer did not have Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in stock we used another preparation in treating our children, but it did little or no good. We have used this remedy for colds and croup with the highest success, and do not feel safe without it in the house." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures and is pleasant and safe to take. Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, men—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous effort to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insiduous consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get this reliable remedy at Charles F. Craig's.

To Die of Paralysis Like Father.

Helpless Invalid For Three Years.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Made My Nerves Strong.

"For many years I suffered from terrible headaches and pains at the base of the brain, and finally got so bad that I was overcome with nervous prostration. I had frequent dizzy spells and was so weak and exhausted that I could take but little food. The best physicians told me I could not live; that I would die of paralysis, as my father and grandfather had. I remained a helpless invalid for three years, when I heard of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and began using it. That winter I felt better than I had before in many years, and I have not been troubled with those dreadful headaches since I first used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. My appetite is good and my nerves are strong."—Mrs. N. M. Bucknell, 2929 Oakland Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

"For many years I suffered from nervous prostration, and could not direct my household affairs, nor have any cares. My stomach was very weak, headaches very severe, and I was so nervous that there was not a night in years that I slept over one hour at a time. We spent hundreds of dollars for doctors and medicine. I was taken to Chicago and treated by specialists, but received no benefit at all. Finally I heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine and began its use. I was surprised that it helped me so quickly, and great was my joy to find, after using seven bottles, that I had fully recovered my health."—Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Duluth, Minn.

MAY LOSE THE CANAL

President Might Select Nicaragua Route, if Colombia Sulks.

COULD BUY OUT PANAMA CO.

Then Proceed on Panama Route Without Consulting Colombia—Effort to See Whether Colombia Knows of Concha's Action.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The status yesterday of the Colombian canal negotiations is that both sides here are awaiting a decision of the Colombian government as to whether Minister Concha shall proceed under his original instructions to present to the state department the Colombian response to the department's proposal for a treaty. When the response arrived in Washington, two days ago the minister promptly notified the state department of the fact, but he added to his notice the statement that in view of recent developments (meaning events that had happened on the isthmus since the note started from Bogota, Sept. 16), he had regarded it as his duty to withhold it until he heard further from his government.

Annoying to United States.

As the state department had in some way come to know that the Colombian response would, if submitted, go far towards meeting the desires of this government in the matter of a canal treaty, this delay was very annoying.

A cablegram was sent to United States Minister Hart, at the Colombian capital, notifying him of the action of the Colombian minister here. It was desired to make sure that the Colombian government knew that the note had been held back.

The matter of objection by our own officials is the attempt to link the negotiations for a canal treaty, pure and simple, with the discussion of the question of the correctness of the attitude of our naval officers on the isthmus. It is expected that the delay will not be long, for even if the Colombian answer is not satisfactory the United States government will still be bound by the terms of the Spooner act to proceed towards the construction of an isthmus canal.

Might Change to Nicaragua Route.

There are two ways open, even in case of an adverse attitude on the part of Colombia, namely, either the United States government to proceed without delay to complete the treaties with Nicaragua and Costa Rica necessary for the construction of a canal in those countries, or (and this latter course would be adopted with reluctance) the government might purchase outright the franchise of the French Panama Canal company and go on resolutely with the construction of the Panama canal, taking the ground that it would have a right to improve its own property without reference to any other government, and taking no further notice of Colombia.

There is no question before the voters of Ohio this fall so important as the election of congressmen. The state has always stood foremost in the land for its ability, strength and influence of its representatives in the national legislature. It will stand there against if the Republicans of the state do their duty this fall. Ohio's interests, with the interests of all the land, will be assailed, if the free trade Democracy gets a chance. A continuance of present marvelous prosperity can only be assured by the election of a Republican congress. The city of East Liverpool, whose chief industry owes its existence and prosperity to national protection, will lend no encouragement to the men who would tinker with the tariff and wipe it out of existence if they could.

The attempt to censure James Kennedy for action which the Youngstown board of commerce took in condemning a strike, though he was not present at the board meeting or aware of its action, is the silliest campaign canard ever brought to public notice. It is just as reasonable as it would be to attack a man for belonging to a church because there was once a church member who was hung. The Labor man who can find nothing more than this in the career of the Republican candidate with which to find fault ought to cease laboring in politics.

Lest voters forget, they are again reminded that there are two Democrats running for congress in this district. True Republicans will vote for neither, and both will be snowed under by majorities that will show them that the Eighteenth district has no sympathy for calamity howlers or for the adherents of a party that would bring back the calamities that followed the enactment of the Wilson tariff.

Mrs. George Vanderbilt has issued orders that all her male servants must lift their hats when they enter the presence of her one-year-old child. Let us hope the youngster appreciates the exalted nature of its position sufficiently to refrain from squalling before the menials.

The new municipal code is in existence and will become operative next spring. It is not too early for the East Liverpool city council to take cognizance of the fact and to arrange for the changes that will be necessary. The redistricting of the city into four wards instead of five should be taken up and carefully investigated, so that no mistake will be made when the time for action arrives.

If the government of Colombia, or what passes for such, shows a disposition to act the hog, Uncle Sam will undoubtedly give it a sharp reminder that it by no means has possession of the only practicable canal route.

The president has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation in ample time to enable all who have so far overlooked that important matter to begin fattening the turkey.

Democrats all over the country are calling for Grover Cleveland to "come and spellbind a little." Mr. Bryan is listening to these appeals with silent contempt.

A New Jersey young man tried to cure an anarchist by whipping him. That's a foolish way and unnecessarily exhausting when soap and water are so cheap.

England and Germany have arranged to divide South Africa between them. That's what South Africa gets for being outside of the Monroe doctrine.

Kennedy is the true Labor candidate. He never endorsed the Democratic platform or expressed regret that he could not run on the Democratic ticket.

Thanksgiving day comes, very appropriately, after election.

NEW WHARF PROJECT

Chester Needs a Boat Landing And Hopes to Have One Soon.

The citizens of Chester are becoming interested in the proposed wharf at the foot of Adolphus street. James E. McDonald, who has been promoting the enterprise, says a wharf can be established at a very small expense. The natural slope of the street to the river at this point, with a small amount of work, will make a fine grade.

With the increased traffic by water of the past two or three years, it is only a matter of time when Chester will be sadly in need of a boat landing. It is hoped Chester, with her other rapid strides of improvement, will not lose sight of this project.

AT THE THEATER

The pastoral drama seems to be in great favor with East Liverpool theatergoers and a crowded house greeted "Way Down East," a representative play of its class. Although not particularly true to the Yankee type, all the actors were very clever and their performance was pleasing. Miss Anna Bridges, as Anna Moore, the wronged girl, is the best emotional actress seen on the local stage this year and she was given numerous curtain calls. The village choir was another pleasing feature. The play was superbly staged, the snow storm in the third act being particularly ingenious.

"Are You a Mason?" is simply the title of Rich & Harris' big farce comedy success which will be presented at the Grand November 3. The story of the play hinges on the complications that follow the deceptions of two husbands who pretend that they have followed the requests of their wives to join Masonic lodges. The fun that ensues through their efforts to escape detection is highly ludicrous and mirth provoking and is incessant from the rise to the final fall of the curtain.

The first and greatest achievement in railroad scenic effect is Lincoln J. Carter's "The Fast Mail," which comes to the Grand Saturday night. Interest starts at a hurricane pace and never lags for a moment, until the fall of the curtain. This is where you go away from the theater feeling you've had something for your money.

"Side Tracked" is in its fourteenth year of success. This season Jule Walters promises a practically new production, inasmuch as the play has been entirely rewritten and made up-to-date. "Side Tracked" has been played 5,315 times; what better recommendation could anyone ask?

ceded that the new resident of the city is of the type that several hundred more should be if it is expected that the city will ever be rid of the rogues who worked without interruption for so long.

The police department is being severely censured on all sides for its inability to gain clues which will lead to the arrest of the nefarious workers. When approached on the subject they point out that the police force is too small. That being granted, citizens are arguing that it is not too small to make arrests, and that all suspicious characters should be watched and arrested, and the town ridded of them. One well known business man said today:

"Matters have certainly come to a pretty pass in East Liverpool when such a man as Dr. Pratt cannot travel the streets unmolested. The city can better afford to pay for more police than to stand the reputation of being a town where thugs and highwaymen can pursue their work without let or hindrance. In the past three months dozens of cases of highway robbery, attempted or accomplished, many of them in the very heart of the city, have been reported. If any of the offenders have been captured and punished the fact has escaped my notice. Men, women and children have been pursued by specimens of humanity that should not be suffered to live outside of penitentiary walls. By no means all of these cases find their way into the newspapers. I was told only last evening of the wife of a prominent merchant being chased by an unknown man a few nights ago on Third street. The same character was said to have frightened other women and girls in that locality until few if any ladies of that neighborhood dared venture out alone after dark.

"A prominent physician, it will be recalled, was ordered to hold up his hands not many nights ago, while going about his business in the very center of the city. Whose turn will come next nobody can tell. I dislike to go armed, but do so, feeling bound to protect myself if the police cannot protect me. Other men with whom I have talked feel the same way and I know of several who carry a revolver every time they go out of an evening. There will be a dead robber if I am ever accosted on the street, unless he gets the drop on me.

"Making every allowance for exaggerated reports and for the tales of people too frightened to give an accurate story of the cause of their fright, it is a fact that cases of robbery are becoming alarmingly frequent. Prevailing conditions are a disgrace to the city. A remedy must be found. I am not familiar with the workings of the police system, but I know there is a lot of police work that needs to be done that is not done. If the present officers do all they can—and it is fair to assume that they do—then, in the name and the interests of law and order, let us have more police. The city's first duty is to protect its citizens. To confess its inability to do so is a humiliation that a live town like this should never be subjected to.

"If this thing keeps up, and the thugs and the highwaymen keep on growing bolder and bolder, as they are doing now, murder will inevitably be added to the crime of robbery. The city should not wait for that to arouse itself and take measures to abate the peril threatening its people."

ROOSEVELT ON PRESIDENTS.

Article He Wrote, Before Nominated For Vice President, to Be Published In Youth's Companion.

Boston, Oct. 30.—In an article written for the Youth's Companion which will be published next week, Theodore Roosevelt gives his ideas of the duties and responsibilities of the president of the United States. Mr. Roosevelt wrote the article in 1900, while he was governor of New York and previous to the Republican national convention which nominated him for vice president. In it Mr. Roosevelt says in part:

One of Greatest of Rulers.

"The president of the United States occupies a position of peculiar importance. In the whole world there is no other ruler, certainly no other ruler under free institutions, whose power compares with his. Of course there is the enormous personal factor of the incumbent himself to be considered entirely apart from the power of the office itself. This is merely another way of stating that in any office the personal question is always of vital consequence.

"There is every reason why the president should be held to a sharp accountability alike for what he does and for what he leaves undone. But we injure ourselves and the nation if we fail to treat with proper respect the man who, in the highest office of our land, is striving to do his duty.

"The war department was utterly neglected for over 30 years after the Civil War. Neither the regular officers nor the regular soldier takes any part in politics as a rule, so that the demagogue and bread-and-butter politician have no fear of his vote; and to both of them, and also to the cheap sensational newspaper, the army offers a favorite subject for attack.

"So it often happens that some amiable people really get a little afraid of the army and have some idea that it may be used some time or other against our liberties.

Army Never Menaces the People.

"The army never has been, and, I am sure, it never will be or can be a menace to anybody save America's foes, or aught but a source of pride to every good and far-sighted American.

"Altogether, there are few harder tasks than that of filling well and ably the office of president of the United States. But if the man at the close of his term is able to feel that he has done his duty well, he has the satisfaction of feeling that he has performed one of the great world tasks and that mere performance is in itself the greatest of all possible rewards."

TO INSPECT THE MILL

A Party of Expert Tin Plate Workers Have Come to Chester For That Purpose.

A large party of tin plate workers arrived in Chester this morning, and during the day they will make a complete inspection of every department of the Chester mill. The men who form the party are all workmen in some of the plants controlled by the American Tin Plate Co. They are experts in their line and are in a position to do the work that has been placed upon them.

The inspection of the plant by workmen employed in other mills is in accordance with a method that has been adopted by the tin plate company with their mills throughout the country. Each mill is inspected at stated intervals by workmen taken from other mills and the recommendations of these men is given the highest consideration by the company officials.

The party will be in charge of one of the district officials and will include men from each of the different departments. At the conclusion of the inspection this afternoon a banquet will be served in the office at the mill at which all the spectators will be present. Each member of the party will be called to give a resume of his opinion as to the manner in which the work is being conducted at the plant.

The different spectators will give their unbiased opinion and will also make any suggestions they may have whereby the departments could be improved. A stenographer will take down all the reports and they will later be submitted to the general officers of the company where they will be thoroughly reviewed and acted upon if it is seen fit to do so.

BOYCE-SWANEY

Decorations of the Finest, Handsome Costumes, Fine Repast, And Presents Many.

As previously announced in this paper yesterday, the ceremony uniting the lives and fortunes of Mr. William Swaney and Miss Kathryn Boyce occurred at the home of the bride's mother last evening on Forest street. It was one of the most impressive and beautiful home weddings which has been solemnized in this city for some time. To the sweet strains of "Lohengrin" from the piano played by Miss Maude Carr, who were pink crepe de chene over pink silk, Miss Boyce, only sister of the bride, attired in white batiste with pink accessions, preceded the bridal party as ribbon bearer to the mantel. This was banked with laurel and pink chrysanthemums, above which was a life size picture of the late A. J. Boyce, father of the bride, which also was encircled with laurel. Following the ribbon bearer came Rev. C. G. Jordan and then the groom, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Daniel Swaney.

Miss Maude Wallace acted as maid-of-honor and looked charming in a gown of blue voile over blue silk, with a point Duchess lace bertha, and carrying a large bouquet of pink roses. Following her the bride approached the marriage altar attired in a gown of white batiste, en traine, being composed of tiny tucks in clusters alternating with point d'esprite insertion, forming a deep circular flounce. The upper part of the skirt was also composed of groups of tucks and insertion. The waist was made entirely of clusters of tucks and insertion, alternating with a small shoulder bertha of the same lace. This handsome gown was further enhanced by a white satin sash, fastened at the back with full rosette and each streamer being tied in pretty bows, near the end. The bride wore a full rosette of white tulle in her coiffure and also one tied at the back of the neck. She carried a beautiful large bunch of white roses, tied with white satin ribbon and never looked more handsome in her life.

While the ceremony was being performed, Miss Maud Carr played very softly "Hearts and Flowers." At the conclusion of the solemn words by Rev. Mr. Jordan, congratulations were extended by over 100 guests, followed by an elegant wedding supper. The bride's table, oblong in form, had for a center piece a handsome cut glass vase filled with rare pink roses, from the chandilier above was suspended garlands of smilax, fastened at each corner of the table with bows of white satin ribbon. The bride and groom occupied the end of the table which was just below the mantel, banked with white chrysanthemums.

After the sumptuous wedding repast, the bride donned a becoming costume of brown cloth and with the groom appeared at the top of the stairway, which had been effectively decorated with laurel and autumn leaves tied with red bows. At the foot of the stairs stood a bevy of pretty girls awaiting the appearance of the bride, who threw her bridal bouquet among them. It was caught by Miss Maud Wallace. As the happy couple descended the stairs they were showered with rice. They were accompanied to the depot by a large number of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Swaney expect to be absent about two weeks and before returning will visit several eastern cities.

A large collection of beautiful and costly gifts attested the kind thoughts of a host of friends.

FINE ENTERTAINMENT

At Miss Smith's Home, Calcutta Road. No Car And the Guests Walked Home.

An entertainment which will long be remembered was that given by Miss Edna Smith last evening at her home on Calcutta road in honor of Miss Lucy Fisher, who is a guest at her home. The early part of the evening was spent in games and cards, which afforded much amusement for the merry crowd present. At 11 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room, where choice refreshments were served. The large table in the center of the dining room was beautifully decorated in pink chrysanthemums and smilax.

When the luncheon was ended the guests passed into the reception room, where they indulged in the singing of popular songs, games and social conversation. Special arrangements had been made for the Calcutta road car to convey the party from the Smith home to the city, but at the appointed hour the car did not arrive and it was found it had jumped the track near Gill's store. The entire party of young people were obliged to walk home, but made the best of their predicament by merry jesting throughout the journey.

Arranging for Entertainment.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. All ladies concerned are urged to be present.

Chrysanthemum Club.

Judge Kept Out Testimony of Witnesses Not Present.

New York, Oct. 30.—The prosecution in the Molineux case rested yesterday, after the defense had secured an important advantage in the decision of Justice Lambert that the reading of the testimony given at the first trial by Mamie McLindo and Detective Farrell, both of whom are beyond the jurisdiction of the court, was inadmissable.

The greater part of the session was devoted to the examination of a handwriting expert, who, like all those who have preceded him, testified that one hand wrote the poison package address, the Barnet and Cornish letters and letters admittedly written by Molineux. The presentation of the case in the defense was expected to occupy not more than two days and interest centered whether Molineux would testify in his own behalf.

Bound Marshal and Robbed Bank.

Gardner, Ills., Oct. 30.—Six men yesterday morning seized Town Marshal Edmondson, at the engine house, tied him with ropes, took him to the Exchange National bank and set him in a chair. The vault was blown open with dynamite, and the interior of the bank wrecked. The robbers are supposed to have secured between $3,000 and $4,000, although the exact amount is not known. After leaving the bank they took the marshal to the school house, tied a rope around his neck and fastened him to a chair. The chair was placed at the head of a stairway, so that if he struggled to release himself he would fall downstairs and hang himself. The robbers took a train going toward Chicago.

MINERS' HOMES TO BE SEEN.

District President Nicholls Represents the Mine Workers and Mine Officials the Operators—Mitchell's Statement May Be Received.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 30.—The anthracite coal strike commissioners, who will make an inspection of the mines and the homes of the mine workers, arrived here last night over the Central Railroad of New Jersey. Commissioner T. H. Watkins, whose home is in this city, came here early in the day and arranged some of the details for the first day's tour of the upper region. The commission's headquarters are at the Hotel Jermyn, where the party occupy 14 rooms.

A colliery will be visited at Forest City and a washery at Carbondale.

The operators will be represented by General Manager Bryden, of the New York, Ontario and Western company; Superintendent Rose, of the Delaware and Hudson; General Manager Thorne, of the Temple Iron company, and General Manager May, of the Erie company. District President T. D. Nicholls, of the miners' union, is to be the principal representative of the miners.

The commissioners will stop at Olyphant, six miles north of Scranton, for the purpose of visiting other collieries and to look at the homes and surroundings of the mine workers. Scranton will be reached at about 6 o'clock.

On Friday the commission will spend the day visiting collieries in and about the city of Scranton and viewing the mining suburbs. Saturday the commission will go to Wilkesbarre to further prosecute their investigations.

Mr. Watkins, in an interview yesterday, said, in part, that the commission will probably not sit to take testimony until after a tour of the region has been completed. It is possible, though, that a session will take place Monday, in Wilkesbarre, to receive the statement to be presented by President Mitchell, of the mine workers, to which the operators have agreed to make answer within three days. It is almost a certainty that no testimony will be taken in this city this week.

MITCHELL DAY CELEBRATED.

Demonstrations In Various Towns In Anthracite Region—Mitchell Spoke at Wilkesbarre.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 30.—Mitchell day was celebrated in all the principal towns of the anthracite coal region yesterday, and in order that all the mine workers might have an opportunity to participate in the exercises the mines were closed down. The principal demonstration was held in this city and President Mitchell took part. Many strangers were here. Everybody wore a John Mitchell badge.

10,00 0Men In Line.

The procession started shortly before noon and was nearly one hour in passing a given point. As the weather was cold the marching was rapid and there were few delays. It is estimated that there were 10,000 men in line. The parade was headed by a platoon of police. Then came the chief marshal, National Organizer John Fallon. The chief officer was followed by carriages containing the principal officers of the United Mine Workers' organization and invited guests. President Mitchell, "Mother" Jones, Rev. Powers, of Spring Valley, Ills., and Thomas Haggerty, of Reynoldsville, Pa., occupied the first carriage.

President Mitchell was given an ovation all along the line of march, and whenever his carriage stopped the crowd from the sidewalk pressed around and insisted on shaking his hand.

After the parade was over a big mass meeting was held at Y. M. C. A. park. Rev. J. J. Curran, of Holy Saviour church, this city, was elected chairman. He introduced as the first speaker Rev. J. F. Powers, of Spring Valley, Ills., who spoke. Rev. James Moore, of the Primitive Methodist church, of Avoca, then spoke.

Thomas Haggerty, of Reynoldsville, Pa., who was down on the program as the principal speaker of the day, then made an address. Several addresses in foreign languages then followed.

Doesn't Want Another Strike.

President Mitchell was the last speaker. He was received with great cheering. He said in part:

"I hope there will never again be a strike in the coal fields of Pennsylvania. I desire the men and the operators to meet. I do not want to make enemies of the operators. In closing, I wish to impress upon you that membership in the union is the only safeguard. The operators are not going to pay the bill of the strike. They will make the workers pay it if they can, but if not, they will make the ne[illegible] pay it."

TO THANK GOD.

Points Out the Many Blessings For Which We Should Thank the Lord.

"By the President of the United States of America, a Proclamation:

"According to the yearly custom of our people it falls upon the president at this season to appoint a day of festival and thanksgiving to God.

"Over a century and a quarter has passed since this country took its place among the nations of the earth and during that time we have had on the whole more to be thankful for than has fallen to the lot of any other people. Generation after generation has grown to manhood and passed away. Each has had to bear its peculiar burdens, each to face its special crisis and each has known years of grim trial, when the country was menaced by malice, domestic or foreign levy, when the hand of the Lord was heavy upon it in drouth or flood or pestilence, when in bodily distress and anguish of soul it paid the penalty of folly and a forward heart.

"Nevertheless, decade by decade, we have struggled onward and upward; we now abundantly enjoy material well being, and under the favor of the Most High, we are striving earnestly to achieve moral and spiritual uplifting. The year that has just closed has been one of peace and overflowing plenty. Rarely has any people enjoyed greater prosperity than we are now enjoying. For this we render heartfelt and solemn thanks to the Giver of Good; and we seek to praise Him, not by words only, but by deeds, by the way in which we do our duty to ourselves and to our fellow men.

"Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, do hereby designate as a day of general thanksgiving, Thursday, the 27th of the coming November, and do recommend that throughout the land the people cease from their ordinary occupations and in their several homes and places of worship, render thanks unto Almighty God for the manifold blessings of the past year.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington this 29th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and two, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and twenty-seventh.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

"By the President,

"JOHN HAY, Secretary of State."

Doukhobers Not Likely to Riot.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 30.—The Doukhober fanatics are encamped in the vicinity of Yorkton. Nothing of a disorderly nature has yet occurred. While the women and children spent Tuesday night in the shed, the men sought the shelter of a bluff. The whole night was spent in religious exercises. They seem determined to continue and expressed themselves thus to Agent Speers, who pointedly told them that they would not be allowed to wander in such large numbers. There is no danger of any trouble. Even if they are forced to go back to their villages they will go without resistance.

Hoy and Others Furnished Bail.

Clarion, Pa., Oct. 30.—Representative J. A. F. Hoy, R. G. Yingling and James Pinks, the last two being trustees of the Clarion State Normal school, charged with conspiracy and bribery in connection with a recent state appropriation to the institution, yesterday waived a hearing and furnished bail in the sum of $500 each for court.

WELLSVILLE

WELLSVILLE RESIDENTS SURE THEY HAD FOUND IT.

But After They Had Carried It Home Were Obliged to Take It Back.

Quite a comical story is going the rounds of the West End about a few people who reside in the neighborhood of the Vulcan Brick works, who a few days ago struck a snap in the way of laying in a winter's supply of coal, without it costing them a penny.

It seems that few days ago a wreck occured in the West End yards of the C. & P. road which resulted in the bottom of a loaded coal car falling out, scattering the contents along the track. Nothing was done with the coal by the railroad company on the day of the wreck as all of the employes of the road were busy elsewhere and could not attend to it on that particular day.

One or two of the West End citizens who reside in the neighborhood of the brick plant noticed the good coal laying along the track and it occured to them that it would be a good thing to gather it up in baskets and fill their cellars for a winter supply. They accordingly went home and after telling two or three of their neighbors, started out to gather up the valuable fuel. Several of them worked all night long and succeeded in carrying nearly a ton to their homes.

During all of these proceedings a night watchman for the company, who was acquainted with all of the people who were gathering the coal, jotted down the names of the offenders and reported the next morning. The result was that all of the people who had worked so hard the night before received a notice that morning to put back the coal which they had taken or suffer the consequences, which would mean prosecution. All complied with the notice and returned every bit of that which they had taken from the company's tracks. One of the men who had carried perhaps a few bushel more than any of the others was physically unable to carry the coal back that morning and had to hire a man to do the work for him, it costing him $1.50.

OBJECT TO THE RULE

Wellsville Police Propose to Get Even With the Street Railway For Charging Fare.

Wellsville's police officers of late have been asked for street car fare because they were not in their uniform. They are unanimously against the new ruling of the street car company and have a scheme on foot to get even. The first afternoon when they are off duty, it is said, they intend to put on their full uniform and ride in a body backward and forward all throught the city the entire afternoon. The street car company can raise no objection to this and the local officers think that they may be able in this way to prevail upon the company to change the new ruling.

A few days ago Chief Thorn boarded one of the west bound cars and after riding about one block was approached by the conductor for a nickel. The chief at the time wore his full uniform with the exception of his helmet, which he had left at home. He wore a soft slouch hat. He refused to pay the conductor and quite an argument followed which resulted in the chief stepping off of the car, having gone as far as he cared to. This is only one of many such instances and the local police mean to have the ruling changed, if possible.

CAN'T GET MEN ENOUGH

Carroll-Porter Company Searching In Vain For More Boiler Makers.

The Carroll-Porter Boiler works are rushed with orders and are sadly in need of more men. They are now working two turns a day and are still unable to fill orders. Boiler makers, who are perhaps needed more than men for any other department, seem to be scarcest. The company has advertised for men all over the country, but has thus far been able to get but few. The company is also in need of riveters and punchers but these are likewise scarce.

Manager Baldwin has been to Pittsburg and Youngstown several times lately, but only succeeded in bringing in a few men.

Man Fined for Being Drunk—Woman Threatened With Workhouse Sentence.

K. W. Bradley, of this city, was arrested last evening by Officers Thorn and Davis on a charge of drunk and disorderly. He was given a hearing this morning before Mayor Fogo and pleaded guilty to the charge, after which he was assessed $5.75.

Mrs. McClurg, alias Jane Knox, who was arrested Tuesday night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, was given a hearing this morning. This is her second appearance before the mayor, who only gave her a severe scolding and then allowed her to be released. The mayor informed her that if she ever appeared in his court again she would be sent to the workhouse.

CASE DISMISSED

End of the Injunction Suit of Andrew Roley vs. George M. Aten.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special)—In the case of Andrew Roley against George M. Aten, both of Wellsville, the injunction suit was dismissed yesterday at the cost of the plaintiff. The plaintiff sought to enjoin the defendant from proceeding in Justice Riley's court in Wellsville in an action of forcible detention to recover possession of a coal mine that had been leased to Robey by an agent.

The lease was in writing and for the term of five years, was witnessed and was not acknowledged. For this reason Roley was not able to hold the mine.

A NEW POTTERY AT COSHOCTON

SIX KILN PLANT REGARDED AS A CERTAINTY THERE.

The Project to Be Helped Forward By a Bonus of $25,000 And A Site.

Coshocton, October 30.—Unless somebody changes his mind says a local paper, Coshocton will soon have another new industry, one employing 225 people at the start and promising to increase the number to 300. The industry in question is a pottery and it will make a very fine grade of decorated awre. The projector is an experienced pottery man who has plenty of capital. He has requested that his name be not made public until a little later on, for business reasons.

The board of trade has been conducting negotiations with the gentleman for some months. He was in conference with the board Tuesday night and the terms were finally agreed upon. He will be given a bonus of $25,000 and a site. The plant will be located on the board of trade second addition, near the glass works. The building will be 600 feet long and the plant in the beginning will have six kilns. The agreement provides that this shall be increased to nine kilns within five years.

The contract has not yet been signed but the memorandum was all agreed upon, and unless the projector changes his mind it will be a go.

The Story of Many Thefts at Receptions Ridiculed And Denied.

A story published in a local paper last evening boldly stating that articles of value had been stolen from the homes of some of the most prominent people in the city during the progress of receptions was today found to be a miserable fake, and the persons alluded to as being victims of the thefts are not only indignant, but exceedingly sorry that for the simple sake of filling space that a paper would resort to such means.

The article stated that during a reception at the home of Mrs. Joshua Poole, table linen was taken. Mrs. Poole when seen this morning by a News Review reporter said: "That is absolutely untrue. There was not a thing stolen from my home on the day of the reception."

Mrs. James Rinehart was also much worked up when asked regarding the statement that different receptions articles had disappeared at the function given at her home. She said: "There was nothing in that story at all. I did not miss a thing."

TEWKSBURY IS LAME

The greatest horse race ever witnessed in this county, scheduled to take place at Columbian park next Saturday afternoon, was postponed this morning owing to the lameness of one of the racers, Tewksbury, owned by C. A. Smith.

As a result of a nail being driven into the quick of the animal's right front foot, it can scarcely walk and it would be almost an impossibility to race the horse. However, Mr. Smith would not call the race off until a mutual agreement was made between himself and Harrison Rinehart, the backer of Redmond, the other horse to be entered. Mr. Rinehart was willing to let the event be postponed until Tewksbury recovers.

It has not been decided yet when the race will be called but it is possible on Tuesday or Wednesday next. The gentlemen's road race has also been postponed, but it will occur on the date set for the most important event.

KINGDOM OF GALLUP

King Owns Everything But Railroad And He Is Boss of That, As Well.

Napoleon, October 30.—A few miles from this town, in Henry county, is located the "Kingdom of Gallup." It may not be found on the map, but it has a very real king, John Konzen. Konzen is not yet entirely accustomed to his honors, and the crown still rests somewhat uneasily on his brow. For Konzen is young.

There is only one thing that the king does not own in all the kingdom, that is the Detroit Southern railway, which runs through his kingdom. But he is none the less the ruler, as he is both freight and ticket agent.

The kingdom is small—it has but a little over 150 inhabitants, not counting the pigs, ducks, dogs and cats. It is not an hereditary monarchy, as Konzen recently purchased all rights. He bought the grain elevator, the dry goods store, the grocery and meat market, together with the postoffice and all the residences.

The kingdom has not adopted any distinctive flag, but still flaunts the Stars and Stripes and Speaker McKinnon's Buckeye banner on big days.

Konzen, however, has declared himself independent of the legislature, and the new code bill will not be effective in his kingdom.

Duffy Talked at Lisbon.

Lisbon, October 30.—(Special)—T. J. Duffy, the labor candidate for congress addressed a meeting in the court room last evening. There was a fair sized audience, the seats on the raise in the rear end of the room being partly filled.
